EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 44

WHEREAS, The people of the United States and of all the World have suffered a grievous loss in the death of former President Lyndon B. Johnson; and

WHEREAS, January 25, 1973 has been set aside as a National Day of Mourning for the late former President; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that this day be set aside as a day of mourning and prayer in memory of this great man;

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William T. Cahill, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes of this State do hereby ORDER and DIRECT that Thursday, January 25, 1973 shall be a day of mourning and prayer for our late former President Lyndon B. Johnson and further ORDER and DIRECT that:

1. All State offices and buildings shall be closed, work permitting, for the transaction of the regular business of government from and after 12 o'clock noon and State employees shall be excused at that time to pay their private respects to former President Johnson.

2. This Executive Order is not intended to affect banks, schools, county and local governments and the transaction of other business.

Given, under my hand and seal this 23rd day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and ninety-seventh.

/s/ WILLIAM T. CAHILL,
Governor.
