An act for dividing and ascertaining the boundaries of all the counties in this province.

Passed January 21, 1709-10.

1. That in the eastern division, the county of Bergen shall begin at Constable's hook and so run up along the bay and Hudson's river to the partition point between New Jersey and the province of New York, and so run along the partition line between the provinces, and the division line of the eastern and western division of this province, to Pequaneck river; and so run down the said Pequaneck and Passaic river to the sound; and so to follow the sound to Constable's hook, where it begins. [See Secs. 16, 70 and 84, post.]

2. That the county of Essex shall begin at the mouth of Rahway river, where it falls into the sound, and so run up the said Rahway river to Robertson's branch; thence west to the division line, between the eastern and western division aforesaid, and so to follow the said division line to Pequaqueck river, where it meets Passaic river; thence down Passaic river to the bay and sound; thence down the sound to where it began. [See Secs. 10, 90 and 99, post.]

3. That the county of Somerset begins where Boundbrook empties itself into Raritan river; thence down the stream of Raritan to the mouth of a brook known by the name of Lawrence's brook; thence running up the said Lawrence's brook to the great road that leads from Injan's ferry to Cranberry brook; from thence south forty-four degrees westerly to Sappinginack brook; thence down the said Sappinginack brook to the said division line of the eastern and western division aforesaid, and so to follow the said division line to the limits of the above said county of Essex; thence east along the line of Essex county to Greenbrook; and thence running down the said Greenbrook and Boundbrook to where it began. [See Secs. 19, 28, 26, 30, 56, 62, 71, 78, 91, 92 and 98, post.]

4. That the county of Middlesex begins at the mouth of the creek that parts the lands of George Willocks, and the land that was formerly Captain Andrew Bowne's, deceased; thence along the said Captain Andrew's line to the rear of the said land; thence upon a direct course to Warn's bridge on the brook where Thomas Smith did formerly live; thence upon a direct course to the southeast corner of Barclay's tract of land that lies near Matchiponic; thence to the most southermost part of said tract of land, including the whole tract of land in Middlesex county; thence upon the direct line to Sampineck bridge on the high road, including William Jones, William Story, Thomas Richman, and John Guverson in Monmouth county; thence along the said road to Aaron Robins' land; thence westerly along the said Aaron Robins' line and James Lawrence's line to the line of the eastern and western division aforesaid, including the said Robins and Lawrence in Monmouth county; thence northerly along the said line to Sampineck brook, being part of the bounds of the said Somerset county; thence following the lines of Somerset and Essex counties, and so to the sound, and thence down the sound to Ambroy point, and from thence to the creek, where it first began. [See Secs. 11, 16, 17, 19, 20, 30, 62, 69, 71, 73, 78, 82 and 98, post.]

5. That the county of Monmouth begins at the mouth of the creek aforesaid, that parts the land of Captain Andrew Bowne, deceased, and George Willocks; thence following the line of Middlesex county to the line of the eastern and western division aforesaid; thence southerly along the said division line to the sea; thence along the sea to the point of Sandy Hook; thence up the bay to the aforesaid creek, where it first began. [See Secs. 12, 16, 20, 76 and 80, post.]

6. That the line of partition between Burlington and Gloucester county begins at the mouth of Pensaukin, alias Cropwell creek; thence up the same to the fork; thence along the southermost branch thereof, sometimes called Cole branch, until it comes to the head thereof, which is the bounds betwixt Samuel Lipenote's and Isaac Sharpe's land; thence upon a straight line to the southermost branch of Little Eggshall river, including the said Sharpe's land in Gloucester county; thence down the said branch and river to the mouth thereof; thence to the next inlet on the south side of Little Eggshall's most southerly inlet; thence along the seacoast to the line of partition between East and West Jersey; thence along the said line of partition by Maidenhead and Hopewell to the northernmost and uttermost bounds of the township of Anwell; thence by the same to the river Delaware; thence by the river Delaware to the first-mentioned station. [See Sec. 76, post.]

7. That Gloucester county begins at the mouth of Pensaukin creek; thence up the same to the fork thereof; thence along the said bounds of Burlington county to the sea; thence along the seacoast to Great Eggshall river; thence up said river to the fork thereof; thence up the southermost and greatest branch of the same to the head thereof; thence upon a direct line to the head of Oldman's creek; thence down the same to Delaware river; thence up Delaware river to the place of beginning. [See Sec. 81, post.]

8. That Salem county begins at the mouth of a creek on the west side of Stipson's island, commonly called Jeck's creek; thence up the same as high as the tide floweth; thence upon a direct line to the mouth of a small creek at Tuckahoe, where it comes into the southermost main branch of the fork of Great Eggshall river; thence up the said branch to the head thereof; thence along the bounds of Gloucester county to Delaware river; thence down Delaware river and bay to the place of beginning. [See Secs. 13, 28 and 61, post.]

9. That Cape May county begins at the mouth of a small creek on the west side of Stipson's island, called Jeck's creek; thence up the said creek as high as the tide floweth; thence along the bounds of Salem county to the southermost main branch of Great Eggshall river; thence down the said river to the sea; thence along the seacoast to Delaware bay, and so up the said bay to the place of beginning. [See Secs. 16, 61, 93 and 94, post.]

Supplement.

10. Sec. 1. That the easterly bounds of the county of Essex, are declared to be the middle or midway of the waters of the sound adjoining the same, as far as the limits of the said county extend.
COUNTIES.

11. Sec. 2. That the easterly bounds of the county of Middlesex, are declared to be the middle or midway of the waters of the sound adjoining the same, to the middle of the channel, at the junction of the waters of the sound with the waters of the Raritan river, to the eastward of the flat or shoal which extends from Amboy or Cole's point, and thence to the mouth of Whale creek, the beginning of the bounds of the counties of Middlesex and Monmouth.

12. Sec. 3. That the northerly bounds of the county of Monmouth, are declared to be the middle or midway of the waters of Raritan bay, from the line of Middlesex to the main channel, which passes by Sandy Hook, and along the said channel to the sea. [See Sec. 60.]

13. Sec. 4. That the northern bounds of the county of Salem, shall be taken and deemed to be as follows: to extend from the middle of the channel at the mouth of Oldman's creek, to the main ship channel of the river Delaware, striking the same at a right angle, and the southern bounds extending from said ship channel along the Cumberland line, to the middle of the channel at the mouth of Stow creek.

14. Sec. 5. That the northerly bounds of the county of Cumberland, shall be taken and deemed to extend from the middle of the channel at the mouth of Stow creek, to the main ship channel in the river Delaware, striking the same at a right angle; and the southern bounds shall be taken and deemed to extend from opposite the middle of the mouth of West's creek, to the main ship channel in Delaware bay, making a right angle therewith.

15. Sec. 6. That the line of partition between the counties of Cumberland and Cape May, shall be taken and deemed to be as follows, to wit: to begin at the place where the waters of Mill or Hickman's creek fall into the channel of Tuckahoe river, at the boundary line of Gloucester county, and running thence directly into the mouth of said creek, continuing the same course by a line of marked trees (which by the present position of the compass is south, fifty-seven degrees and about thirty minutes west) until it strikes Hughes' on the lower millpond, on West or Jeck's creek, thence down the middle of the ancient water-courses thereof, until it falls into Delaware bay, and thence continue a due southwest course until it strikes the line of said counties, at the ship channel of the said bay.

Supplement.

P. L. 1865, p. 441.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The boundary lines of certain counties of this state, in the waters mentioned, are general and indefinitely described, to wit: of the county of Bergen, in the Hudson river; of the county of Hudson, in the Hudson river, New York bay and in Kill von Kull sound; of the county of Union, in Arthur Kill or Staten Island sound; of the county of Middlesex, in Artur Kill or Staten Island sound and in Raritan bay; and of the county of Monmouth, in Raritan bay; and whereas, by the agreements made December twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and December twenty-third, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, by the joint board of boundary line commissioners appointed to locate and mark out the true boundary lines between the states of New Jersey and New York in the above-mentioned waters, these boundary lines have been located and marked out by definite monuments and marks, and said agreements, together with the maps showing the lines so agreed upon, have been duly filed in the office of the secretaries of state, at Trenton, New Jersey, and at Albany, New York; therefore,

16. Sec. 1. That the boundary lines, to wit: the easterly and northerly boundary lines of the county of Bergen, in the waters of the Hudson river; the easterly and southerly boundary lines of the county of Hudson, in the waters of the Hudson river, New York bay and the Kill von Kull sound; the easterly boundary line of the county of Union, in the waters of the Arthur Kill or Staten Island sound; the easterly boundary line of the county of Middlesex, in the waters of the Arthur Kill or Staten Island.
COUNTIES.

sound and the northerly boundary line of said county in Raritan bay; the northerly boundary line in the county of Monmouth, in the waters of Raritan bay to the main sea; be and the same are hereby fixed and established as the boundary lines of the said counties, in the waters hereinbefore named, as located, marked out and agreed upon by the joint boundary line commissioners aforesaid, and as shown on the maps accompanying said agreements.

17. Sec. 2. That in all cases where the boundary lines in front of the said counties, in the waters above mentioned, have been established at any point beyond the boundary of said counties as heretofore existing, or sup-pposed to exist, by the general and indefinite descriptions heretofore made, that the division lines between said counties shall be and the same are hereby declared to be extended at right angles with the boundary line established by said joint board of boundary line commissioners until they severally reach the said boundary line; except that the easterly boundary line of the county of Middlesex in Raritan bay shall be on a line drawn from the lighthouse at Princes bay on Staten Island, to the mouth of Matawan creek, and extended from the mouth of said creek to the boundary line in Raritan bay, as located, marked out and agreed upon by the joint boundary line commissioners aforesaid; and, also, that the southerly boundary line of Hudson county in the Kill von Kull and New York bay shall be coincident with the boundary line established by said joint board of boundary line commissioners as aforesaid.

An act for erecting the upper parts of the western division of New Jersey into a county.

18. Sec. 1. That all and singular the lands, and upper parts of the said western division of the province of New Jersey, lying northwards of, or situate above, the brook or rivulet commonly called Assunpink, be erected into a county, and it is hereby erected into a county, named, and from henceforth to be called the county of Hunterdon; and the said brook or rivulet, commonly known and called by the name of Assunpink, shall be the boundary line between the county of Burlington and the said county of Hunterdon. [See Sec. 57, post.]

An act for settling the bounds between the counties of Somerset, Middlesex and Monmouth.

19. Sec. 1. That the boundary line between Somerset and Middlesex counties, shall be and begin where the road crosseth the river Raritan, at Inian’s ferry, and run from thence along the said old road by Jedediah Higgins’ house, leading towards the falls of Delaware, so far as the eastern division of this province extends.

20. Sec. 2. That the boundary line between Middlesex and Monmouth counties, shall be and begin at the mouth of the creek that parts the land of George Wlocks, and the land that was formerly Captain Andrew Bowne’s, deceased; thence along the said Captain Andrew Bowne’s line, to the rear of the said land; thence upon a direct course to Warr’s bridge, on the brook where Thomas Smith did formerly live; thence upon a direct course to the southeast corner of Barclay’s tract of land, that lies near Matchipouch; thence to the most southermost part of said tract of land, including the whole tract of land in Middlesex county; thence upon the direct line to Assunpink bridge, on the high road, including William Jones, William Story, Thomas Ruckman and John Guyber-son, in Monmouth county; thence along the said road to Aaron Robins’ land; thence westerly along the said Aaron Robins’ and James Lawrence’s line, to the line of the eastern and western division aforesaid including the said Robins and Lawrence in Monmouth county.
COUNTIES.

21. Sec. 3. That the boundary lines between the said counties, settled by act of general assembly of this province, passed in January, one thousand seven hundred and nine, so far and no further, as the same is altered by this act, shall be and is hereby repealed, to all intents and purposes.

An act for erecting the upper parts of the county of Hunterdon, in the western division of New Jersey, into a county.

Passed March 15, 1738-9.

22. Sec. 1. That all and singular the lands, and upper parts of the said Hunterdon county, lying to the northward and eastward, situate and lying to the eastward of a well known place in the county of Hunterdon, being a fall of water in part of the north branch of Raritan river, called in the Indian language, or known by the name of Allamatunk, to the northeastward of the northeast end or part of the lands called the New Jersey society lands, along the line thereof crossing the south branch of the aforesaid Raritan river, and extending westerly to a certain tree, marked with the letters L. M., standing on the north side of a brook emptying itself into the said south branch, by an old Indian path to the northward of a line to be run northwest from the said tree to a branch of Delaware river, called Muskonetconk, and so down the said branch to Delaware river; all which said lands being to the eastward, northward and northwestward of the aforesaid boundaries, be erected into a county, and it is hereby erected into a county, named and from henceforth to be called Morris county, and the said bounds shall part and from henceforth separate and divide the same from the said Hunterdon county. [See Sec. 26, post.]

An act to annex part of the county of Essex to the county of Somerset and to ascertain the bounds thereof.

Passed November 4, 1741.

23. Sec. 1. That from and after the publication hereof, the lines and bounds of the said county of Somerset shall be as follows, videlicet, beginning at the south branch of Raritan river, where the reputed division line between East and West Jersey strikes the same, along the rear of Raritan lots, until it meets with the north branch of said river; thence up the same to a fall of water, commonly called Allamatunk; from thence along the bounds of Morris county to Passiek river; then down the same to the lower corner of William Dockwrae's two patents on the same river; and thence, on a straight line, southeasterly, to the head of Greenbrook; and thence down the same brook to Boundbrook; thence down said Boundbrook to the place where it empties itself into Raritan river; thence down Raritan river to the place where the road crosses said river at Nian's ferry; from thence along said old road, which leads by Jedidiah Higgins' house, towards the falls of Delaware, until it intersects the division line aforesaid; thence along the said division line to the south branch of Raritan river, aforesaid, where it first began; any act or acts of the general assembly of this province, or any article, clause or thing in them or any of them contained, to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

An act for erecting the southern parts of the county of Salem, in New Jersey, into a separate county, and ascertaining the boundaries of the several precincts therein.

Passed January 19, 1747-8.

24. Sec. 1. That all and singular the lands within the following bounds, videlicet, beginning in the county of Salem, at the mouth of Stow creek, and running up the same unto John Brick's mills, leaving the said Brick's mills within the county hereby erected; then continuing still up Stow creek branch to the house where Hugh Dunn now dwells, leaving said Hugh Dunn within the new county; and from the said Hugh Dunn's house, upon a straight line, to Nathan Shaw's house, leaving said Nathan Shaw's house within the new county; and then on a northeast course, until it intersects the Pilesgrove line, leaving Pilesgrove within Salem county; then along the said line till it intersects the line which divides the counties of Gloucester and Salem; then running southeastward, down Gloucester line, unto the boundaries of Cape May county; then bounded by Cape May county to Delaware bay; and then up Delaware bay to the place of beginning; shall be erected, and the said lands are hereby erected into a county, named and henceforth to be called by the name of Cumberland. [See Secs. 14 and 15, ante, and Secs. 25, 28, 61, 93 and 94, post.]
COUNTIES.

25. Sec. 2. That the said county of Cumberland shall be divided into six precincts, by the names and boundaries following, viz: three on the north side and three on the south side of Cohansey creek; the names of the precincts on the north side of the said creek shall be, Greenwich, Hopewell and Stow creek; and the names of those on the south side of the said creek shall be, Fairfield, Deerfield and Maurice River precincts; Greenwich precinct shall be bounded on the south by Cohansey creek, on the east by a small creek that proceeds out of Cohansey creek, called Mill creek; then up the said Mill creek to the fork; then up the easternmost branch till it intersects the road that leads from Greenwich to Cohansey bridge, to a corner tree of John Shepard's land; then running up the said Job Shepard's land to a corner of a tract of land surveyed to Edmund Gibbon, standing on Barnegate hill; then westerly along Gibbon's line to a corner of Francis Bruster's land; then along Bruster's land to the road that leads from Greenwich to John Brink's mill; then up the said road till it intersects a run called Mackernipper's run; then down the said run till it falls into Stow creek, and bounded by Stow creek to Delaware bay; then along Delaware bay to the place of beginning. The other two are divided by the road that leads from Greenwich to Nathan Shaw's; Hopewell on the east, and Stow creek on the west side of the said road as it then runs.

The precincts on the south side of the said Cohansey creek, are divided as follows:

Maurice river precinct shall contain all that tract of land, lying on the east side of Prince Maurice's river, within the said county of Cumberland.

Fairfield to begin at the mouth of Cohansey creek; and to run up the same to Parvin's branch; then up the said branch to the head; and from thence on a direct line, to the head of Chatfield's swamp; then down the same to Lebanon branch; then northeast till it intersects Prince Maurice's river; then down the same to Delaware bay; then up Delaware bay to the mouth of Cohansey creek aforesaid.

Deerfield to be bounded on the west by Cohansey creek; on the south by Fairfield precinct, aforesaid; on the east by Maurice river precinct; and on the north by Pilesgrove.

An act to ascertain the line and bounds between the counties of Somerset and Morris.

26. Sec. 1. That from and after the publication hereof, the division line between the counties of Somerset and Morris, shall be as follows, videlicet, beginning at a fall of water commonly called Allamatonck falls, and also mentioned in the before-recited act; and from thence on a direct line, in a course east and by north, as the compass now points, to the main branch of Pasaic river; and so down the said river, as the before-recited act directs, anything herein, or in any other act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.
COUNTIES.

An act for erecting the upper part of Morris county, in New Jersey, into a separate county, to be called the county of Sussex.

Passed June 8, 1738.

27. Sec. 1. That all and singular the lands and upper parts of said Morris county, northwest of Muskonetkong river, beginning at the mouth of said river, where it empties itself into Delaware river, and running up said Muskonetkong river, to the head of the great pond; from thence northwest to the line that divides the province of New York and said New Jersey; thence along the said line to Delaware river aforesaid; thence down the same to the mouth of Muskonetkong, the place of beginning; all which said lands, contained within the above boundaries, be erected into a county, and they are hereby erected into a county, named and from henceforth to be called the county of Sussex; and the said Muskonetkong river, so far as the county of Hunterdon bounds on it, shall be the boundary line between that county and said county of Sussex; and the said Muskonetkong river, and a northeast line from the head of said pond, shall be the boundary line between Morris county and the said county of Sussex.

An act for the better and more effectual ascertaining the boundaries between the counties of Salem and Cumberland.

Passed December 7, 1738.

28. Sec. 1. That the bounds between the counties of Salem and Cumberland, shall be as followeth, videlicet, beginning at the middle of the mouth of Stow creek, and running up the middle of the same, opposite to the mills that formerly belonged to John Brick, esquire; then continuing still up the middle of Stow creek branch, opposite to the house of Hugh Dunn; then on a direct line to said Hugh Dunn’s house, leaving said Dunn’s house in Cumberland county; and from said house, on a straight line, north fifty-one degrees, fifteen minutes east, ninety-four chains, to the house of Azel Pierson, formerly Nathan Shaw’s, leaving said Pierson’s house in Cumberland county; from thence northeast, until it intersects the line of Pilesgrove township or precinct, in distance three hundred and five chains; and thence along Pilesgrove line, as was marked by the said commissioners, south forty-seven degrees east, until it intersects the middle of the water-course of Prince Maurice’s river; below the mouth of Muddy run; from thence up said river, bounding on the middle of the water-course thereof, to the foot of Scotland branch; then up said branch, bounding on the middle of the water-course, to Gloucester line; which said river, lines and creek as aforesaid, shall forever hereafter be taken, deemed and esteemed the bounds of partition between the aforesaid counties of Salem and Cumberland; any law or usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

An act to annex the several islands, situate in the river Delaware, belonging to this state, to the respective counties and townships to which they lie nearest.

Passed November 30, 1738.

WHEREAS, In and by the act entitled, “An act to ratify and confirm an agreement made between commissioners appointed by the legislature of the state of Pennsylvania, and commissioners appointed by the legislature of the state of New Jersey, for the purpose of settling the jurisdiction of the river Delaware, and islands within the same,” there are many islands annexed to this state, and as it is necessary to annex the same to the particular counties and townships, so that civil government may be properly extended thereto, and public taxes recovered therefrom; therefore,

29. Sec. 1. That all islands, islets and dry land, annexed to the jurisdiction of this state, in and by the act, the title of which is recited in the preamble to this act, and lying between the station point, or northwest corner of New Jersey, northerly, and the state of Delaware, southerly, shall hereafter be deemed and considered as parts and parcels of such counties and townships, to which said islands, or insulated dry land do or doth lie nearest, except Petty's islands, which shall be annexed to the township of Newton, in the county of Gloucester; and the proprietors, or owners thereof, shall be subject to the payment of taxes, for the said islands, in the said counties and townships accordingly.

An act for altering and resettling part of the boundary line between the counties of Somerset and Middlesex.

30. SEC. 1. That the middle of the main six-rood road, as established by law, from the ferry at the city of New Brunswick, formerly called Indian's ferry, to the boundary line of the county of Hunterdon, on the road to Trenton, shall be the boundary line of those parts of the counties of Middlesex and Somerset, which are on the south side of the river Raritan.

31. SEC. 2. That all the lands and tenements, lying to the northward of the line hereinafore established, and heretofore belonging to the county of Middlesex, shall be, and are hereby annexed to the county of Somerset; and all the lands and tenements on the southward of said line, heretofore belonging to the county of Somerset, shall be, and are hereby annexed to the said county of Middlesex. Proviso, obsolete.

An act declaring the jurisdiction of the several counties in this state which are divided by rivers, creeks, bays, highways or roads.

32. SEC. 1. That where any two counties are, or hereafter shall be divided by rivers, creeks, bays, highways or roads, within this state, the jurisdiction of each respective county, bounding on such rivers, creeks, bays, highways or roads, shall be reciprocal; and all arrests, by virtue of any legal process, or service of any legal process, made on the same, or on any bridge over any such rivers, creeks or bays, are hereby declared to be as good and effectual, as if such arrests or service had been made within the body of either of the said counties.

33. SEC. 2. That where any treason, murder or other offense hath been or hereafter shall be committed on any of the rivers, creeks, bays, highways or roads, which divide or hereafter shall divide any of the counties within this state, or on any of the bridges over any such rivers, creeks or bays, such offense of offenses, whether of principal or accessory, shall be inquired of and tried by a jury of that county where the offender or offenders last resided; and in case such offender or offenders, whether principal or accessory, be non-residents of either of the adjacent counties, such offense or offenses, whether of principal or accessory, shall be inquired of and tried by a jury of either of the said counties, and such inquiry and trial, and all other the proceedings thereon had, shall be as good and effectual as if the said offense or offenses, as well principal as accessory, had been committed, done or perpetrated within the body of such county, where the said inquiry, trial and proceedings shall be had. thirty days' notice in writing, signed by the director of such board, to the director of the board of chosen freeholders of the other county, to make application to the supreme court of this state, which is hereby empowered and directed to appoint three judicious commissioners, not being inhabitants of either of the said counties, to run, survey, mark and ascertain the said line or lines of partition, or any part thereof, agreeably to the act or acts of the legislature constituting such counties, or describing their boundaries. (a)

36. Sec. 2. That the said commissioners, before they enter upon the execution of their appointment, shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before some judge or justice of the peace, that they will faithfully and impartially perform all the duties appertaining to the said appointment.

36. Sec. 3. That the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall give thirty days' notice, in writing, to the respective directors of the said boards of the time and place of their meeting, to execute the duties designated in and by their appointment.

37. Sec. 4. That the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall cause the said line of partition, or such part thereof as shall be specified in, or become necessary by, their appointment, to be run, surveyed, marked and ascertained in conformity, as nearly as may be, with the act or acts of the legislature constituting such counties and prescribing their boundaries; which survey, certified under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, shall be annexed to their commission or appointment, and oath or affirmation of office, and be delivered to the secretary of this state, to be by him recorded and filed.

38. Sec. 5. That the line so surveyed, marked, ascertained and certified, shall be, and hereby is declared to be the boundary and line of partition between the said counties.

39. Sec. 6. That all the charges and expenses of executing the duties of such appointment, inclusive of recording and filing the commission, oath of office, and survey, shall be taxed by the said supreme court, and equally paid by the said counties.

40. Sec. 7. That when the board of chosen freeholders of a county shall deem it necessary to ascertain the partition line, or any part thereof, between any townships of the said county, it shall be lawful for the said board to make application to the inferior court of common pleas, on giving the like notice to the chosen freeholders of such townships; whereupon the said inferior court of common pleas shall appoint three judicious commissioners, not being inhabitants of either of the said townships, to run, survey, mark and ascertain the said line, or any part thereof, agreeably, as near as may be, to charters, settlements, and acts relative to the same.

41. Sec. 8. That the said commissioners shall take an oath or affirmation of office as aforesaid, and shall, as above mentioned, give thirty days' notice, in writing, to the chosen freeholders of the said townships, of the time and place of their meeting to perform the duties enjoined upon them.

42. Sec. 9. That the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall cause the said line, or such part of it as shall be specified in, or become necessary by, their appointment, to be run, surveyed, marked and ascertained, agreeably, as near as may be, to charters, settlements and acts relative to the same; which survey, certified under their, or any two of their hands, shall be annexed to their commission or appointment, and oath or affirmation of office, and delivered to the clerk of the court of common pleas of the said county, who shall record and file the same.

43. Sec. 10. That the line so surveyed, marked, ascertained and certified, shall be the boundary, or line of partition between the said townships; and all the charges and expenses attending the same shall be taxed by the said inferior court of common pleas, and equally paid by the said townships.

(c) The court will not disturb the report of commissioners appointed to ascertain the partition line between counties, except upon clear proof that it is wrong. Burlington v. Atten- tier, 30 Ky. 428.

COUNTIES.

44. Sec. 11. That this act shall only operate on the boundaries and lines of counties and townships as such; and shall in no wise be construed to affect the boundaries or lines of lands belonging to any person whatsoever.

45. Sec. 12. That the term township made use of in this act, shall be construed to comprehend precinct, ward, borough and town corporate.

46. Sec. 13. That if any commissioner, appointed by virtue of this act, shall die, refuse to serve, or resign, it shall be the duty of the said supreme court, or the said inferior court of common pleas, as the case may be, to appoint another in his room.

Supplement.

47. Sec. 1. That in all cases where any new county or township shall be formed, or the lines of any existing county or township shall be altered, or in any wise changed, an accurate survey of such new county or township shall be made, and such altered line or lines shall be carefully run, and two full and complete maps of the same be prepared, on a scale of two inches to the mile, the one to be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other in the clerk's office of the county so newly formed, or in which such new township or altered lines are embraced, within six months after the passage of any act making such alteration or change.

48. Sec. 2. That the duty above enjoined shall be performed agreeably to the provisions, and in the mode prescribed by the act to which this is a supplement.

An act to erect the southwesterly part of Sussex county into a separate county, to be called the county of Warren.

Passed November 20, 1824.

49. Sec. 1. Supplement.

Approved March 21, 1871.

75. SEC. 1. That section first of the act entitled "An act to create the county of Union," approved March nineteenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, be amended by striking out that part of the said section reading as follows: "thence up said new road to the Morris turnpike; thence up said turnpike to the Passaic river at a point in the west division line of the township of Springfield," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "thence up said new road to the center line of the Morris turnpike; thence up the said center line of the said turnpike to the Passaic river."

A supplement to an act entitled "An act to provide for ascertaining the boundaries between the county of Ocean and the counties of Burlington and Monmouth," approved March seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four. (1)

Approved March 20, 1857.

Whereas, It appears that the commissioners appointed by an act of the legislature, approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, to ascertain, run and mark the boundary line between the counties of Burlington and Ocean, have not run and marked that portion of said line from Crosswicks creek, near Shelltown, to the north branch of Rancocas creek, usually called Hartshorne's mill branch, a distance of between eleven and twelve miles, and running through the most populous and thickly-settled part of the whole tract; and that the line determined upon in the report of the said commissioners is at variance and greatly differs from the ancient landmarks, old monuments, original chartered limits, long-established, well-known and undisputed boundary along this section, between said counties; and that in consequence thereof divers disputes and controversies have arisen, and are likely to arise with respect to the collection of taxes, and so forth, to the great inconvenience and disadvantage of the inhabitants between those places; therefore,

76. SEC. 1. That the line of partition between the said county of Ocean and the said county of Burlington, between the beginning and ending points hereinafter mentioned, shall be as follows, that is to say: beginning at a point in the middle of the channel or water-course of Crosswicks creek, opposite a stone placed by the said commissioners on the southerly side of said creek, lettered B on the west side, and O on the east side, which stone is distant three chains and fifty-three links on a course south, thirty-one degrees and forty-eight minutes west from a birch tree near the southeast corner of the bridge over said creek, usually called Fowler's bridge, near and northwardly from the village of Shelltown, and from said point to run in a straight or right line over said stone, according to the original metes and bounds and ancient monuments, the course of the road usually called the old province line or county line road, laid in eighteen hundred and four, as the said road is now opened from Shelltown to the road from New Egypt to Jacobstown, and to continue the general course of the said province line road, until it strikes the soldier Joe corner-stone on the north side of Hockomick pond, a branch of Crosswicks creek, and from that stone in a direct line southerly to the stone near Hartshorne's mill, placed by said commissioners, next southerly of the stone placed at or near Crosswicks creek.

77. Sec. 2. That this act shall not take effect until the collector of the county of Burlington pay to the collector of the county of Ocean, one hundred dollars towards running said line, paying commissioners and other expenses incurred in carrying into effect the law approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, authorizing commissioners to establish the line between the counties of Burlington, Ocean and Monmouth, and when said moneys are paid, this act shall take effect and become a law.

An act to alter the boundary line between Somerset and Middlesex counties.

78. Sec. 1. That from and after the passage of this act, that the boundary line between the counties of Somerset and Middlesex shall commence in the center of the Franklin and Georgetown turnpike road, at the point where the said road intersects and forms the boundary line of the city of New Brunswick, and runs thence along the center of said turnpike road to William E. Barker's Ten Mile run.

79. Sec. 2. That the inhabitants of North Brunswick and South Brunswick townships that may be set over to the township of Franklin, in Somerset county, by the passage of this act, shall be liable to all laws and entitled to all benefits that the inhabitants of the aforesaid township of Franklin are subject or entitled to, and that the inhabitants of the township of Franklin that may be set over to the townships of North and South Brunswick, shall be liable to all laws and entitled to all the benefits that the inhabitants of the aforesaid townships of North and South Brunswick, in the aforesaid county of Middlesex, are or may be entitled to.

81. Sec. 1. That all that part of the county of Camden comprising the townships of Washington and Monroe (except that part of the township of Washington included within the boundaries of the Camden county almshouse farm, which is to remain part of said county of Camden, and be annexed to and made a part of the township of Gloucester, in said county), shall be and the same is hereby annexed to and made a part of the county of Gloucester, and shall be subject to all laws applying to the said county of Gloucester, and shall have all the privileges and immunities of the other portion of Gloucester county, and the residue of the said township of Washington shall hereafter be known as "the inhabitants of the township of Washington, in Gloucester county;" and the said township of Monroe shall hereafter be known as "the inhabitants of the township of Monroe, in Gloucester county;" and the division line between the townships of Washington and Monroe on the one hand, and the townships of Gloucester and Winslow on the other hand, as said townships are hereby constituted, shall be hereafter the boundary line between the counties of Camden and Gloucester.

[Secs. 1 to 7 executed.]

An act to establish the line between the counties of Middlesex and Union.

P. L. 1871, p. 1235.

Boundary lines changed between counties of Middlesex and Union.

82. Sec. 1. That from and after the passage of this act, the boundary line between the counties of Middlesex and Union, from the point where the same is now intersected by the center line of North avenue, shall be and is hereby changed or altered so as to run as follows: from the aforesaid point in the middle of North avenue southerly along the center line of said North avenue to the center line of Jefferson avenue; thence westerly along the center line of said Jefferson avenue to the line of Somerset county, in the center of Green brook.

83. Sec. 2. That so much of the township of Plainfield as shall be cut off and separated from the said township, shall be and is hereby annexed to the township of Piscataway, in the county of Middlesex, and that so much of the township of Piscataway as shall be cut off and separated from the said township, shall be and is hereby annexed to the township of Plainfield, in the county of Union.

An act to define and perpetuate the line between the counties of Hudson and Bergen.

P. L. 1874, p. 273.

Boards of freeholders of counties of Bergen and Hudson may survey and perpetuate line between said counties.

84. Sec. 1. That it shall be lawful for the boards of chosen freeholders of the counties of Hudson and Bergen, to each appoint a suitable surveyor, one from each county, whose duty it shall be to survey the line between said counties, and mark suitable points where permanent monuments shall be erected to perpetuate said line, and to make a map of said line as surveyed, and when completed to furnish each of said boards with a copy of said survey and map which shall be placed on file in the clerk's office of the respective boards, and open to inspection for thirty days after the same shall have been received, and notice given of the filing by publishing the same in the minutes of said boards, and in thirty days after the publication in said minutes, either of said boards may take action in relation to the confirmation of the county line, as surveyed and run, and if both of said boards shall by resolution confirm said line, as run and mapped, said maps and surveys shall be filed and recorded in the clerks' offices of Hudson and Bergen counties, and the line so fixed shall hereafter be the line between said counties, until changed by the legislature.

85. Sec. 2. That in making said map and survey the lines between the townships of Hackensack and Union, in the county of Bergen, and the townships of Kearny and North Bergen, in the county of Hudson, shall be the line as near as the same can be ascertained from the present monuments.

86. Sec. 3. That if the line as run shall be established by the boards of freeholders of said counties, said boards shall erect granite monuments or other marks at suitable distances on and along the line, as run, to perpetuate the same.

87. Sec. 4. That said surveys shall be made and the monuments erected under the supervision and direction of a joint committee of said boards, and the expense of said survey and the erection of said monuments and other marks shall be ascertained by said joint committee, and reported by said joint committee to their respective boards, and when approved by said boards, shall be paid by said counties, each county paying one-half.
COUNTIES.

88. Sec. 5. That if either county shall reject said map and survey, it shall be the duty of the county rejecting the same to send the map and survey to the secretary of state to be filed in his office, to await further legislative action.

An act to change the boundary line between the counties of Essex and Union.

Approved February 22, 1870.

89. Sec. 1. [Amended by Sec. 90, post.]

Amendatory act.

Approved February 3, 1872.

90. Sec. 1. That the first section of this act entitled "An act to change the boundary line between the counties of Essex and Union," approved February twenty-second, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"That the boundary line between the counties of Essex and Union, and the townships of Springfield and Summit, in the county of Union, and the township of Millburn, in the county of Essex, between the points hereinafter mentioned, shall hereafter be as follows, viz.: beginning at a point in said boundary line at the intersection of the southeasterly line of Springfield avenue, formerly called Washington street (in the act to which this is an amendment), with the southerly line of the Morris and Elizabeth turnpike road; thence running southeasterly in a prolongation of the said southeasterly side of said Springfield avenue, to the southerly side of the said Morris and Elizabeth turnpike road; thence running westerly along said southerly side, to the center of the bridge over the Passaic and Delaware railroad, formerly New Jersey West Line railroad; thence running northerly at right angles to said turnpike road to the north side of the said turnpike road; thence running westerly along the said northerly side of said turnpike road to its intersection with the boundary line of the county of Morris."

An act to straighten the county line brook dividing Union and Somerset counties in the city of Plainfield.

Approved March 10, 1878.

WHENAS, A certain stream of water known as Green brook (the same being the county line between Union and Somerset counties), at a point in the city of Plainfield where the same crosses a street known as Elm place, because of its present course before crossing said Elm place being nearly at right angles with the general course of the stream, causes the roadway and adjoining properties to overflow in time of high water; therefore,

91. Sec. 1. That the boards of chosen freeholders of the counties of Union and Somerset shall so change the course of Green brook crossing Elm place in the city of Plainfield, as that it shall cross said street in a line parallel with the general course of the stream north of said Elm place.

92. Sec. 2. That the county line shall be so changed as that Green brook when so straightened shall continue to be the dividing line between the counties of Union and Somerset, the same as before the passage of this act.

An act entitled "An act to set off a portion of Maurice River township, in the county of Cumberland, into the Upper township, county of Cape May, and change the boundaries between said counties."(1)

Approved March 26, 1878.

93. Sec. 1. That all that part of the township of Maurice River, in the county of Cumberland, butted, bounded and described as follows, to wit: beginning at a stone in the division line between the counties of Cumberland and Cape May, in what is known as the old Cape road, said stone also being

(1) By a supplement to this act, approved March 13th, 1880 (P. L. 1880, p. 395), provision is made for the payment of the bonded indebtedness of Maurice River township.
the beginning corner of the division line between the townships of Upper and Dennis, in the county of Cape May; thence along the several courses of said Cape road to the intersection with the Dorchester and Esteville road; thence along the several courses of said Dorchester and Esteville road to its intersection with the Cumberland and Tuckahoe road; thence following the several courses of the said Cumberland and Tuckahoe road to a point on Hunter's mill dam, in the line between the counties of Cumberland and Atlantic; thence along said line the several courses thereof to the terminus of the present Cumberland and Cape May county line; thence along said Cumberland and Cape May line to the beginning as aforesaid, be and the same doth and shall hereby cease to be included in and a part and parcel of the township of Maurice River, county of Cumberland, as aforesaid, but shall be and is hereby set off by the passage of this act, and doth hereby become a part and parcel of the township of Upper, in the county of Cape May, and shall hereafter be included within the boundaries of said Upper township, county of Cape May, as aforesaid.

94. Sec. 2. That the division line between the counties of Cumberland, Atlantic and Cape May be and hereby is made to conform to the several courses enumerated in the preceding section of this act.

95. Sec. 3. That any and all persons who shall reside within the above-described territory, and who are now residents of the county of Cumberland, upon the passage of this act shall immediately become citizens and residents of the county of Cape May, and shall be entitled to all rights, privileges and benefits of citizenship in said county.

96. Sec. 4. That Lewis S. Williams, of the Upper township, county of Cape May, and Benjamin F. McKee, of Maurice River township, county of Cumberland, be and are hereby appointed two commissioners, with full power to choose a third person, who shall also be a commissioner when so chosen, so that said board shall consist of three members, whose duty it shall be to make a just and equitable settlement between the portion of said Maurice River township proposed to be set off by this act and the portion of the said township which this act does not affect, so far as relates to the bonded indebtedness of said township, and also of any and all taxes which have been assessed previous to the passage of this act for the benefit of said township.

97. Sec. 5. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

An act to define and establish the boundary line at the village of Kingston, between the counties of Middlesex and Somerset.

P.L. 1873, p. 355.
Preamble.

Whereas, A dispute had arisen as to the boundary line at the village of Kingston, between the counties of Middlesex and Somerset; and whereas, the respective boards of chosen freeholders of the said counties have had surveyed and run out, and have amicably agreed upon the line which they consider to be the true boundary line at the village of Kingston, between the said counties, and which line they ask the senate and general assembly of the state of New Jersey to legalize and establish; therefore,

98. Sec. 1. That the boundary line at the village of Kingston, between the said counties of Middlesex and Somerset, is hereby defined and established as follows, to wit: beginning in the middle of the roadway of the center of the river bridge at Kingston, in the line of Mercer county, and running thence (first) south, seventy-seven degrees and twenty minutes east, eighty-nine links to a stone monument sunk in the center of the roadway at the east end of the bridge; thence (second) north, seventy-nine degrees and twenty minutes east, nine chains and six and a quarter links to a stone monument sunk on the easterly side of the railroad track, sixty links from a line stone of lands of Roger O. Kane, and ninety-one and a quarter links from the northwest corner of Cornelius Van Duyn's storehouse; thence (third) north, seventy-six degrees and five minutes east, eleven chains and ninety-nine and a half links to a stone monument sunk in the road, one chain and twenty-six links from the northeast corner of the school-house, thirty-three feet and four inches from the cemetery fence, and eighty-one and a half links from the southwest corner of the old Heath tavern-house; thence (fourth) north, seventy-three and a half degrees east, eleven chains and fifty-seven and a quarter links to a stone monument sunk in the middle of the road, two chains and sixty-one links from the southwest corner of the Kingston church, fifty-eight links from the southeast corner of William J. Bastide's dwelling-house, and seventy-seven links from the northeast corner of Mrs. David C. Johnson's dwelling-house, and from thence eastward, as the line now is, any law or usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

An act to define, locate and establish that part of the division line between the counties of Union and Essex, which separates the township of Union, in the county of Union, from the townships of Clinton and South Orange, in the county of Essex.

Whereas, A dispute having arisen in respect to the true location of that part of the division line between the counties of Union and Essex, which separates the township of Union, in the county of Union, from the townships of Clinton and South Orange, in the county of Essex; and whereas, the line hereinafter particularly described has been, ever since the county of Union was formed, adopted by the residents of both counties in the neighborhood as the true line, and they having voted, worked roads, recorded deeds, mortgages and other papers, proved wills, &c., &c., with reference thereto; and whereas, any change in the line so practically located would injuriously affect the title to large tracts of land and would otherwise create confusion and work damage; therefore,

99. Sec. 1. That the said division line shall be and the same is hereby located, defined and established as follows, to wit: beginning in the middle of the lower road leading from Elizabeth to Newark, at a small bridge near the southerly line of Evergreen cemetery; thence running northerly in a straight course to a brownstone monument marked "U. C.," and "E. C.," near the westerly line of the upper road leading from Elizabeth to Newark; thence in a straight line northwesterly to a stake in the easterly line of the road leading past the house of Jonathan Wimans, Jr., said stake being thirty-five feet six inches southerly from the most northerly corner of Mrs. Phebe Grummon's land (and the most westerly corner of Thomas Chandler's land); thence in the same course northwesterly thirteen hundred and fifty feet to a stake in land formerly belonging to O. S. Halstead, deceased; thence westerly in a straight line to a stake in the southeasterly line of the Harbor road, said stake standing one hundred and forty-seven feet northeasterly from the most westerly corner of Jotham Brown's land (and the most northerly corner of Nathaniel Compton's land); thence westerly in a straight line to a stake in the southeasterly side of the road leading from Springfield to Orange, said stake standing in the most northerly corner of Wickliff Headley's land; thence in the same course westerly to the Rahway river. (a)

100. Sec. 2. That the said line as described in the first section of this act shall be substantially monumented as soon as practicable, at the joint expense of the said counties of Union and Essex.

101. Sec. 3. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

(a) This act settled the controversy between the counties of Union and Essex in reference to the establishment of the line between those counties. See Preholders of Union v. Preholders of Essex, 14 U. 391, and 15 U. 408.
