EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 88

WHEREAS, It is necessary to confine in various penal and correctional facilities of this State persons charged or under sentence for serious crimes including murder and other violent acts; and

WHEREAS, Some such persons either may have, or it is reasonable to believe they have, a relationship to or membership in terrorist organizations or other similar groups committed to violence, murder or mayhem as a means to achieve their purposes; and

WHEREAS, Most of the State and county penal and correctional institutions cannot provide by reason of the physical structure of such institutions the degree of maximum security necessary to safeguard such persons and to guard against escape or a prison break perpetrated by other persons; and

WHEREAS, These conditions immediately endanger the safety and welfare of the residents of this State and threaten loss to and destruction of property and interfere with the due administration of justice and are too large in scope or unusual in type to be handled by the penal institutions of the several counties;

2. I invoke such emergency powers as are conferred upon me by the Laws of 1942, chapter 251 (C. App. A:9-33 et seq.) and all amendments and supplements thereto.

3. I hereby direct the Commissioner of Corrections to designate as a place of confinement any available suitable and appropriate institution or facility of the State, including the State Prison, or a county penal or correctional institution, in the event it is determined by him that a specific county correctional or penal facility is not suitable or adequate to properly secure any inmate under sentence or charged with any criminal offense.

4. The Commissioner of Corrections shall have full authority to adopt such rules, regulations, orders or directives as he shall deem necessary to effect the above provisions.

5. It shall be the duty of every official, agent or employee of every governmental body, agency and authority in this State of any nature whatsoever to fully cooperate in carrying out the provisions of this Order.
