

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 67

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 66, declaring a limited state of emergency was issued on March 29, 1984 because of severe weather conditions; and

WHEREAS, The severity of the weather conditions necessitating the declaration of a limited state of emergency have eased;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas H. Kean, Governor of the State of New Jersey, announce that the limited state of emergency is hereby terminated effective at 4 p.m. on March 30, 1984.

I wish to express my appreciation to the people of New Jersey for the manner in which they cooperated during this emergency and to the law enforcement and other emergency response personnel of the State for their untiring efforts.

Issued March 30, 1984.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 68

WHEREAS, Severe weather conditions, including heavy rains, winds, and high tides, have created both flooding and the potential for serious and substantial flooding, hazardous road conditions, and threaten homes and other structures; and

WHEREAS, These weather conditions pose a threat and constitute a disaster from a natural cause which threatens and presently does endanger the health, safety or resources of the residents of more than one municipality and county of this State; and which is in some parts of the State and may become in other parts of the State too large in scope to be handled in its entirety by the normal municipal operating services; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution and statutes of the State of New Jersey, particularly the provisions of the Laws of 1942, chapter 251 (C. App. A: 9-33 et seq.), and the Laws of 1979, chapter 240 (C. 38A:3-6.1) and N. J. S. 38A:2-4, and all amendments and supplements thereto, confer upon the Governor of the State of New Jersey certain emergency powers;
