Census.

- 1. Compensation to assessors.
- 2. Accounts how audited and paid.

3. Repealer.

A further supplement to "An act in relation to the census or enumeration of the inhabitants of this state," approved March twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and fifty-five.

Approved March 16, 1876. P. L. 1876, p. 55.

WHEREAS, the duties of the assessors of the several townships and wards Preamble. of this state, in taking the census of population as required by the act to which this is a supplement, were increased without providing adequate compensation; and whereas, the boards of freeholders or supervisors have heretofore allowed additional compensation in most of the counties; and whereas, doubts have arisen as to the legality of such allowances; and whereas, it is desirable to remove all doubts and equalize the compensation allowed; therefore,

1. That the assessors of the several townships and wards of this state, compensation to shall be allowed for taking the decennial state census in the year one assessors. thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and the census of each tenth year hereafter, three cents per name for each inhabitant so enumerated.

2. That the accounts of the assessors for the work done under this act, addited and paid. shall be audited and paid as now required by law.

3. That the thirteenth section of the act to which this is a further Repealer. supplement, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Certiorari.

1. When report or return of assessment, &c., may be 2. Costs in such cases in discretion of court. amended on certiorari.

A supplement to an act entitled "An act relative to the writ of certiorari.

Approved February 24, 1876. P. L. 1876, p. 20.

1. That in all cases of writs of certiorari brought to remove any tax or proceedings in assessment or other order or proceeding, touching any local or public certiforari to reimprovement, when reasons for reversal are filed, founded on any omission move assessor defect in the return of said assessment or proceeding which, in the reasons for reopinion of the court out of which said certificati is issued, may be supplied versal are foundby a new or supplemental certificate of the commissioners or other person ed on omission making such return, it shall be lawful for the said court, on the application in defect in of either party to said writ of certiorari, or on their own motion at any return, &c. time before said writ of certiorari shall be finally determined, to grant a rule upon the commissioners or other persons making such assessment, to certify to said court touching such omission or defect, and to stay the final determination of such cause for a reasonable time, until said rule shall be returned to said court; and if it shall appear by the return of said commissioners, or a majority of them to said rule, that their action or determination in respect of which said reason for reversal is filed was really had, made, or taken by said commissioners in making said assessment, and was accidentally or inadvertently omitted from their said return If omission or report of assessment, the return of said commissioners or other persons accidental, reto said rule shall have the same force and effect as if the facts therein turn on report certified had been contained in the said original report or return; and amended. said original report or return shall be considered as amended by said return to said rule.

2. That in all such cases it shall be lawful for the court to take such Costs in discreaction respecting the costs of said writ of certiorari as it shall deem tion of court. equitable and just, whether the proceeding reviewed by said certiorari shall be affirmed or set aside.