An act to regulate the sale of candles.

Approved February 26, 1855.

P. L. 1855, p. 121.

1. From and after the fourth day of July next, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, in the state of New Jersey, to sell any description of candles in a box or boxes, or other package or packages, unless the actual weight of the candles therein contained be plainly and conspicuously marked or branded, on the end of said box or package, with the initial letter or letters of the christian name, and the surname at full length, of the manufacturer, together with the name of the place where said candles were made; and each and every box or package of candles shall be numbered according to its contents, as follows: number four, number six, number eight, number ten, and four candles of number four, six candles of number six, eight candles of number eight, and ten candles of number ten, shall be made, respectively, to weigh not less than fifteen and three-quarter ounces; but it shall be lawful for any person or persons to sell candles in a box or boxes, or other package, of other numbers; provided, the actual weight of the candles sold shall bear the same relative proportion to their number as in the cases above specified.

Weight of candles to be marked on box.

2. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell candles, by the pound or otherwise, which shall not bear the same weight in proportion to their number as is described in the foregoing section.

When not to be sold by pound, &c.

3. Any person or persons who shall sell candles within the state of New Jersey in violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, a sum not less than ten dollars, and not exceeding one hundred dollars, one-half to go to the prosecutor, and the other half to the poor of the city or township in which such offence may be committed, to be recovered by action of debt, in any court having cognizance of the same.

Penalty for selling candles in violation of provisions of this act.

4. The provisions of this act shall not apply to the sale of candles manufactured previous to the fourth day of July next.

Act not to apply to candles made previous to July 4, 1855.
