An act relative to the office of secretary of state and register of the prerogative court.

Approved April 17, 1846. R. S. 808.

1. That from and after the passing of this act, every person who shall be appointed to the office of secretary of state and register of the prerogative court, shall, before he enters upon the execution of his said offices, or be admitted to take the oath or affirmation hereinafter appointed to be taken, for the due and faithful discharge of his said offices, before one or more of the justices of the supreme court, enter into bond to the state of New Jersey, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, being freeholders in the said state, jointly and severally, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved of by the said justice or justices; which bond, with the condition thereof, shall be in the form hereinafter mentioned, and when so executed shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the supreme court, and being so recorded, shall be delivered by the said clerk to the treasurer of this state, to be by him kept among the public papers of his office. Bond required.
2. That when the said secretary and register of the prerogative court hath given bond as aforesaid, he shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, before any one of the justices of the supreme court: Recorded.
- I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly, faithfully and impartially, execute the office of secretary of state of New Jersey, and register of the prerogative court of the same, agreeably to law, according to the best of my skill and understanding. Oath to be taken.
- Which oath or affirmation, so as aforesaid subscribed, shall, by the justice of the supreme court administering the same, be delivered to the treasurer of this state, to be by him kept, together with the bond aforesaid, among the public papers of his office.
3. That the bond to be entered into as aforesaid, by the secretary and register, and his sureties, with the condition thereof, shall be in the form following, that is to say: Form of bond.
- Know all men by these presents, that we, A. B., C. D. and E. F., of _____, are held and firmly bound unto the state of New Jersey, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be paid unto the state of New Jersey, to
