An act respecting townships.

20. Sec. 1. That in any township of this state it shall be lawful for any constable or police officer thereof to summarily arrest, without warrant, any person hawking, peddling or selling anything whatsoever in such township without a license, where it is required to obtain a license therefor by any ordinance of such township.

21. Sec. 2. That it shall be lawful to carry such person so arrested before any justice of the peace of said township, before whom violations of ordinances are hereby made triable, whereupon such justice of the peace shall determine whether the person so arrested has been guilty of the violation complained of, and the said justice may adjourn the hearing of said complaint for a period not longer than five days, and may take the defendant's bond for his appearance at such adjourned hearing.

22. Sec. 3. That on conviction of such violation, it shall be lawful for the said justice of the peace to impose a fine on such person, not exceeding twenty dollars and costs, which costs are to be taxed the same as in cases of disorderly persons, which fine and costs shall be paid forthwith, and upon failure to pay such fine and costs he shall commit such person to the county jail of the county in which such township is located, there to be detained by the sheriff of the county or keeper of said jail until the fine and costs are paid; provided, no person shall, under this act, be detained in jail for a longer period than ten days for any one offense.

23. Sec. 4. That in addition to the penalties heretofore imposed in this act, the penalties prescribed by any township committee of any township of this state, by virtue of any general law for the violation of any ordinance of said township, shall be recoverable before any justice of the peace of said township in an action on contract in the name of the inhabitants of said township, and for the use of said township, which suit shall be conducted in the same manner as other suits in actions of contract now triable before justices of the peace are conducted, and when judgment is given, executions thereon shall issue in the same manner, and shall be subject to appeal to the court of common pleas of the county on the same terms.

An act to regulate the payment of pensions to invalids and widows.

Passed November 24, 1822.

1. That from and after the passing of this act, no person or persons whatsoever, who are or shall be entitled to receive from the treasurer of this state any money on account of warrants to widows or invalid pensioners, shall receive the same, except in cases of arrearages of pensions due at the time of the death of an invalid, or at the marriage or death of a widow, unless he or she produce to the said treasurer the affidavits of two reputable freeholders of the county in which he or she resides, setting forth, that of their own knowledge, the person named in said warrant is at the time living, and if a widow, that to the best of their knowledge and belief she is still a widow of the deceased person mentioned in the said warrant.
PENSIONS.

An act for the relief of soldiers and sailors of this state in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

P. L. 1874, p. 34.

2. Sec. 1. [Amended by Secs. 4 and 9, post.]

3. Sec. 2. That the evidence of service in each case shall be furnished to and filed in the office of the adjutant-general, and he shall examine the same, and upon being satisfied that such service was really performed, he shall so certify to the comptroller, and the comptroller shall audit such claims, and the treasurer of the state shall pay the same; provided, that this act shall not apply to any persons who are now or may hereafter be in the receipt of pensions under any special law of this state, or of any pensions from the United States government for similar services during the continuance of payment of such pension.

Supplement.

P. L. 1875, p. 265.

4. Sec. 1. [This section, amending Sec. 2, ante, is again amended by Sec. 9, post.]

Supplement.

P. L. 1878, p. 487.

5. Sec. 1. [Amended and supplied by Sec. 9, post.]

6. Sec. 2. That the governor shall have power to direct the adjutant-general of the state to present to the pension office at Washington the claims of the soldiers and sailors of the war of eighteen hundred and twelve, who are entitled to pensions under an act of congress approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and to procure the payment of said pensions without expense to the pensioners.

A further supplement to the act entitled "An act for the relief of soldiers and sailors of this state in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve," approved March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and the supplement thereto approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Approved March 8, 1880.

Whereas, The legislature of the state of New Jersey did order in order to be paid to the soldiers and sailors who served in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors, the sum of one hundred dollars in equal semi-annual payments during their lifetime, from and after the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and whereas, the congress of the United States did pass an act giving said soldiers and sailors and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors a pension from and after the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; and whereas, there are a few soldiers and sailors, and widows of such soldiers and sailors of the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve, through not knowing of the passage of the said act of March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, have not received any pension of the state of New Jersey, though justly entitled to the same; therefore,

7. Sec. 1. That the sum of one hundred dollars be paid to all soldiers and sailors and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors of the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve for each year, to commence from the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four to the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, or to the day of their pension, who have not received such pension, which they were justly entitled to under the said act of March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

8. Sec. 2. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall be deemed a public act and take effect immediately.
Supplement.

9. Sec. 1. That section one of the act to which this is a further supplement [see Secs. 2, 4 and 5, ante] is hereby amended to read as follows:

[That the sum of one hundred dollars be paid all soldiers and sailors of this state who served in the war of eighteen hundred and twelve, and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors, in equal semi-annual payments during their lifetime; provided, that no such pension shall hereafter be paid to any such widows of deceased soldiers and sailors who have again married; provided, further, that this act shall not apply to any persons who are now or who shall hereafter become entitled to a pension under any law of the United States.]

10. Sec. 2. That any such widows shall be entitled to any such pension she would have heretofore been entitled to under the laws of this state, if the further supplement, approved April fifth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, had not been passed; provided, this section shall not be construed to entitle the heir or heirs of any deceased widow to any pension under the laws of this state.

Joint resolution in reference to pension claims of New Jersey volunteers.

Whereas, It is represented that a very large number of unsettled claims for pension of New Jersey volunteers are now pending before the pension department of the United States, and it is evident that many of these applications have been made by worthy soldiers in needy circumstances, and requiring only the attention of some official to urge their early settlement; therefore,

11. Sec. 1. That the governor of this state be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to direct the adjutant-general of the state to examine, either in person or by an assistant, into the class of claims for pension, just referred to, and urge their allowance by the proper auditing officers of the United States treasury.

12. Sec. 2. That the necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties above prescribed, shall be approved by the governor and paid by the treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller.

An act for the relief of soldiers, sailors and their widows of this state, in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

Whereas, The legislature of the state of New Jersey did order to be paid to the soldiers and sailors who served in the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors, the sum of one hundred dollars, in equal semi-annual payments during their lifetime, from and after the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and whereas, the congress of the United States did pass an act giving said soldiers and sailors and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors a pension from and after the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; and whereas, there are a few soldiers and sailors and widows of such soldiers and sailors of the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve, who, through not knowing of the passage of the said act of March twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, have not received any pension of the state of New Jersey; therefore,

13. Sec. 1. That the sum of one hundred dollars be paid to all soldiers and sailors and the widows of any such soldiers and sailors of the war of one thousand eight hundred and twelve for each year, to commence from the twelfth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, to the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight; provided, that nothing in this act shall allow any soldier, sailor or their

P. L. 1883, p. 112.
Regulations and restrictions for selling petroleum.

1. [Amended and supplied by Sec. 6, post.]
2. That if any person shall sell, offer or expose for sale, for use within this state, except in the manner permitted by this act, any petroleum or product thereof, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment at hard labor or otherwise for a term not exceeding one year, or both, and any sale in quantity less than one barrel shall be presumed to be for use within this state.

   member of the state board of health, or any analyst or inspector authorized by said board, or for any member of a county, city or township board of health, to visit any place where kerosene or other product of petroleum is on sale, and to secure such quantity thereof as shall be sufficient for testing, at the rate of the usual retail price of said article, and if the same is found to be of such a character as is by this act prohibited from sale for lighting or illuminating purposes generally, the person having the same for sale may be enjoined and prohibited by written notice, signed by such member of a board of health, analyst or inspector, and served upon such person, or upon any agent, servant or employee in charge of said article, from the sale of the same for use within this state for such purposes; and if, thereafter, any of the same shall be so sold or offered, or exposed for sale for lighting or illuminating purposes, except as permitted by this act, the person thus selling or offering, or exposing for sale the same, shall be liable to the penalties hereinbefore provided.
5. That the act entitled "An act to regulate the sale and keeping of inflammable and explosive fluids," approved April twenty-first, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six [see Secs. 318 and 314, on page 1107, ante], and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Supplement.  Approved March 22, 1883.

6. Sec. 1. That section one of the act to which this is a supplement be amended so as to read as follows:
   [That hereafter petroleum or any of the products thereof may only be sold for use within this state under the following regulations and restrictions, namely, (a) benzole, gasoline, naphtha and benzine must be sold under
