

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

3. This part of the Executive Order shall take effect immediately and applies to all obligations issued after August 15, 1986. This part of the Executive Order shall expire on December 31, 1987.

Issued October 20, 1986.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 148

I, Thomas H. Kean, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of this State, do hereby ORDER and DIRECT:

1. November 28, 1986, the day following Thanksgiving, shall be granted as a day off to employees who work in the Executive Departments of State Government and who are paid from State funds or from federal or other funds made available to the State, whose functions, in the opinion of their appointing authority, permit such absence.

2. An alternative day off shall be granted to the aforementioned category of employees whose functions, in the opinion of their appointing authority, preclude such absence on November 28, 1986.

Issued October 30, 1986.

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 149

WHEREAS, The problem of drug and alcohol abuse has reached epidemic proportions in the State of New Jersey, adversely affecting the lives of all of our citizens, and particularly the lives of our young people; and

WHEREAS, Traditional law enforcement efforts to reduce the supply of illicit substances are a vital part of the effort to control drug and alcohol abuse, but alone cannot solve this problem; and

WHEREAS, As outlined in the "Blueprint for a Drug-Free New Jersey," presented at the October 15, 1986 Annual Governor's Conference on Crime, to be successful any plan to attack drug and alcohol abuse must include efforts to reduce the demand for
