EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 100

I, Brendan Byrne, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of this State, do hereby ORDER and DIRECT that:

1. November 28, 1980, the day following Thanksgiving, shall be granted as a day off to employees who work in the executive departments of State government and who are paid from State funds, whose functions, in the opinion of their appointing authority, permit such absence.

2. An alternative day off shall be granted to the aforementioned category of employees whose functions, in the opinion of their appointing authority, preclude such absence on November 28, 1980.

[SEAL] Given, under my hand and seal this 19th day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighty, and of the Independence of the United States, the two hundred and fifth.

/s/ BRENDAN BYRNE,
Governor.

Attest:

/s/ HAROLD L. HODES,
Chief of Staff, Secretary.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 101

WHEREAS, On July 22, 1976, a Reorganization Plan was submitted to the Legislature pursuant to P.L. 1969, c. 203, the Executive Reorganization Act of 1969, to transfer the functions, powers and duties of the Office of Civilian Defense Director from the Department of Defense to the Department of Law and Public Safety; and

WHEREAS, On July 20, 1979, by Executive Order No. 12148, the President of the United States transferred to the Federal Emergency Management Agency all functions vested in the President that had been delegated or assigned to the Civil Defense Preparedness Agency, the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration and the Federal Preparedness Agency, together with all functions vested in the President by the Earthquake Hazards Reduction Act of 1977; and

WHEREAS, The President's Executive Order provides that the Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency shall represent the President in working with State and local governments and the private sector to stimulate vigorous participation in civil emergency preparedness, mitigation, response and recovery programs; and in executing the functions under this Order, the Director shall develop policies which provide that all civil defense and civil emergency functions, resources and systems of Executive agencies are integrated effectively with
