EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 110

WHEREAS, Chapter 73, P. L. 1963, finds and declares it to be the public policy of this State that public records shall be readily accessible for examination by the citizens of this State for the protection of the public interests, except as otherwise provided in said law; and

WHEREAS, Said law provides that all records which are required by law to be made, maintained or kept on file by State and local governmental agencies are to be deemed to be public records, subject to inspection and examination and available for copying, pursuant to said law; and

WHEREAS, Said law provides that records which would otherwise be deemed to be public records, subject to inspection and examination and available for copying, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 73, P. L. 1963, may be excluded therefrom by Executive Order of the Governor or by any regulation promulgated under the authority of any Executive Order of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 48, issued by Governor Richard J. Hughes, excluded State Police investigative files from public scrutiny and prohibited the disclosure of the contents of such files unless ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or by the Governor of the State of New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 9, issued by Governor Richard J. Hughes, provided that certain records including fingerprint cards, plates and photographs and other similar criminal investigation records should not be deemed public records subject to inspection; and

WHEREAS, The State Police are in custody of voluminous records and exhibits relating to the investigation of the kidnapping and death of the Lindbergh child which took place in 1932, and the apprehension of Bruno Hauptmann who was convicted and executed as the perpetrator of that crime in 1936; and

WHEREAS, For the past several years repeated requests have been made by legal scholars, historians, biographers, members of the news media, and other individuals for access to records relating to the investigation and trial which took place over 45 years ago; and

WHEREAS, The Lindbergh case was and continues to be of extraordinary interest to the legal community and the public at large;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brendan Byrne, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Chapter 73, P. L. 1963, do hereby ORDER and DIRECT:

1. The Superintendent of the State Police to make the investigative files, records and exhibits within his custody relating to the investigation of the Lindbergh kidnapping available to the public, and subject to inspection and examination and available for copying 45 days from the promulgation of this order.

2. The Superintendent is empowered in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of P. L. 1963, c. 73 (C. 47:1A-2) to establish procedures to insure that there is no risk of damage or mutilation of such files, records and exhibits and to insure that public access and right to copy such files, records and exhibits shall be during regular business hours to the extent that such access is compatible with the economic and efficient operation of his division and the transaction of its public business and to provide and assure payment of such costs as permitted by law.

3. This Order shall take effect immediately.

Given, under my hand and seal this 9th day of [SEAL] October, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighty-one, and of the Independence of the United States, the two hundred and sixth.
