

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

7. The failure of any issuer to abide by the provisions of this Executive Order or any rules or regulations promulgated by the Authority pursuant to it may, at the discretion of the Authority, result in the forfeiture of future reallocations to the issuer.

8. This Order shall take effect immediately.

Issued October 22, 1984.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 86

I, Thomas H. Kean, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of this State, do hereby ORDER and DIRECT that:

1. November 23, 1984, the day following Thanksgiving, shall be granted as a day off to employees who work in the Executive Departments of State government and who are paid from State funds or from federal or other funds made available to the State, whose functions, in the opinion of their appointing authority, permit such absence.

2. An alternate day off shall be granted to the aforementioned category of employees whose functions, in the opinion of their appointing authority, preclude such absence on November 23, 1984.

Issued November 13, 1984.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 87

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 17, signed by Governor Thomas H. Kean on October 5, 1982, creates a New Jersey Advisory Council on Holocaust Education to advise and assist in the implementation of Holocaust education in the State schools; and

WHEREAS, The New Jersey Advisory Council on Holocaust Education is required under Executive Order No. 17 to prepare a report for the Governor regarding their findings and recommendations to facilitate the inclusion of the Holocaust in public education; and
