

An act respecting townships.

Approved June 13, 1890.

P. L. 1890, p. 448.

20. SEC. 1. That in any township of this state it shall be lawful for any constable or police officer thereof to summarily arrest, without warrant, any person hawking, peddling or selling anything whatsoever in such township without a license, where it is required to obtain a license therefor by any ordinance of such township.

May arrest persons hawking, &c., without license in townships.

21. SEC. 2. That it shall be lawful to carry such person so arrested before any justice of the peace of said township, before whom violations of ordinances are hereby made triable, whereupon such justice of the peace shall determine whether the person so arrested has been guilty of the violation complained of, and the said justice may adjourn the hearing of said complaint for a period not longer than five days, and may take the defendant's bond for his appearance at such adjourned hearing.

Such persons to be tried before justice of the peace.

22. SEC. 3. That on conviction of such violation, it shall be lawful for the said justice of the peace to impose a fine on such person, not exceeding twenty dollars and costs, which costs are to be taxed the same as in cases of disorderly persons, which fine and costs shall be paid forthwith, and upon failure to pay such fine and costs he shall commit such person to the county jail of the county in which such township is located, there to be detained by the sheriff of the county or keeper of said jail until the fine and costs are paid; provided, no person shall, under this act, be detained in jail for a longer period than ten days for any one offense.

Penalty on conviction.

23. SEC. 4. That in addition to the penalties heretofore imposed in this act, the penalties prescribed by any township committee of any township of this state, by virtue of any general law for the violation of any ordinance of said township, shall be recoverable before any justice of the peace of said township in an action on contract in the name of the inhabitants of said township, and for the use of said township, which suit shall be conducted in the same manner as other suits in actions of contract now triable before justices of the peace are conducted, and when judgment is given, executions thereon shall issue in the same manner, and shall be subject to appeal to the court of common pleas of the county on the same terms.

Penalty for violating ordinance.

Adjutant-general to present pension claims at Washington.

5. SEC. 1. [Amended and supplied by Sec. 9, post.]
 6. SEC. 2. That the governor shall have power to direct the adjutant-general of the state to present to the pension office at Washington the claims of the soldiers and sailors of the war of eighteen hundred and twelve, who are entitled to pensions under an act of congress approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and to procure the payment of said pensions without expense to the pensioners.

A further supplement to the act entitled "An act for the relief of soldiers and sailors of this state in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve," approved March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and the supplement thereto approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Approved March 3, 1880.

P. L. 1880, p. 86.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The legislature of the state of New Jersey did order to be paid to the soldiers and sailors who served in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors, the sum of one hundred dollars in equal semi-annual payments during their lifetime, from and after the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and whereas, the congress of the United States did pass an act giving said soldiers and sailors and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors a pension from and after the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; and whereas, there are a few soldiers and sailors, and widows of such soldiers and sailors of the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve, through not knowing of the passage of the said act of March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, have not received any pension of the state of New Jersey, though justly entitled to the same; therefore,

Pensions allowed from March 12th, 1874.

7. SEC. 1. That the sum of one hundred dollars be paid to all soldiers and sailors and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors of the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve for each year, to commence from the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four to the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, or to the day of their pension, who have not received such pension, which they were justly entitled to under the said act of March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Repealer.

8. SEC. 2. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall be deemed a public act and take effect immediately.

Supplement.

Approved April 6, 1886. P. L. 1886, p. 195.

9. SEC. 1. That section one of the act to which this is a further supplement [see Secs. 2, 4 and 5, ante] is hereby amended to read as follows:

[That the sum of one hundred dollars be paid all soldiers and sailors of this state who served in the war of eighteen hundred and twelve, and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors, in equal semi-annual payments during their lifetime; provided, that no such pension shall hereafter be paid to any such widows of deceased soldiers and sailors who have again married; provided, further, that this act shall not apply to any persons who are now or who shall hereafter become entitled to a pension under any law of the United States.]

Pension allowed by state of New Jersey.

10. SEC. 2. That any such widows shall be entitled to any such pension she would have heretofore been entitled to under the laws of this state, if the further supplement, approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, had not been passed; provided, this section shall not be construed to entitle the heir or heirs of any deceased widow to any pension under the laws of this state.

Rights of widow to pensions.

Joint resolution in reference to pension claims of New Jersey volunteers.

Approved March 10, 1880. P. L. 1880, p. 331.

WHEREAS, It is represented that a very large number of unsettled claims for pension of New Jersey volunteers are now pending before the pension department of the United States, and it is evident that many of these applications have been made by worthy soldiers in needy circumstances, and requiring only the attention of some official to urge their early settlement; therefore,

Preamble.

11. SEC. 1. That the governor of this state be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to direct the adjutant-general of the state to examine, either in person or by an assistant, into the class of claims for pension, just referred to, and urge their allowance by the proper auditing officers of the United States treasury.

Examination of unsettled claims.
