I. Against ships, steamboats, etc.

An act for the collection of demands against ships, steamboats and other vessels.

P. L. 1857, p. 382.

Certain debts to be a lien on vessels.

Approved March 20, 1857.

1. Whenever a debt shall be contracted by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of any ship or vessel, within this state, for either of the following purposes:

1. On account of any work done, or materials or articles furnished in this state, for or towards the building, repairing, fitting, furnishing, or equipping such ship or vessel.

II. For such provisions and stores furnished within this state for the use of such vessel at the time when the same were furnished. (See Sec. 45).

III. On account of the wharfage and the expenses of keeping such vessel in port, including the expense incurred in employing persons to watch her.

Such debt shall be a lien upon such ship or vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and continue to be a lien on the same for nine months after the debt was contracted, and shall be preferred to all other liens thereon, except mariners' wages.^(a)

2. Any person having due him the sum of twenty dollars or upwards, upon any debt contracted for any of the purposes hereinbefore specified, may make application to any officer authorized by law to perform the duties of a commissioner, appointed by the justices of the supreme court to take special bail and to administer oaths or affirmations, or to one of the justices of the supreme court, or to one of the judges of the court of common pleas of the county, for a warrant to enforce the lien of such debt, and to collect the amount thereof.

Lien may be enforced by warrant.

3. Such application shall be in writing, and shall specify :

Application for, what to specify.

I. By whom such debt was contracted, and for what ship or vessel.

II. The items composing such debt.

III. It shall be verified by the affidavit of the creditor, or of the person making the application in his behalf, stating that the sum claimed in such account is justly due to the person in whose behalf such application is made, over and above all payments and discounts.

And the facts and circumstances to establish such demand shall also be verified by the affidavits of one or more disinterested witnesses.

4. The officer to whom such application shall be made, shall thereupon issue his warrant to the sheriff or any constable of the county, or, in their absence, to any coroner of the county, commanding him to attach, seize, and safely keep such ship or vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, to answer all such liens as shall be established against her, according to law, and to make return of his proceedings under such warrant to the said officer, within ten days after such seizure.

To whom warrant to be issued and what to command.

5. The sheriff or other officer to whom any such warrant shall be directed and delivered, shall forthwith execute the same, and shall keep the ship or vessel and other property seized by him, to be disposed of as hereinafter directed ; he shall, also, within ten days after such seizure, make a return to the officer who issued the warrant, stating therein particularly his doings in the premises, and shall make out, subscribe, and annex thereto, a just and true inventory of all the property so seized ; which inventory shall be signed by him and annexed to his return.

How warrant executed and returned.

6. Whenever any such warrant shall be issued, no other warrant shall issue against the same ship or steamboat, or other craft or kind of vessel, unless the first warrant be superseded.

No other warrant to issue till first superseded.

7. The officer issuing any such warrant, shall thereupon immediately^(b) order the notice hereinafter directed, to be published in one or more of the newspapers printed in the county to which the warrant shall be issued ; and if there be none printed in such county, then in a newspaper printed nearest to such county, once a week for three months successively, or oftener, if he shall deem proper.

Notice of issuing of warrant to be published.

8. Such notice shall contain the following matters :

What notice to contain.

I. It shall state the issuing of such warrant, the name of the vessel seized, the port or place to which she belongs, and the name of her last commander.

II. It shall require all persons who claim to have any demands against said ship or vessel, her tackle, apparel or furniture, under the provisions of this act, to deliver an account of their respective claims to the said officer, within two months from the first publication of such notice, or that their remedy against such vessel will be forfeited.

III. It shall state that such vessel will be sold for the payment of the claims against such vessel, unless the owner, consignee or commander thereof, or some person interested therein, appear and discharge such warrant according to law, within three months from the first publication of such notice.

Any creditor may deliver to officer an account of his demand.

9. Any person having any lien under the provisions of this act, upon the property so seized, may deliver to the said officer an account in writing of his demand, accompanied by such affidavits and proofs as are hereinbefore prescribed, in relation to the first application by any creditor; and he shall thereupon be deemed an attaching creditor, and be entitled to the same benefits and advantages, and subject to the same responsibilities and obligations as the creditor at whose instance such warrant originally issued.

Liens to cease unless delivered in time limited.

10. All liens under this act upon the property so seized, an account of which shall not be presented to the said officer within the time limited in the notice, shall cease.

Owner, consignee, etc., may apply for order to discharge warrant.

11. The owner, consignee, agent, or commander of any vessel seized by virtue of any warrant issued pursuant to the provisions of this act, and any person interested in such vessel, may at any time before an order of sale shall be made as hereinafter mentioned, apply in person or by attorney, to the officer who issued such warrant, for an order to discharge the same.

Person applying for order to give bond.

12. Such person shall execute and deliver to the officer to whom such application is made, a bond to the creditors prosecuting such warrant, in a penalty at least double the amount of the debts sworn to by such creditors, with such security as shall be approved by such officer, conditioned that the obligors therein will pay the amount of all such claims and demands as shall have been exhibited, which shall be established to have been subsisting liens upon such vessel, pursuant to the provisions of this act, at the time of exhibiting the same respectively.^(a)

Warrant discharged on delivery of bond.

13. Upon such bond being executed and delivered, the said officer shall thereupon grant his order, discharging the warrant that may have been issued by him; and no further proceedings against the vessel so seized, shall be had under the provisions of this act, founded upon any demands included in such bond.

Bond for common benefit of attaching creditors.

14. Every such bond shall be held for the common benefit of all the attaching creditors, and may be prosecuted by any of them jointly, or by any one of them separately, in respect to his separate demand.

Declaration in suit upon bond, what to be stated and averred.

15. In the suit upon such bond, the attaching creditors, respectively, shall state in their declaration their respective demands, alleging the work to have been done, or the materials or articles furnished, or the expenses incurred, at the request of the master, owner, agent, or consignee, of such vessel, as the case really was, averring that the claim therefor was a subsisting lien on such vessel at the time of the exhibition thereof, as hereinbefore provided; and shall assign, as a breach of the condition of such bond, the non-payment of the claim of such creditor.

Defendants' plea.

16. To such declaration, the defendants may plead as in other actions of debt on bond, and may plead to such assignment of breaches; and the same proceedings shall be had on such bond as provided by law on bonds with other conditions than for the payment of money.

When verdict or judgment is for $20 or upwards, plaintiff to have execution, etc.

17. If it shall be found by the judgment in such suit, or by the verdict of the jury empannelled to try any issues joined therein, that the sum of twenty dollars or upwards was due to any plaintiff in such suit, upon any claim or demand which, by the provisions of this act, was a subsisting lien upon such vessel, at the time of the exhibition thereof, as herein provided, judgment shall be rendered that such plaintiff have execution for the amount of such claim.

If for less than $20, judgment entered against plaintiff.

18. If it shall be so found that nothing, or a less sum than twenty dollars, was due to any plaintiff in such suit, as specified in the last section, judgment shall be entered against such plaintiff, that he take nothing by his writ; and the court shall award to the defendants the costs incurred by them in resisting the claim of such plaintiff; and if it shall be found that twenty dollars, or a greater sum, is due to such plaintiff in such suit, the costs of the attachment, together with the sheriff's, constable's or coroner's fees and expenses in keeping such ship or vessel, shall be taxed in the plaintiff's bills of costs, in such suit on such bond so directed to be given as aforesaid.

Costs.

^(a) Such bond is good although the prior proceedings have been irregular, Gaddis ads. Howell, 2 Vr. 313.

19. If the creditors, who shall have exhibited their claims as herein provided, shall not have been satisfied, and if such warrant shall not have been discharged as before provided, within the time for that purpose limited, the officer who issued the same, within one month after the expiration of the time so limited, upon due proof of the publication of the notice herein required, shall issue his order to the sheriff, or other officer, who seized the vessel under such warrant, directing such sheriff or other officer to proceed and sell the vessel so seized, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and shall state in such order the amount necessary to be raised to satisfy such claims and expenses.
20. If it shall appear to such officer, that the claims exhibited before him, and the expenses of the proceedings, can be satisfied by a sale of the tackle, apparel and furniture of such vessel, or of some part thereof, without selling such vessel, he shall modify his order accordingly.
21. Within twenty days after the service of such order, the sheriff or constable shall proceed and sell the vessel so seized by him, her tackle, apparel and furniture, or such part thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the claims exhibited and the expenses incurred, upon the same notice, in the same manner, and in all respects subject to the provisions of law in case of the sale of personal property upon execution.
22. The sheriff or other officer shall return to the officer granting such order, his proceedings under the same; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting his fees and expenses in seizing, preserving, watching and selling such vessel, shall be retained by such sheriff in his hands, to be distributed and paid as hereinafter directed.
23. At the time of issuing any such order of sale, the officer granting the same shall order a notice to be published in the same newspaper in which the notice of seizure was printed, as hereinbefore directed, once in each week for three weeks, requiring all persons who have exhibited any claims against such vessel, and the owner, agent, consignee, master, and all other persons interested in such vessel to appear before him at a day therein to be specified, not less than thirty days and not more than forty days from the first publication of such notice, to attend a distribution of the proceeds arising from the sale of such vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture.
24. On the day appointed in such notice, the officer shall hear the allegations and proof of the parties, and make distribution of the proceeds arising from such sale, after deducting the expenses of the proceedings, among the creditors who shall have exhibited their claims as herein provided, unless the claims of such creditors, or of some of them, be contested by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel, or by some other of such creditors.
25. In case of such contest, the party making the objection shall file with the officer a written statement thereof, and his desire that the claims so objected to, be referred to referees, to examine and report thereon.
26. The party making such objection, and the creditors whose claims are contested, may agree upon three indifferent persons, by a writing to that effect, signed by them and filed with such officer.
27. If such referees be not selected by agreement, then the party making objection shall nominate two disinterested persons, and the creditor or creditors whose claims are contested, shall also nominate two indifferent persons; or if either of them refuse or neglect, the officer before whom the proceedings are pending, shall name two indifferent persons for the party or parties so refusing or neglecting.
28. The names of the persons thus nominated shall be written on four distinct pieces of paper, as similar in all respects as may be, which shall be rolled up separately and put into a box, and from thence said officer shall draw out three of them, and the persons whose names are so drawn shall be the referees to determine the controversy.
29. The officer before whom they shall be selected, shall certify such selection in writing, and deliver a duplicate of the same, or of the written agreement of the parties, appointing referees, to each of the parties.
30. Such certificate or agreement shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court or court of common pleas, or county clerk, if such

- vessel was seized within the county, as shall be directed by such officer; and a rule shall thereupon be entered by such clerk, in vacation or in term, appointing the persons so selected referees to determine such controversy.
- Rule to be entered.
- Powers and duties of referees. 31. Such referees shall have the same powers and be subject to the like duties and obligations, and shall receive the same compensation as referees appointed by the superior courts in personal actions depending therein.
- Report of referees. 32. The report of the referees shall be filed in the same office where the rule for their appointment was entered, and shall be conclusive on the parties, if not vacated by the court to which it was made.
- Parties may except to report, etc. 33. Either party shall have the same right to except to such report, as in cases of reference during the pendency of a suit, and the court shall proceed thereon in the like manner, and may in its discretion, appoint new referees and direct a new hearing; judgment for costs shall be rendered against the failing party, and execution shall be awarded thereon, as in other cases.
- Upon confirmation of report, distribution to be made. 34. Upon the final report of such referees being confirmed, the officer before whom the proceedings were pending shall proceed to make distribution of the proceeds of the sale of such vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, after deducting the expenses of the proceedings before him, among the attaching creditors, according to such report.
- When distribution made, sheriff to pay over proceeds of sale. 35. When a distribution shall be made by such officer, pursuant to either of the foregoing provisions, he shall make an order on the sheriff or other officer, having such proceeds in his hands, directing him to pay the same to the several attaching creditors entitled thereto, according to such distribution, and the same shall be paid accordingly; and all moneys remaining in the hands of such sheriff or other officer, after such payment and after deducting his commission, shall be paid to the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel.
- Distribution to be made pro rata if proceeds insufficient to pay all liens. 36. If the proceeds arising from the sale of any vessel shall not be sufficient, after deducting all legal charges, to satisfy all the liens against such vessel, exhibited as herein provided, the officer ordering such sale shall order a fair and just distribution of such proceeds among the creditors whose claims shall have been ascertained by him, or by the report of referees as herein provided, in a just and equal proportion to the amounts of such claims respectively.
- Proceedings to be filed with county clerk within 30 days after distribution made. 37. Every officer who shall issue any warrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, shall cause the applications, affidavits, and proofs presented to him by the attaching creditors, and copies of all warrants issued, and all orders made by him, with a bill of the fees and expenses allowed by him, to be filed in the office of the clerk of the county within thirty days after the order of distribution made by him; such a report and a duly certified copy thereof by the clerk, shall be conclusive evidence that the proceedings stated therein were had before such officer, and upon such report being made, the circuit court may correct any errors that shall appear to have been committed in the proceedings, and make such order as shall be just, and may remit the proceedings to the officer who issued the warrant, or the court may proceed to do such acts and things as shall be necessary.
- Sheriff or other officer may be attached for disobedience of order. 38. Every sheriff or other officer to whom a warrant may have been delivered, may be compelled by the officer having jurisdiction over the proceedings thereon, to return the inventory required to be taken by him, and to pay over moneys in his hands pursuant to any order for that purpose, by an order of such officer, and by process of attachment for disobedience thereof, on the application of any creditor.
- No lien to be enforced against vessels seized under process out of United States courts. 39. No proceedings under this act to enforce the liens authorized by the provisions thereof, shall be had against any vessel which shall have been seized by virtue of process issuing from any court of the United States having admiralty jurisdiction, while such vessel is actually held under such seizure; nor against any vessel which shall have been sold by order of such court, except for debts contracted after such sale; but nothing in this section contained shall be construed to impair the validity of any liens created by this act, the payment of which shall be decreed in any court of the United States.

40. Whenever any ship or vessel shall have been run down or run afoul of by any other ship or vessel, through the negligence or wilful misconduct of those navigating such other ship or vessel, and shall thereby have sustained damage to the extent of twenty dollars or upwards, the owner of said ship or vessel so sustaining damage shall have a lien upon the ship or vessel causing such damage in the manner aforesaid, her tackle, apparel and furniture, to the extent of such damage; the master, owner, agent, or consignee of the ship or vessel so receiving damage making an application in writing to the same officer as appointed, setting forth the name of the ship or vessel causing the damage, and the manner in which said damage was done, and the amount of said damage; and said application shall be verified by the owner or master navigating the vessel so damaged, and the facts contained in said affidavit shall also be verified by one or more disinterested witnesses.

Proceedings where vessels have been run down or run afoul of.

41. The officer to whom said application is made, in case he is satisfied that said damage arose from negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of those navigating the vessel causing the damage, may issue his warrant as provided in the fifth section of the act above referred to; and all proceedings under said warrant shall conform to the provisions of the said act.

Officer may issue warrant, when.

42. The lien provided for under this act shall cease, unless a warrant shall issue within twenty days after the damage shall be done.

Warrant to issue in 20 days or lien cease.

43. This act shall apply to all vessels or other craft, whether the same shall be enrolled or licensed or otherwise(a); that the officer issuing such warrant, and acting in all the proceedings aforesaid, shall, after the final end and determination of such proceedings, file all the papers used in and about such proceedings, including the judgment and every other matter connected therewith, with the clerk of the county, who shall record the same in a book to be obtained and kept for that purpose; and such record, certified under his official seal, shall be received as evidence in all courts of law or equity; that the fees, costs and expenses arising in such proceedings shall be the same as allowed in the court of common pleas in this state, and governed and regulated by the fees and costs allowed in such court.
