An act respecting county physicians.

Approved April 21, 1876. P. L. 1876, p. 379

1. That it shall be lawful for any board of chosen freeholders of any county in this state, whenever said board shall deem it best so to do, to elect at any regular or special meeting of said board, a county physician, from the number of licensed physicians residing in said county, and to pay him such yearly salary for the service rendered by him as to said board shall seem just, to be fixed from time to time as such elections shall be made; before entering upon the duties required of him by this act, said county physician shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before the clerk of said county, faithfully and fairly to perform the duties of his office to the best of his skill and understanding, which oath or affirmation shall be filed by said clerk in his office.

Election of county physician.

Duty of the county physician.

2. That it shall be the duty of said county physician, in all cases of death in prison, and all violent, sudden or casual deaths within his county, to take a view of the body, and make all proper inquiry respecting the cause and manner of the death, for the purpose of ascertaining whether an inquest should be held; if, upon such view and inquiry, said physician shall be of an opinion that there is cause to suspect that the person whose body he has been called to view, came to his or her death by murder or manslaughter, or by the contrivance, aiding, procuring or other misconduct of any person or persons, then it shall be his duty to call upon one of the coroners of the county, or if such coroner cannot be had, upon a justice of the peace of said county, and request him, in writing, to issue the precept for the summoning of a jury of inquisition, to consist of not more than fifteen nor less than nine, and to hold an inquest and make return of the same according to law, and any post mortem examination or other medical service required upon said inquest shall be performed by said county physician.

Coroners and justices of the peace to act in case of vacancy.

3. That in case no election shall be made by the board of chosen freeholders of any county in this state, of such county physician, or in case one so elected shall omit to take the oath or affirmation herein required, or shall die or resign, or his office in anywise becomes vacant, then, during such failure to elect, or such omission or vacancy of the office, the coroners and justices of the peace in such county where there shall be no county physician, for any of the causes last named, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers prescribed by law.

County physician may appoint any other licensed physician to act in certain contingencies.

4. That in case said county physician shall be sick, or from any cause shall be unable to attend to make such view and inquiry, or post mortem examination, or attend at any inquest or perform any service required by this act, it shall be lawful for him to nominate and appoint in writing, under his hand, any other licensed physician of said county, to perform such specific service as he may be unable to perform; and the physician so appointed shall, in that behalf, possess all the powers of said county physician, and all fees and charges of said physician so appointed, for such service rendered while acting under such appointment, shall be paid by said county physician.

Physician to have exclusive right and power to make views and inquiries.

5. That in all cases where a county physician shall be elected and qualified, and fulfilling his office as aforesaid, he shall have exclusive right and power to make all views and inquiries heretofore made by coroners and justices of the peace; and that no precept for the summoning of a jury of inquest shall hereafter be issued by any justice or coroner of any county where a county physician shall be elected and qualified and fulfilling his office as aforesaid, except by the written request of said physician made as aforesaid; and the request in writing so made by such physician shall be annexed to the inquest made and returned by said coroner or justice.

6. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.
