(a) Query. As to the constitutionality of this act, Wetlov v. Missouri, 91 U. S. 9, 25, the supreme court of Tennessee decided (Feb. 26, 1877), that a similar provision in the constitution of Tennessee, and an act of the legislature passed thereunder, were not in contravention of the constitution of the United States, Home Machine Co. v. Cape.
with a horse or horses, or other beasts of burthen, shall have first paid to the governor, or person administering the government, the sum of fifteen Taxdollars, for the use of the state; and the persons licensed to travel on foot, shall have first paid to the governor, or person administering the government, the sum of eight dollars, for the use of the state; which said payment shall be endorsed by the governor, or person administering the government, on the said license, at the time of granting the same, and which said license shall continue and be valid for one year only, unless Term. renewed, as hereinafter provided (See Sec. 13, 14).

3. That if any person shall forge or counterfeit any license, or any such Penalty for forg-endorsement thereon, as before mentioned, for the purpose of using the ing.
same, or shall wilfully and knowingly travel with any such forged license, for the purpose of selling as aforesaid, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished as in other cases of forgery.

4. That if any person, having obtained a license as aforesaid, shall lend or hire the same to any other person or persons, for the purpose of using or exercising the same, such license shall thereby become void; and the person lending or hiring such license, and the person using the same under colour thereof, shall each forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, with costs of suit, in an action of debt, the one half to the use of the poor of the township in which said suit shall be brought, and the other half to the person suing for the same.

5. That if any person shall be found hawking, peddling or traveling Peddling with-from house to house, or place to place, to vend, either at public or private Sale.
markets, or any goods, wares or merchandise herein before mentioned and described, without first having obtained a license as herein before mentioned, such person shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, by any person who may sue for the same, the one half to the prosecutor, and the other half to the use of the state, before any justice of the peace of any of the counties in this state, together with the costs of prosecution. (See Sec. 12).

6. That nothing in this act contained shall prevent any person from selling or exposing to sale, any goods, wares and merchandise in any public market in this state, without a license for that purpose; provided always, that any person found hawking or peddling as aforesaid, who shall, upon demand being made by any person in this state, refuse to produce and show such license as aforesaid, then the person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every offence, to be recovered in an action of debt, by any person who shall sue for the same.

7. That it shall be the duty of every person who may have obtained a License certified license in pursuance of this act, before he shall sell, or expose for sale, any and copy filed.

8. That it shall be the duty of the overseers of the poor of every township in this state, to sue for and recover the penalties of any person or persons who may offend against any of the provisions of this act in their respective townships; and they shall be entitled to one-half of any penalty or penalties, when received, to their own use, the other half to be appropriated to the poor of the township.

9. That every suit for any penalty prescribed by this act, shall be com-cenced within six months from the time of incurring such penalty, and not after; and every such suit may be commenced by warrant, in the court for the trial of small causes, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
10. SEC. 1. That no person shall be authorized, by virtue of any license granted under the authority of the act to which this is a supplement, to carry, sell or expose, either at private or public sale, any wine, gin, rum, brandy, whiskey, cider spirits or other ardent spirits, or any composition of which any of the said liquors shall form the chief ingredient.

11. SEC. 2. That if any person or persons shall be found hawking, peddling, or traveling from house to house, or place to place, to vend either at public or private sale any wine, gin, rum, brandy, whiskey, cider spirits or other ardent spirits, or any composition of which any of the said liquors shall form the chief ingredient, such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt by any person who may sue for the same, before any justice of the peace of any of the counties of this state, together with the cost of prosecution.

12. SEC. 1. That if any person shall follow, use or exercise the business or calling of a hawker, pedler, petty chapman or itinerant auctioneer, in this state, or shall go or travel from town to town, or to houses of other persons, either on foot or with a horse or horses, mule or mules, or other beast or beasts of burthen, carrying, selling or exposing either at private or public sale, any goods, wares or merchandise, not the growth, product or manufacture of this state, without having first obtained a license therefor, as provided by the act to which this act is a supplement, he, she or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, or both.

13. SEC. 1. That no license which shall be obtained by any person to travel on foot, under the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall be held, deemed or taken to authorize any such person to travel or to transport any goods, wares or merchandise, for the purpose of such trade, by railroad, steamboat or other public conveyance; but every person desirous of so transporting any goods, wares or merchandise, for the purpose aforesaid, shall first obtain and pay for a license to travel with a horse or horses, or other beasts of burthen, and in default thereof, shall be held liable to all the pains and penalties of the act to which this is a supplement, and all the supplements thereto.

14. SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of any person who may have obtained a license, in pursuance of the act to which this is a supplement, or in pursuance of any supplement thereto, in addition to the other duties imposed upon such persons by the said act and the supplements thereto, before he shall sell or expose, either at public or private sale, any goods, wares, or merchandise by virtue of such license, in any county in this state, to pay to the clerk of such county the sum of [twenty] dollars for the use of such county, and also the sum of one dollar to the clerk of such county as his fee, which payments so made to such clerk shall authorize the person paying the same to exercise his calling in said county, under his license, during the continuance thereof; and in case any person shall sell or expose, either at public or private sale, any goods, wares, or merchandise as aforesaid, without having complied with the provisions of this act, he shall be liable to all the pains and penalties imposed upon persons selling without license by the act to which this is a supplement, and the various supplements thereto.

15. SEC. 3. That no person shall act as the clerk, agent or assistant of any person following, using or exercising the business or calling of a hawker, pedler, petty chapman or itinerant auctioneer in this state, unless
