Meadows.

A further supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for the drainage of lands," approved March eighth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. Approved March 8, 1877.

1. That the board of managers of the geological survey may, and it shall be lawful for said board, at any time, to add to, alter, or amend any system or plan of drainage for any tract of land which is subject to overflow from freshets, or which is usually in a low, marshy, boggy, or wet condition, which said board has heretofore adopted and filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme court, or which said board shall hereafter adopt and file in the office of the clerk of the supreme court; and every such addition, alteration or amendment, after being adopted by said board and certified by the president of said board and the secretary thereof, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme court, and thereupon such addition, alteration, or amendment shall become and be a part of the system or plan of drainage to which such addition, alteration, or amendment relates, and shall be executed by the commissioners appointed by the supreme court as if such addition, alteration, or amendment had been incorporated into and formed a part of the original system or plan.

Mechanics Lien.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to secure to mechanics and others payment for their labor and materials in erecting any building" (revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Approved March 9, 1877.

1. That the eleventh section of the act entitled "An act to secure to mechanics and others payment for their labor and materials in erecting any building," (revision), approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and which is as follows: (Vide ante, p. 679), be amended so as to read as follows:

11. That every person intending to claim a lien upon any building or lands by virtue of this act, shall, within one year after the labor is performed or the materials furnished for which such lien is claimed, file his claim in the office of the clerk in the county where such building is situate, which claim shall contain these matters:

I. A description of the building and of the lot or curtilage upon which the lien is claimed, and of its situation sufficient to identify the same.

II. The name of the owner or owners of the estate therein on which the lien is claimed.
