EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 12

WHEREAS, Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States, has declared Monday, November 25, 1963 a day of prayer and mourning in memory of the late President John Fitzgerald Kennedy; and

WHEREAS, the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, pursuant to the action of the President, has provided for the closing of all federally chartered banks on said date; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 11 does not extend in its effect to State chartered banks and financial institutions; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that all financial institutions be closed on this day of prayer and mourning,

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD J. HUGHES, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes of this State do hereby ORDER and DIRECT that:

1. Monday, November 25, 1963 be a Bank Holiday within the meaning and provisions of Section 36:1-1 of the Revised Statutes.

Given under my hand and seal this 24th day of November, in the year of [SEAL] Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, and in the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and eighty-eighth.

/s/ RICHARD J. HUGHES,
Governor.

Attest:

/s/ LAWRENCE BILDER,
Acting Secretary to the Governor.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 13

WHEREAS, in the continuing effort to achieve improved efficiency and economy in the operation of State government, the Treasury Department, under the direction of the Governor, has undertaken a comprehensive study of duplicating and printing by State agencies; and

WHEREAS, a report of this survey has indicated that substantial savings to the taxpayers can result from a revision of duplicating and printing operations through centralized control of such activity to reflect a more efficient balance between duplicating
