Condemnation of Lands.

1. In all cases when owner of land taken may appeal to common pleas, such appeal hereafter to be made to circuit court.

2. When land so taken is encumbered, chancellor may order money accrued paid into court of chancery.

An act respecting the awards of commissioners in cases of land and real estate taken or condemned by law, and appeals therefrom.

P. L. 1877, p. 137.

Approved March 9, 1877.

In all cases when owners of land taken have appeal to common pleas, such appeal hereafter to be to circuit court.

1. That in all cases, when it is provided by any act of incorporation or law of this state, that any owner of real estate, land or materials taken in pursuance of such act or law, may appeal from the decision or judgment of commissioners appointed under such act or law to the court of common pleas in the county where the lands lie, such appeal hereafter may be taken by either party and shall be made to the circuit court of such county, reserving to either party the right of trial by jury in such court; and the decision of the said circuit court in the premises shall be binding and conclusive in the same manner as prescribed in the acts or laws aforesaid in cases of the decisions of the court of common pleas.

When lands so taken are encumbered, chancellor may order money awarded paid into court.

2. That whenever it shall appear to the chancellor that the lands taken pursuant to any law or act aforesaid are encumbered by any mortgage, judgment or other lien of any kind, the money awarded to the owner or owners of said lands may, by the order of the chancellor, be paid into the court of chancery, and shall there be distributed according to law, and written notice given to such owner or owners that such money has been so paid into court, shall have the same effect as if the money so awarded had been actually tendered to the owner or owners aforesaid.
