An act to authorize persons to change their names.

P. L. 1876, p. 21.

Approved February 24, 1876.

Court, on being satisfied there is no objection, may make order.

1. [Amended by Sec. 7, post.]

2. That if the court to which such application shall be made, shall be satisfied by such petition, so verified, or by affidavits presented, that there is no reasonable objection that such person should assume another name, such court shall make an order authorizing such applicant to assume such other name, from and after some time, not less than thirty days, to be specified in such order.

Within ten days after granting order, copy to be published in paper printed in county, &c.

3. That within ten days after granting such order, such applicant shall cause a copy thereof to be published in a public newspaper printed in the county in which he shall reside at the time of making such application; within twenty days from the granting of such order such applicant shall cause such petition, affidavit or affidavits, order, and an affidavit of the publication of such order to be filed and recorded in the county clerk's office of the county in which such applicant shall reside at the time of making such application, and within the same time such applicant shall cause a certified copy of such order to be filed with the secretary of state.

When act complied with, applicant to be known by name authorized in order.

4. That when the requirements of this act shall be complied with, the applicant shall, from and after the day specified for that purpose in such order, be known by the name which by such order he shall be authorized to assume, and by no other.

Suits or legal proceedings not to abate—may be amended in respect to name.

5. That if any suit or legal proceeding shall be commenced by his former name, against any person whose name shall have been changed pursuant to this act, such suit or proceeding shall not be abated, nor any relief or recovery sought thereby, be prevented by such misnomer, but the plaintiff or party instituting such suit or proceeding may amend in respect to the name of the person against whom it shall be commenced, at any time and without costs.

When act to take effect.

6. That this act shall take effect on the first day of April, eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

Supplement.

Approved May 15, 1894.

P. L. 1894, p. 312.

7. SEC. 1. That section one of the act to which this is a supplement be amended so as to read as follows :

Application may be made to court for change of name.

[That any person residing in any county in this state may apply to the circuit court or the inferior court of common pleas of such county for an order to authorize such applicant to assume another name; if, said applicant be a minor he shall apply by guardian or next friend; such application shall be by petition, which shall set forth the grounds of the application and shall be verified by the affidavit of the applicant annexed thereto or indorsed thereon, and notice of such application shall be published at least once in each week for four weeks successively next preceding the time of such application, in some newspaper of said county.]
