STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 36

WHEREAS, On March 11, 1971, I created by Executive Order No. 16 a Governor's State Committee on Children and Youth, a body composed of delegates to the decennial White House Conference on Children (1970) and Youth (1971), youth representatives, and concerned citizens, to implement the recommendations of those national conferences and otherwise study and recommend what changes need to be made to improve the quality of services for the children and youth of the State; and

WHEREAS, The coming together of these talented people has presented an excellent opportunity for focusing attention on the problems of children and youth in New Jersey; and

WHEREAS, Better communication and coordination of activities among public and private organizations serving children and youth has been established by this Committee;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William T. Cahill, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and by the statutes of this State, do hereby ORDER and DIRECT:

1. The Governor's State Committee on Children and Youth, composed of delegates to the decennial White House conferences, representatives of the Legislature, members of the various State agencies, organizations which have an ongoing concern for the problems of children and youth, and other concerned citizens, shall continue in existence until June 30, 1975.

2. The Office of Youth Services within the Department of Community Affairs, which has served the past year as staff to the Committee, shall continue to serve as staff to the Committee in consultation with the Division of Youth and Family Services recently established in the Department of Institutions and Agencies.

3. The current members of the State Committee shall continue to serve in their capacity. Additional appointments shall be made by the Office of Youth Services, subject to my approval, the number to be sufficient for efficient operation and program needs of the Committee.

4. The Committee shall maintain contact with the White House Conference staff in Washington within the Office of Child Development, Department of Health, Education and Welfare; the National Council of State Committees on Children and Youth; the regional committees established at the decennial Conferences; and should be considered by all other public and private agencies in this State as an official body appointed by the Governor for evaluating and recommending to my office and to others any programs, legislation, and administrative changes through which the life of the State's children and youth can be enhanced.

5. The Committee shall issue an annual report to the Governor on the progress that has been made by public and private agencies over the past year, and shall make recommendations to the Governor, other States agencies, and private organizations for the improvement of current programs or the initiation of new programs for the children and youth of the State.

6. The month of May shall be designated annually as a month for recognizing the children and youth of our State, and the second week of May shall be designated as "A Week for Children and Youth," sponsored by the State Committee on Children and Youth, and I urge that it be set aside by all agencies in the State, both public and private, for activities focusing on the problems, concerns, and accomplishments of our children and youth.

7. This order shall take effect immediately.

Given, under my hand and seal this 29th day of [SEAL] September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and ninety-seventh.

/s/ WILLIAM T. CAHILL,
Governor.
