An act authorizing the boards of chosen freeholders of the several counties of this state to renew bonds.

Approved April 5, 1876.

P. L. 1876, p. 80.

1. That whenever any bonds heretofore issued for any loan made under the authority of law, by the board of chosen freeholders of any county of this state, shall hereafter become due, and no provision shall be made for the payment of the same, such board may renew the said loan or loans, by the issuing of the bonds of such corporation for the said loan, or any part thereof, which bonds shall be made payable at such time or times, not over thirty years from the date of issuing the same, but so issued that at least three and one-third per centum thereof shall become due and payable every year, and shall draw such rate of interest, not exceeding seven per centum per annum, and shall be issued in such sums as such board shall determine; and said bonds shall be executed by attaching the seal of such corporation, and be signed by the director of the board, and the clerk thereof, and countersigned by the collector of said county, and shall, except as hereinafter provided, have coupons attached for every half year's interest until due, which coupons shall be numbered to correspond with said bond, and signed by said collector; and where the said board judge best, said bonds, or any of them, may be registered, and made payable to the order of the purchaser, and shall thus be registered as provided by said board, and issued without coupons, and be transferable only in person, or by power of attorney, on the books to be provided by said board for that purpose, and all bonds issued under this act shall be numbered, and a register of the number, denomination, date of issuing,

When boards of chosen freeholders may renew loan or loans by issuing bonds, &c.

and name of person to whom issued, if registered, and time of payment, shall be made by the collector, in a book to be provided by said board for that purpose.

Debt and interest
to be paid by tax.

2. That the debt hereby authorized, and the interest thereon, shall be paid by a tax annually levied and collected, in the same manner as the county taxes are now or may hereafter be levied and collected, and the whole of each year's interest shall be so raised, levied and collected and paid within each year, and in addition thereto there shall be also raised, levied and collected in each year, an amount sufficient to pay the bonds falling due in said year.

An act respecting chosen freeholders.

P. L. 1876, p. 222.

Approved April 9, 1876.

Ruling may be appealed from.

3. SEC. 1. That any ruling of the directors at large, of any board of chosen freeholders, may be appealed from at the time of such ruling by any two members of the board over which he is presiding; and upon such appeal being sustained by a two-thirds vote of all the members of said board, the director at large shall be reversed as to such ruling.

In case of veto.

4. SEC. 2. That in case such director at large shall veto any resolution passed by the board over which he is presiding, or any appointment made by said board, the same may become a law, and valid notwithstanding his veto, by a two-thirds vote of all the members of said board; provided, action be taken on said veto by said board at the same meeting such veto is received by the board, or at the next regular meeting thereafter.

Proviso.

An act to authorize the issue of bonds for enlarging and repairing public buildings and bridges in counties.

P. L. 1877, p. 189.

Approved March 9, 1877.

Board of freeholders may issue bonds for purpose of enlarging, &c., public buildings and bridges.

5. SEC. 1. That it shall be lawful for the board of chosen freeholders in any county of this state for the purpose of building or enlarging and repairing any of the county public buildings of any such county, and for the purpose of rebuilding and repairing any of the public bridges of any such county, to purchase land when necessary to erect buildings for county purposes, and issue bonds in the corporate name and under the corporate seal of any such county, signed by the director and the clerk of the board of chosen freeholders of any such county, countersigned by the county collector of any such county, to be denominated on their face "repairing bonds," to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars; such bonds may be registered or coupon bonds, and shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding seven per centum per annum, payable half-yearly, and shall be redeemable at any time not exceeding ten years from their date, in the discretion of the board of chosen freeholders of any such county, which bonds may be sold at public or private sale for the best price they can obtain for the same, but shall not be for less than the par value; and all real estate and property within any of such counties shall be liable for the payment of the principal and interest that may become due on the bonds to be issued by virtue of this act.

Not to be sold at less than par value.

Payment of bonds to be provided for by taxation.

6. SEC. 2. That the board of chosen freeholders of any such county shall have power and authority to provide by taxation for the payment of the said bonds and the interest thereon, and shall yearly, and every year until the said bonds shall be redeemed and paid off, order and cause to be assessed and collected by tax, at the same time and in the same manner that other taxes in any of such counties are assessed and collected, a sum of money sufficient to pay the interest on the said bonds as the same shall become due and payable, and to pay and discharge the principal at the several times it shall become due and payable.

Counties to which act shall not apply.

7. SEC. 3. That this act shall take effect immediately, but this act shall not apply to any county having over fifty thousand inhabitants.
