I. Tax act of April 14th, 1846, with supplements.

An act concerning taxes.

Approved April 14, 1846.

1. That the assessor of every township shall, between the twelfth day of May and the twelfth day of August, annually, take a true account, and make out an exact list of the persons, lands, chattels, effects, and estates, including all personal property made taxable by law in that year, by which all assessments during the said year shall be regulated and made; and every inhabitant of the township shall, on application of the assessor, forthwith render a full and true account of his name and his real and personal property, effects, and estates as aforesaid, which the assessor shall set down in writing, in order that the legislature may ascertain the proportion or quota of each county, and that every individual may be duly and justly assessed. (a)

(a) The assessor's demand of an account of taxable property may be made at a place other than the owner's dwelling house, if he do not refuse, on that ground, to render such account. State v. Tobias, 3 Har. 196. The person being called on by the assessor's warrant, and furnished with a blank to fill up, is entitled to be recorded of his property, under oath, told the assessor that he would see his attorney, and if it was right, &c., he would fill up the blank and return it to the assessor's office. Held, that the assessor, hearing nothing further from the person, was justified, by the provisions of the eighth section of the tax law of 1846, in assessing his property at its highest assessed value. State v. Forshey, 6 Har. 43. Since the act of 1824, the person taxed is bound, if required, to state to the assessor the particulars of his personal property under oath or affirmation, and if his failures to do so, he is not entitled to appeal or to rely on other evidence to be given by the collector. State v. Clymer, 4 Har. 338. But it was held that such refusal only deprived the party of his right to appeal, and that the penalty by Sections 37 and 38 was still incurred. State v. Robinson Bridge Co. v. Meta, 4 Har. 187, 194. State v. Robinson Bridge Co. v. Wright, 6 Har. 276, 281. Assessor not entitled to take the oath of affirmation in order to assess him. State v. Robinson Bridge Co. v. Taylor, 6 Har. 164. Under the eighth section of the act of 1846, it is not; and in order to make a valid assessment, that the assessor shall examine persons to be assessed, by oath or affirmation. State v. Roe v. Tindall, 7 Har. 97. The essential thing to be done by the assessor under this act is to ascertain, to the best of his ability and according to his own judgment, the names of the persons taxable, and the actual value of all taxable property, and this he is to do by diligent inquiry, by the oaths or affirmations of the persons to be assessed, or of other persons if necessary, and by personal examination of the property to be valued. Jt. An affidavit setting forth that he has no property in the ward subject to taxation, is sufficient and conclusive, unless the contrary is shown by other evidence. State v. McClung, 1 Jt. 253. State v. Randolph, 1 Jt. 82. An assessment for taxes in a school district made upon real estate only, is illegal, and the assessor has no authority to alter the duplicate by extending the assessment to the personal estate of those assessed, and adding the names of others not assessed, after the duplicate has been delivered to the collector. State v. Roll v. Potts, 6 Har. 204. An assessor has a right to exercise his opinions as to values, deductions, and other matters involved in the assessment, until his determination as to the amount of tax to be levied against the individual is officially entered in his tax-book. State v. Davenport v. Simmons, 17 Har. 166.
TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

2. That if any inhabitant shall neglect or refuse to render such account, or shall render a false or fraudulent account, he shall be taxed in a sum double to what the said assessor may suppose his ratable estate would be taxed; which shall not be reduced or altered by the commissioners of appeal, unless the offender can make it appear, by the testimony of credible witnesses, that he was not guilty of such neglect or refusal or did not render a false or fraudulent account as aforesaid.

3. [Amended by Sec. 175, post.]

4. That it shall be the duty of the said assessors, at such meeting, to make out two abstracts of the amount of all the ratables in each township, in the manner hitherto practiced, designating in separate columns in said abstract the amount of quotas, if any, of county, poor and road tax, to be assessed and collected in the different townships, and also the number of taxable inhabitants in each township; which shall be signed by every assessor present, and on the same day delivered to the county collector, who shall lay one of the said abstracts before the legislature, during the course of the first week of their stated annual session.

5. That the said assessors shall within fifteen days after such meeting, deliver to the township collector a true transcript or duplicate of the said assessment, in which they shall add together the sums contained in each column, and place such aggregate sum at the foot of each column, through every page. (a)

6. That the amount of the certainties shall be deducted by the said assessors from the quota or sum apportioned to every township, and the remainder of the said quota or sum, with the fees of assessment, collection, and paying over to the treasurer, shall be assessed on the other taxable property within such township, according to the valuations aforesaid, at such rate per dollar, as will be sufficient to produce the sum required.

7. That if any assessor shall neglect or refuse to perform any service or duty as required by law, he shall, for every such neglect or refusal, forfeit and pay the sum of thirty-two dollars, to be recovered, with costs, by action of debt, in the name of the clerk of the township for which such assessor was elected or appointed, and for the use of the said township.

8. That if any person shall think himself aggrieved by such assessment, he may appeal to the commissioners of appeal in cases of taxation, in and for the proper township, who are hereby required to convene on the fourth Tuesday of November, annually, for the purpose of discharging the duties of their office in all matters arising under this act. (b)

9. That if any assessor shall not attend at the time and place before directed for the meeting of the assessors of the county, it shall and may be lawful for a majority of the said assessors convened as aforesaid, to proceed to business, and to ascertain the proportion of the tax to be assessed and levied on the township of the non-attending assessor, according to the best of their knowledge and information; which proportion shall be assessed and collected by the assessor and collector of the said township.

10. That the collector of every township shall annually, on the first day of October, give notice, by advertisements set up in at least four of the most public places of the township, of the said tax, and that, if it be not paid by a certain day therein mentioned, the name of the defaulter, with the tax, will be returned to a justice of the peace for prosecution; in which advertisements, notice shall also be given of the time and place of the meeting of the commissioners of appeal in cases of taxation. (c)

11. [Amended by Secs. 196 and 206, post.]

12. That in case of the non-payment of taxes at the time appointed, the township collector shall make out a list of the names of the delinquents, with the sums due from them respectively thereto annexed, and deliver to the statute, is sufficient notice of the assessment and of the time and place for hearing objections, to make the imposition lawful. State, Hill v. Balson, 13 Vt. 189.

(a) By this section the assessor is required to deliver the duplicate to the collector at a certain day; the collector is therein, on demand, authorized to receive taxes. Johnson v. Van Horn, 16 Vt. 189.

(b) In the absence of some statutory requirement of notice, in a particular manner, to the individual taxed, of the assessment against him, notice of the time and place of meeting of the commissioners of appeal, by advertisements set up according to the statute, is sufficient notice of the assessment and of the time and place for hearing objections, to make the imposition lawful. State, Hill v. Balson, 13 Vt. 189.

(c) The period of two years during which the tax lien exists, commences to run at the time fixed by the collector of taxes in the notice required by this section, before which taxes are to be paid, not later than December 19th. Johnson v. Van Horn, 16 Vt. 189.

McPherson, 4 Pa. 328. 4 Pr. 328. A constable will be allowed to compel the township's right to pay state and county taxes outside of the first tax money collected; and if the moneys collected for such taxes are squandered, wasted or misapplied by lending to others, then the township shall be liable to make good such deficiency or loss by adding the same to the quota of such township in the next assessment. also, to pay any tax money which he shall have received of the sheriff, to all taxes which he shall receive and pay to the treasurer of this state, and also, for the payment of each general assessment, seven cents for every for the time being, for the use of the state, before any justice of the supreme court, who shall have exclusive cognizance of the same, and who is hereby authorized and required to direct the proper process in such action to the sheriff of the county in which such collector resides, whose duty it shall be to execute the same; and on entry of judgment in the said action against the county collector, the said justice shall issue his warrant thereon, directed to the sheriff of the county, commanding him to levy and make

30. That if any township collector or constable shall squander, waste, embezzle or become insolvent and unable to pay any tax moneys or other moneys or property belonging to this state, and by him received in virtue or appointed, shall be liable for and make good such deficiency or loss, by adding the same to the quota of such township, in the next assessment to said township is hereby required to assess the same, under the like penalties as are hereinbefore referred to for neglect of duty.

31. That if any county collector shall squander, waste, embezzle or become insolvent and unable to pay any tax moneys or other moneys or property belonging to this state, and by him received in virtue of his office, then the said county for which he was appointed, shall be liable for and duty of the county collector to charge such deficiency to the deficient township or townships, which shall be assessed on and collected from the same, over and above the quota of such township or townships, in the next tax as assessors, when they meet to adjust and apportion the county's quota of the said tax among the several townships, an accurate account of the whole deficiency of each township, which said deficiency shall be assessed on such township, in the same manner and proportion as the tax then to be raised is required to be assessed.

33. That the tenants or other persons in possession or having the care of any lands or tenements, and their goods and chattels, shall be and they hereby are made liable for the payment of taxes, which are or shall be imposed on the said lands; and if any such tenant or other person shall pay, or his or her goods and chattels shall be levied on and sold to pay any such tax, it shall be lawful for him to deduct the sum so paid out of the rent, or to recover the same from the landlord or owner by action of debt, with costs; provided always, that nothing in this act shall affect or extend to any contract made or to be made between landlord and tenant. (a)

34. 37. That it shall and may be lawful for the purchaser or purchasers of any timber, wood, herbage, or other property, after the time allowed in the thirty-seventh section of this act shall expire, he or she so offending shall be guilty of trespass, and on conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty dollars, or exceeding one hundred, to be prosecuted and recovered by the owner or owners in any court of competent jurisdiction.

41. That where the sheriff to whom any warrant shall be directed by virtue of this act, cannot find goods or chattels to distress, or cannot find sufficient to make the full sum, then the said sheriff, after making sale of such goods and chattels as he may have found, shall return the said warrant, indorsing thereon how far he has executed it, to the judge who issued the same; and it shall be the duty of the said judge to transmit, under his hand and seal, a true copy of the entry of the judgment and awarding of the warrant and the sheriff's return to the clerk of the supreme court, if such prosecution be at the suit of the treasurer of this state, or to the clerk of the court of common pleas of the county, if it be at the suit of the county or township collector, who is hereby authorized and directed to file the same, and thereupon to enter in the minutes of the said court, judgment against such defaulting county collector, township collector or constable, for the amount of the debt or tax money, with interest and costs, as indorsed on the said warrant, or the residue thereof, as the case may require, and on such judgment to issue, record, direct and deliver to the sheriff of the proper county a writ of execution against the lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate of the said county collector, township collector or constable; which lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate shall be levied on, seized, advertised, sold and conveyed by the said sheriff in the manner directed by the act entitled "An act making lands liable to be sold for the payment of debts," and by the act entitled "An act to regulate sales of real estate made under a public statute or the directions of a court;" for all which services, the said judge, sheriff and clerk shall be allowed the same fees as are by law allowed for the like services in other cases.

42. 43. That if the sheriff shall not execute the said warrant of distress agreeably to this act, or shall not pay the money therein directed to be made, within ninety days after receiving such warrant, he shall, for every offense, forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, to be recovered, with costs, by action of debt, by the treasurer or the county or township collector, as

Payment of tax to the collector before the time designated for the meeting of commissioners of appeal does not take from the commissioners, when they meet, the right to consider a complaint of undervaluation by the assessor and the power to add to the assessor's valuation. 7b. Such payment is made subject to the provisions of the statute giving the right to make complaint and appeal on the ground of undervaluation. 7b. 58. Sec. 1. That all associations or corporations whose business is that of assurance on lives, shall be assessed and taxed for the full amount of their property and valuable assets after deducting the amount of their debts and liabilities, and that to ascertain the said amounts, a statement of the assets and debts and liabilities as they existed in the month of January preceding such statement, shall be annually made to the assessor in the township or city where the company is located, upon the oath of the president, secretary or treasurer of said association or corporation, and no other tax or assessment shall be imposed on any such association or corporation; provided, that in stating the liabilities on policies, the basis of such statement shall be the then present value of such policies at the time of such statement, and not the gross amount insured thereby; and provided, that the amount of tax to be assessed against the Mutual Benefit life insurance company, which accepted the provisions of the above-recited supplement, shall not be less than five thousand dollars in any one year, nor less than the assessment on the value at the rate other property is taxed in the city of Newark, of the full amount of the mortgages held by the said company at the time of the assessment, on taxable property in said city, without any deduction therefrom; and provided also, that the said company shall not be subjected to the foregoing provisions of this act until by an instrument duly executed under its corporate seal, filed in the office of the secretary of state of this state, it shall have signified its assent to this act.

59. Sec. 2. That the above-recited supplement, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved April 11, 1866.

61. Sec. 1. That a poll tax not exceeding one dollar shall be assessed upon every male inhabitant of this state, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, except the polls of all volunteers and sailors who have served in the armies or navies of the United States, and been honorably discharged therefrom, and of all paupers, idiots and insane persons; provided, that nothing in this act shall in anywise interfere with the poll tax required to be raised by any special law in payment of bounties. (a) [See Secs. 102 and 520, post.]

62. Sec. 2. That all real and personal estate within this state, whether owned by individuals or by corporations, be liable to taxation at the full and actual value thereof, on the day in each year when by law the assessment is to commence, at such rate per dollar as will be sufficient to produce the sum required to be raised, together with an addition thereto, not exceeding ten per centum of such sum to meet contingencies, after deducting the poll tax and the tax derived from foreign insurance companies. (b)

63. Sec. 3. That the term real estate, as used in this act, shall be construed to include all lands, all water power thereon or appurtenant thereto, and all buildings or erections thereon or affixed to the same, trees and underwood growing thereon, and all mines, quarries, peat and marl beds, and all fisheries. (c) [See Sec. 818, post.]

64. Sec. 4. That the term personal estate, as used in this act, shall be construed to include goods and chattels of every description, including steamboats and other vessels, money, debts due or owing from solvent debtors, whether on contract, note, bond, mortgage or book account, public stocks and stocks in corporations, whether said personal estate be within or without this state. (d)

65. Sec. 5. [Amended by Sec. 200, post.]

(a) No poll tax can be levied upon a person temporarily resident in the state. The statute directs it to be levied upon "inhabitants," which implies more than mere residence; it requires the domicile to be within the state. State v. Ross, 2 Siz. 517. The seventy-second section of the general laws of 1889, which contains the provisions under which the organization of the National Guard of New Jersey, approved March 8th, 1899, does not exempt a member of the guard from the special poll tax imposed in the county of Essex, under the law of 1864, for the payment of war bonds. State v. Adams, 20 Siz. 527. If a poll tax is exempted, such person from the payment of a poll tax under the general law. Zb. Such an interpretation of a special law for the collection of a special poll tax, should not be adopted, as will interfere with the interpretation of a general law when there is no clear language to justify it. State, Pierson v. Dough tantal, 4 Siz. 383.

(b) The mere franchise of corporations is not taxable under this section of the act. Pocono Water Co. v. Anderson, 27 Siz. 471. The Washington Building and Loan Association was taxed in 1878, on the return of the secretary, for assets, in the shape of notes, bonds and mortgages, to the amount of $120,700. Ibid., that under the act requiring the property of such corporations to be assessed as the estate of an individual, the amount of loans to stockholders which notes, bonds and mortgages represent are assets, and assessed as property of the corporation. State, Washington B. & L. Assn. v. Hunsberger, 12 Siz. 618. (c) Real estate must be assessed in the name of some person or partnership or corporation, as the case may be, or in the name of the "inhabitants," and "inhabitants" applies to that which has a visible occupant or possessor. State v. Menke, 1 Siz. 484, 487. State, Cross v. Richardson, 2 Siz. 254, 255. That part of the land taxed lies below high water, or even below low-water mark, does not, of itself, vitiate an assessment, for although such land was originally in the state, yet it may have been granted by the state, and is exempt from taxation. State v. Collector, 4 Siz. 108. Whether lands of the state conveyed by and for a term of years, or for any other term of years, or for any other consideration, are taxable or not, depends not on the qualities of the estate so granted, but on the legislative intention expressed in such act. State, Morris Canal Co. v. Heights, 7 Siz. 471, affirming 6 Siz. 178. Where a license is given to owners of land lying on a navigable stream to fish out of high water mark, so far as the grant extends, the lease is respected in the grantee, and is liable to taxation, State v. Supplee, 1 Dutsch, 353. Where a person owns land above and below high-water mark, and an assessment is made upon the whole for an amount not greater than the value of the land above such mark, it may be sustained; but if a separate assessment is made on the land below high-water mark, it shall be set aside. State, Columbia City v. Hull, 5 Dutsch, 555. State, Morris Canal Co. v. Heights, 8 Siz. 178, 7 Siz. 471. If a bridge is assessed to the state the assessment is good, and it makes no difference whether the interest is irrevocably or conditionally vested in the state; all toll bridges are liable to taxation, unless specially exempted. Bridge Proprietors v. State, 1 Siz. 364, 2 Siz. 266. Under the tax laws in force in 1869, it was erroneous to assess and value as real estate, property directed to be assessed as certain, as schools, public fountains, et cetera. State v. Franklin, 4 Siz. 376. Under the act of 1867, the same tax was assessed upon a farm of thirty-five acres, which was taxed in the county of Essex, under the law of 1864, for the payment of a special poll tax, which was assessed on the person. State v. Collector, 4 Siz. 250. No error in form of assessing lots by blocks, where no fraud or prejudice is shown. State, Franklin v. Taylor, 6 Siz. 184. Even when such lots are of different values, State v. Collector, 4 Siz. 108. Where a farm lying within the city limits is taxed as real estate within the city limits, no error to assess in lots instead of by the acre. State, Franklin v. Taylor, 6 Siz. 184. Nor are lands assessed out of the city assessed by the owner, within the statute (P. L. 1876, p. 245) directing certain lands within incorporated cities to be assessed by the acre. State, Olmstead v. Vanhorn, 10 Siz. 444. The act of 1890, taxing property, is not superseded with respect to the taxation of corporations by the act of April 14th, 1884, imposing a franchise tax. Such tax applies to domestic as well as domestic corporations. Pipe Line Co. v. Berry, 24 Siz. 312. A foreign corporation owning a pipe line for carrying petroleum, which falls under ground near a grant of the land, is taxable for the "pipe line" as real estate in the township where it is located, under the definition of real estate contained in this section, although the owner of the lease has reserved the use of the surface for cultivation, etc. (c)

(d) A resident of this state might be assessed for all his personal property in the township where he resides on the day prescribed by law for commencing the assessment, and another township for any part of his personal property, although it may be actually located in that township, such assessment will, so far as it extends, be set aside. State, Evenson v. Calsel, 6 Siz. 45. Under the act of November 2nd, 1849, to tax bank stock, although the capital of the bank may have been diminished by losses, yet the tax must be paid on the whole amount of the capital stock subscribed and paid in. Neither the treasurer, nor the supreme court could look into the losses of the bank, and make proportional allowances upon the tax to be paid. Gordon v. New Brunswick Bank, 1 Hol. 100. But where the legislature reduces the shares of the stock two-thirds, it is in effect declaring that the capital is reduced two-thirds, and the bank shall only pay tax on the remaining three-fifths. Id. The stock of incorporated banks, although the bank pays a tax on its capital, may be taxed on its stock held as stocks in the hands of stockholders, if authorized by the legislature, although it is a second tax upon the same property. State v. Prout, 1 Dutsch, 449. Stocks in foreign corporations, held by individuals resident in this state, are personal estate within this state, and subject to taxation. Atlantic City Bank v. Assessor, 1 Siz. 13. State, Bentley, 3 Siz. 292, 3 Siz. 288. State v. Duvall, 5 Siz. 548. State v. Delaware, 6 Dutsch, 102. All toll bridges are liable to taxation, unless specially exempted. Bridge Proprietors v. State, 1 Siz. 364, 2 Siz. 266. Under the tax laws.
TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

66. Sec. 6. That the poll tax and the tax on personal property shall be assessed upon each inhabitant liable to a personal tax in the township or ward where he resides, on the day prescribed by law for commencing the assessment in each year: (a) all lands shall be assessed in the township or ward in which they are situate, and every person shall be assessed in the township or ward where he resides for all lands then owned or possessed by him within said township or ward, either occupied or unoccupied; (b) and when the line between two townships or wards divides a farm or a lot owned or possessed by the person taxed, the same shall be taxed, if occupied, in the township or ward in which the occupant resides; and if unoccupied, the owner thereof shall be assessed in the township or ward in which the same may be, and this whether such division line be a township, ward or county line. [See Sec. 818, post.]

67. Sec. 7. That every person shall be assessed in the township or ward where he resides, for all personal estate in his possession or under his control, as trustee, guardian, executor or administrator; (d) and in case the property held in a representative capacity, when assessed.

owner or owners of personal estate shall be non-resident of this state, then and in that case the said personal estate shall be taxed in the township or ward where the same may situate; (a) that the personal estate of every incorporated company liable to taxation, shall be assessed in the township or ward where the principal office shall be, or if such company have no principal office or place of transacting its financial concerns, then in the township or ward where the operations of such company are carried on, (b) and where the tolls of any bridge, turnpike, railroad or canal company are collected in the several townships or wards, the personal estate of such company shall be assessed in the township or ward in which the treasurer, or other officer authorized to discharge the general pecuniary obligations of said company, resides; and the real estate of incorporated companies, liable to taxation, shall be assessed in the township or ward in which the same shall lie, in the same manner as the real estate of individuals.

68. Sec. 8. That the assessor of every township or ward shall, between the days prescribed by law, annually ascertain by diligent inquiry, and by the oath or affirmation of the persons to be assessed, and, if necessary, of other persons, according to the best of his ability, and according to his own judgment after examination and inquiry, the names of all the persons taxable in their respective townships or wards, and the actual value of all the property, real and personal, taxable therein; and in case any inhabitant of the township or ward shall refuse to swear or affirm and answer in regard to all the particulars of his property when required by such assessor, or in case such inhabitant cannot be found by the assessor after a diligent effort, it shall be the duty of said assessor to estimate his property at the highest value he has reason to suppose it may be placed; and in case the personal assessment shall appeal to the commissioners of appeal, they shall not recall the said estimate, if it shall appear that the person appealing had refused to be sworn or affirmed, and to answer all proper questions respecting the particulars of his estate and of his debts, or had absent himself for the purpose of evading the assessor; nor unless he shall satisfactorily prove by his own oath or affirmation, or otherwise, what was the true value of all his taxable property; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the said commissioners of appeal from increasing the valuation made by the assessor, if it shall satisfactorily appear the same ought to be increased. (c)
69. Sec. 9. That it shall be the duty of the secretary of state, before the time prescribed by law for commencing the assessments, in each year, to prepare a schedule of the leading classes of taxable property, both real and personal, and the deductions allowed by law, to be printed, with blank form of affidavit attached, and distributed to the several counties for the use of assessors in making their assessments.

70. Sec. 10. That the assessor shall so make out his duplicate as to show in separate and distinct columns the number of all persons assessed; the number of acres and lots of land and appurtenances assessed to each person; the value of such land, the personal estate assessed to each one, including the amount of mortgages held and the amount of debts due and owing to each from solid debtors in addition to debts secured by mortgage, the amount deducted from the said value for debts due and owing, the net value assessed to each person, the rate per dollar assessed, and the several sums assessed on each for state, county, city, township, poor, school, road, poll, dog and other taxes; and the said assessor shall also add to his duplicate, by way of appendix or otherwise, in all cases where real estate is taxed to any person from whom he has reason to suppose it may be difficult to collect the tax by warrant against his goods, chattels and person, a designation of the said real estate by such short description as will be sufficient to ascertain the location and extent thereof, to the end that said tax may be collected in the manner prescribed by the act entitled "An act to make taxes a lien on real estate, and to authorize sales for the payment of the same," approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

71. Sec. 11. That where a person is assessed as trustee, guardian, executor or administrator, he shall be assessed as such, with the addition to his name or representative character, and such assessment shall be carried out on a separate line from his individual assessment; and in cases where the same property is held by several trustees, guardians or executors, only one of them shall be taxed for the same; and such property shall be assessed at its full and fair value at the time of the assessment, as part of the structure, without reference to the extent of travel upon it or the profits derived therefrom. In this estimate may also be considered the value of the land occupied by the improvements, its location and other relative circumstances which affect its value; but in no case should the extent of profit in its use, under the franchises of the company, be taken into account. To the charter of the city of Trenton, it was necessary to reserve to the value as well as the rents. State v. Tilton, 53 N.J.L. 444, 447. The objection that the valuation was based upon the rents of the property assessed, is one of form, and must be regarded as to be set aside. State, Exeter v. Wendell, 77 N.J.L. 77, 79. If an increased valuation had been made by the board of assessors, it cannot be set aside because the assessor before his election issued a printed and addressed statement to the voters of the township, telling himself to increase the old valuation. State v. Quince, 3 N.J.L. 39, 40. It is no ground of complaint by a plaintiff in error, that the third person was raised too high. McPherson v. Brick, 6 H. & E. 217. The second section of the statute of 1860, authorizing the assessor to estimate and thereby the assessment of a taxpayer who refuses to make return, is repealed by the act of 1864.

Note to United, 3 Dod. 438. Assessments of townships are required to take an official oath that they will truly, faithfully, honestly and impartially value and assess the taxable estate in their townships, and that in making such assessments they will, to the best of their knowledge and judgment, observe the directions of the law respecting the same, and make a true return, etc. The fourteenth section of the act of 1861 requires all assessors to assess and value property at its full and fair value, and at such prices as in their judgment said property would sell for at a fair and bona fide sale by private contract; and that every assessor shall annex to his duplicate an oath or affirmation, in writing, that all assessments in his duplicate have been made according to the requirements of that section. State, Easton Bridge Co. v. Metz, 32 N.J.L. 279. In this case, the assessor of P., having taken the proper oath of office and made his assessment, annexed to the duplicate returned by him an affidavit that the estimate was made in the assessment, according to the best of his knowledge and belief. Held, sufficient. Dubois v. Dunton, 110 Conn. 383. The assessor does not act under the statute of 1861, and his value, even if the highest valuation he has reason to believe is right. Buenger v. Williams, 4 Wood, 327. The right of an assessor under this section to estimate the property of another property, wherever, after diligent search, he fails to find, does not permit him to be assessed against property that he could not, in accordance with the statute, be assessed at. State, Belchertown State School v. Belchertown, 54 Mass. 429. The act does not require that the assessor within the bounds of his knowledge and belief, shall be bound to assess at the value of the taxable estate, without the right to make a mistake.

That the assessment of real estate is in the discretion of the assessor, State v. Page, 3 Co. Litt. 34. That if the assessment of real estate depends upon the value of the premises at the time of the assessment, it is not competent for the assessor to change the assessment at the time of the sale of such property, State v. Shriver, 5 N.J.L. 429. If the assessment of real estate is made by the assessor, when the same is changed by the legislature, State v. Sprague, 6 N.J.L. 229. That the statute is a general law, and that the assessor cannot delegate his power to the appraiser, McPherson v. Hackett, 5 N.J.L. 229. That if the assessor gives a statement or affidavit, he is not liable for any amounts assessed to others, State v. Shriver, 5 N.J.L. 429. That if the assessment is false, the person assessed may recover, but cannot recover against the assessor, State v. Bancroft, 11 Co. Litt. 344. That the act of July 19th, 1862, to prevent fraud in assessments, and provide for the determination of the value of real estate at the time of sale, has no reference to any other tax, and is not applicable to any other assessment, State v. Shriver, 6 N.J.L. 229. That when the assessment is made, State v. Shriver, 5 N.J.L. 429.
in the hands of such one of said executors, or guardians or trustees as have the actual possession or control of such property, or the bonds, mortgages or other securities by which the same is held.\(a\)

72. SEC. 12. That when any money shall be directed to be assessed for state or county purposes, it shall be the duty of the assessors of the several townships and wards in the county to meet at the time prescribed by law in every year at the place of holding the court of common pleas in such county, and each of the said assessors shall produce his duplicate of the value of real and personal estate to be by him assessed, with the amount of each column and the total of all the columns correctly added together, and shall also produce an affidavit by him subscribed and taken upon his oath or affirmation before some person authorized to administer oaths, of the following or like tenor and effect, viz.: "I, , assessor of ,
do hereby swear (or solemnly affirm), that I have diligently inquired, respecting the nature and value of the real and personal estate liable to taxation, in the township (or ward) whereof I am assessor, and have to the best of my ability, and without favor or partiality, valued all the said property liable to taxation in said township (or ward) at its full and fair value, at such price as in my judgment said property would sell for at a fair and bona fide sale by private contract on the day prescribed by law for commencing the assessment, and have deducted from such value only such balance of debts as is prescribed by law;" and if any assessor shall be unable to attend such meeting, it shall be his duty to send his duplicate with the affidavit aforesaid, and in case any assessor neglecting to attend, or to produce or send his duplicate and affidavit aforesaid, the majority of the assessors convened shall estimate the value of the property liable to assessment in the township or ward of the absent assessor, according to the best of their information and belief. (b) [See Sec. 3, ante.]

73. SEC. 13. [Amended by Sec. 140, post.]

74. SEC. 14. That if any assessor shall wilfully or through gross negligence omit to make a full and fair valuation of all the real and personal estate taxable in his township or ward, as required by this act, within the time prescribed by law, or to make the affidavit prescribed by the twelfth section of this act, or to deliver to the collector a just and true duplicate as herein required, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars for each offense; and if any assessor shall neglect to attend at the time and place prescribed by law for the meeting of the assessors of any county, or shall neglect to produce or send his duplicate and affidavit as required by this act, then it shall be the duty of the said assessors to inquire and ascertain whether the said assessor was unavoidably prevented from attending and producing, or from sending his said duplicate and affidavit, and unless a majority of those met shall, by a writing by them signed, excuse the said neglect, the assessor so neglecting shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense; and it shall be the duty of the board of assessors to state in writing to the executor of the pleas of the state the name of every assessor guilty of either of the aforesaid neglects, with the names of the witnesses to prove the same, to be by him presented to the grand jury of the county.

75. SEC. 15. That all private corporations of this state, except banking institutions, and except those which by virtue of any contract in their charters or other contracts with this state are expressly exempted from taxation, and except mutual life insurance companies specially taxed, shall be and are hereby required to be respectively assessed and taxed at the Assessments of taxes will not be set aside for irregularities or objections in form which do not affect the substantial rights of parties. \(b\) Id. \(c\) Id. \(d\) Id.

full amount of their capital stock paid in, and accumulated surplus; but any real estate which such corporations may lawfully own in any other state than this state, shall not be liable to be estimated in such accumulated surplus, and the persons holding the capital stock of such corporations shall not be assessed therefor; and such corporations as have no capital stock other than those above excepted, shall be assessed for the full amount of their property and valuable assets, without any deduction for debts and liabilities; but depositors in savings banks, taxed by virtue of this section, shall be exempted from taxation on their personal estate to the amount of their deposits; provided, that premium notes held by life insurance companies shall in no case be considered as future premiums, but shall be included in the valuable assets of said company. (a)

76. Sec. 16. [Repealed by act of April 1st, 1889, Sec. 101, post.]

77. Sec. 17. That it shall be the duty of the president, secretary, cashier and treasurer, of every corporation and bank, the stock or property of which is liable to taxation, when applied to by the assessor entitled to assess the same, to give to the said assessor a true statement, under oath or affirmation, of the name of the several stockholders who owned the stock of a bank on the day prescribed by law for commencing the assessment, and of the amount of capital stock and accumulated surplus, and of all other property and assets of such bank and corporation, and the said assessor is hereby authorized to administer such oath or affirmation, and to take such other means as may be in his power to ascertain the true amount for which the stockholders or the corporation shall be taxed.

78. Sec. 18. That the assessors and commissioners of appeal, who shall examine any person respecting the taxable property of such persons, or of others, shall administer an oath or affirmation of the following or like tenor and effect, viz.: "I, , do swear (or solemnly affirm) that I will true answer make to all such questions as shall be put to me touching the taxable property of myself (or of A. B.), and therein I will speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; and if any person who shall be required to swear or affirm, or testify respecting his or her taxable property, or the property of any person or corporation, shall, when requested by any assessor or commissioner of appeal, refuse to be sworn or affirmed and examined, he or she shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars; and it shall be the duty of the assessor to furnish to the prosecutor of the pleas of the county the name of any person refusing to be sworn or affirmed, and the names of the witnesses, that the same may be laid before the grand jury of the county; and any assessor who shall refuse to take evidence when offered respecting the amount or ownership of taxable property of any person or corporation, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, but the oath or affirmation of no person shall be conclusive as to the amount or ownership of taxable property, but the assessors and commissioners of appeal shall adjudge the same as may appear to them correct.

79. Sec. 19. That all corporations regularly doing business in this state, and not being corporations of this state, shall be assessed and taxed for and in respect of the business so done by them and transacted in this state and every agent of any fire, life, health or marine insurance company not incorporated by the laws of this state and doing business in this state, shall file with the secretary of this state, on or before the first day of February in each year, the certificate now required by law respecting the business and condition of the company of which he is such agent, and shall pay at the time of such filing, to such secretary of state, the sum of five dollars fees therefor; and shall also be required, within ten days thereafter, to take from such secretary of state a license to act as such agent, and transact the business of said company during the ensuing year,

(a) Corporations of this state engaged in the business of insuring property against fire are taxable under the provisions of this section. Such a table of a property tax and a fire insurance tax. Michigan Ins. Co. v. Newfield, 28 P. 121. The tax is to be imposed upon the amount of paid-in capital stock and accumulated surplus, after deducting therefrom the value of real estate as prescribed, and also the value of property in which the stock and surplus are invested with a franchise tax. See Society, etc. v. New Humane Soc., 28 P. 69. See title CORPORATIONS, ante, page 899, Sec. 115, note (a).
and shall pay for such license the sum or twenty dollars; and such license fees so paid shall be in lieu of all other taxes to be assessed in this state on such agents for the business of said companies; provided, however, that the last foregoing provisions shall apply only to the agents of companies of those states whose laws do not impose a greater tax or assessment than the foregoing upon the agents of companies of this state, and doing business in those states, that the agents of companies of those states imposing larger taxes or assessments than the foregoing upon the agents of companies of this state shall pay, in the manner and at the time now provided by law, a tax of two per centum per annum on the whole amount of premiums taken or received by such agent during the year preceding the payment of said tax; and all other corporations not incorporated by this state, and agents doing business in this state as aforesaid, shall be assessed for the amount of capital usually employed in this state in the doing of such business not otherwise taxed by virtue hereof; and such assessment shall be made in the township or ward where such business is most usually carried on and transacted. (a)

80, Sec. 20. That after making the valuation of the real and personal estate for which any individual shall be assessed, it shall be lawful for the assessor or for the commissioners of appeal in cases of taxation, to deduct from such valuation any debt or debts bona fide due and owing from such individual to creditors residing within this state; provided, that no deduction shall be made from the full and fair value of the real or personal estate of any individual, unless such individual shall make and sign a true statement in writing, under oath or affirmation, that the same is just and true, of the several debts owing by such individual, which he desires to have deducted, to whom owing and where the creditor resides, and also a statement of the total amount of real estate and of personal property of such individual, including mortgages held and other debts due and owing to such individual from solvent debtors, and shall deliver the same to the said assessor on or before the time limited by law for closing the assessment; provided, that if it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the commissioners of appeal that the individual assessed was prevented by sickness or other unavoidable accident from delivering such statement to the assessor as aforesaid, the said commissioners may permit the said individual or any person in his behalf, having knowledge of the facts, to deliver such statement to them sworn or affirmed to be just and true as aforesaid, and may therefore deduct the balance of such debts in like manner as the assessor might have done in case the said statement had been duly delivered to him; and in case any assessor or commissioner of appeal shall make any such deduction, without having first delivered to him as aforesaid such statement under oath or affirmation, the said assessor and commissioner of appeal shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars; and all written statements and oaths and affirmations authorized and required by this act, shall be forthwith delivered to the clerk of the township wherein the assessor or person making the same resides, to be by him filed and preserved. (b) [See Secs. 113, 120, 121 and 198, post.]

(a) See Pipe Line Co. v. Berry, 23 Vt. 308; S. C., 24 Vt. 212, and note, Sec. 62, note.

(b) On an appeal to commissioners by several parties, they are to deal with each case separately and in the particular tax assessed from it resulted as being illegal, the commissioners have no authority to remit it as to others who have not appealed. State, Nott v. Peru, 6 Vt. 340. The deduction of debts in cases of taxation must be claimed and made in the first instance, at the place of the residence of the taxpayer. State, Morin v. Cristeley, 7 Vt. 212. State, Rose v. Nos, 2 Vt. 527, 528, 529. State, Perkins v. Bishop, 5 Vt. 61. It seems that if the amount of debts exceeds the estate taxable where the taxpayer resides, he might, under V. L. 1854, p. 272, deduct the remainder from the valuation of his real estate in another county: State, Cristeley, June, 1857, 4 Vt. 43. A taxpayer residing in any township is entitled to have a debt deducted by mortgage upon lands situate in another township, deducted from his taxable property in the township in which he resides: State, Perkins v. Bishop, 6 Vt. 550. There is no provision by which a non-resident mortgage or personal estate in the state, may be allowed a deduction, for debts due and owing by him to creditors residing within the state: State, Tutem v. McCauley, 5 Vt. 63, 6 Vt. 164. By the express provisions of the act of 1854, the landholder is not entitled to any deduction from the amount of tax assessed upon his lands for any debts due and owing by him to creditors not residing in this state. At the time of the payment of the tax for which the deduction is claimed, this debt was due and owing to persons not inhabitants of this state: Robinson v. Davis, 1 McCh., 298. Dolman v. Cook, 1 McCh., 66. The deduction for debts cannot be allowed to any individual assessed, whether a resident or not, without a statement in writing, &c., embracing the particulars enumerated in the first paragraph of that section. State, Tutem v. McCauley, 5 Vt. 63, 6 Vt. 241. State, McFarland v. Parker, 3 Vt. 71. State, Moore v. Parker, 3 Vt. 241. State, Perkins v. Bishop, 5 Vt. 45. (a) After a tax warrant has been issued and the officer neglects to return it, alias and pluries warrants may be issued, but not after the expiration of the term of the officer whose duty it was to make return. [See Sec. 490, post.]

108. Sec. 2. Sec. 1. [Amended by Sec. 198, post.]

Sec. 2. That hereafter such mortgages or debts secured thereby as shall be subject to taxation, shall be assessed for taxation by the assessor making the deduction on account thereof, and the tax thereon shall be collected by the collector of taxes in and for the township or city wherein the lands in the mortgage described are situate.

Sec. 3. Sec. 4. That such justice of the peace shall, within five days after the receipt of such list as aforesaid, make out and deliver to the constable or constables of his county a warrant or warrants requiring him or them to levy the tax so in arrear, with costs, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the delinquents, giving at least four days' notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement set up in three of the most public places in the place where such delinquent resides; and said warrant shall further direct that if goods and chattels of the delinquent cannot be found, or not sufficient to make the money required, the constable shall take his or her body if to be found in the county, and deliver the same to the sheriff of such county or his jailer, to be kept in close and safe custody until payment be made of the said tax with cost.

Sec. 1. That the twenty-ninth section of an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act concerning taxes,' approved April fourteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six," approved April eleventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, which reads as follows [see P. and delivered to the collector of the township, borough, town, city, district or ward; and the said collector shall, in the execution of said warrant, have the same powers and perform the same duties, be subject to the same forfeitures and receive the same compensation as is prescribed to the constables by the provisions of the aforementioned act; provided, that this section shall not apply to any city, borough, township, town or district having special provisions inconsistent herewith; and provided further, that the said delinquent tax warrant may be delivered to any constable of said township, borough, town, city, district or ward by request of said collector; and the said constable shall be subject to the same forfeitures and receive the same compensation as is prescribed to constables by the provisions of the aforementioned act.\(^{(a)}\)

Supplement.

Approved March 30, 1878.

118. Sec. 1. That in making the valuation and assessment of personal estate within this state for state, county, township and municipal taxes, no deduction of the amount of any personal indebtedness shall be made therefrom, unless the individual claiming such deduction shall sign a statement in writing, under oath or affirmation, of the truth and justice thereof, and of the several debts owing by such individual which he desires to have deducted, to whom owing and where the creditor resides, and also of the total amount of personal property of such individual, including debts due and owing to such individual from solvent debtors; and also that no part of such indebtedness was created for the purpose of reducing the taxes of such individual; and that the stated actual value of the personal property of such individual includes not only that to which such individual holds title or possession, but also that to which any other person or persons hold the title or possession for such individual, whether the same be held in trust or not.\(^{(b)}\)

119. Sec. 2. That any person guilty of willful and corrupt false swearing or affirming in taking any oath or affirmation required by this act shall be guilty of perjury and punishable accordingly.

Supplement.

Approved March 14, 1879.

120. Sec. 1. That all debts due to the state of New Jersey and secured by mortgages to the school fund and sinking fund shall be deducted from the taxable property of the debtor claiming such deduction; provided, that this act shall not apply to any county or counties in this state where, by virtue of any public or private acts, the mortgagor or mortgagees are not permitted to deduct from their taxable property the amount due on such mortgage or mortgages.\(^{(c)}\)

(a) The effect of this section was simply to dispense with the constable in the collection of delinquent taxes, and to put in his place the township collector Medora v. New Providence, 6 P. 22, 331. A tax warrant issued and delivered to the collector before a R. A. is delivered to the sheriff, but not levied upon until after the levy under the A. A. has been levied. Where a declaration of sale of land for taxes is void, because the sale was made by a collector of taxes, under a warrant issued by the township committee, to any constable of the county, there being no covenant or warranty of title, the purchaser who pays the consideration price voluntarily with knowledge of the facts, cannot recover back the purchase-money of the collector after the same has been paid over to the township for a tax legally assessed. Hooker v. Dotz, 15 P. 341. Under a warrant for the sale of goods and chattels issued for the collection of unpaid taxes, the collector cannot advertise the sale of lands of delinquent taxpayers. Any interference with lands by virtue of his continuing is unwarranted, and may be disregarded. The advertising of lands under such warrant will not, however, render the warrant void or illegal, Estell v. Hawkins, 21 P. 332. The particularity of description sufficient to identify lands or to ascertain the location or extent thereof is not essential to the validity of a tax on lands. It is required in the duplicate warrant to sell and notice of sale only when the lien upon lands for taxes given by the statute is intended to be enforced by sale. 18 P. 228. A taxpayer and resident in the city of Trenton, owning real and personal estate in said city, is entitled to have done bona fide deed and owing by him to creditors residing in this state deducted from the taxable valuation of his real and personal estate, notwithstanding the Trenton charter provides that no deduction for indebtedness shall be made from the valuation of real estate, that provision being unconstitutional. Hostet v. Richardson, 18 P. 486.

(c) A debtor who desires to claim a deduction from his tax, on the ground that the state holds a mortgage on his land, must make such claim to the assessor under oath. O'Connor v. Hume, 27 P. 347. The proviso in the above act is inoperative by reason of the fact that the constitutional amendment requiring property to be assessed for taxes under general laws and by uniform rules has abrogated all laws of the character mentioned in the proviso. Murphy v. Trenton, 18 P. 66.

Supplement.  Approved February 26, 1881.

121. Sec. 1. That all debts due to the boards of chosen freeholders of the respective counties of this state, for moneys heretofore loaned or hereafter to be loaned by them from the surplus revenue of the general government, heretofore apportioned among said counties, and secured by mortgages to the said respective boards of chosen freeholders, shall be deducted from the taxable property of the debtor claiming such deduction.

Supplement.  Approved March 3, 1881.

122. Sec. 1. That hereafter in all incorporated cities in this state for every alias and pluries warrant issued for the collection of taxes, the fee allowed to the justice of the peace who shall issue the same shall be five mills for every delinquent's name therein contained, where the number shall exceed two hundred.

123. Sec. 2. That all acts and parts of acts, general, local and special, inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Supplement.  Approved March 13, 1881.

124. Sec. 1. That in all cases where a tax warrant has been or shall hereafter be issued for the collection of taxes in any incorporated town of the state, and the officer receiving the same has neglected or failed to execute or return the same, or to collect any part of the taxes thereby directed to be collected within the time now limited by law, the justice of the peace who issued the said warrant, or in case of his death or disability, or the expiration of his term of office, then any other justice of the peace of the said county, shall, at the request of the common council of the said town, issue alias or pluries warrants for the collection of such taxes as shall remain uncollected under the previous warrant, which said alias or pluries warrants shall be good and effective for that purpose, and shall be executed and returned within sixty days from the date of issuing the same in the manner provided for the return of original warrants in said incorporated towns, and shall be directed and delivered to the collector of said town, or to such person as the said common council may appoint for that purpose; provided, that in case of the appointment of any person other than the collector he shall be required, before receiving the said warrant, to give a bond with such security as the common council may direct and approve of; and the said collector or other person so appointed shall in the execution of the said alias or pluries warrants, have the same powers and perform the same duties, and be subject to the same liabilities and forfeitures, and receive the same compensation as is now provided in relation to the collectors of the several incorporated towns, in the execution of warrants for the collection of taxes. Supplement to an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act concerning taxes,'" approved April fourteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and which said supplement was approved April eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

140. Sec. 1. That section thirteen of said act to which this is a further supplement [see Sec. 73, ante] be amended so as to read as follows:

That the board of assessors, when met as aforesaid, shall compute and ascertain the whole value of real and personal estate after the deduction of debts, to be taxed according to the value thereof, contained in the duplicates of the several assessors or estimated as aforesaid, and shall fix and adjust the proportion or quota of tax to be levied and collected in each township or ward in proportion to said value; provided, that if it shall appear to the assessors, so met as aforesaid, from a careful, particular and thorough comparison of the said respective duplicates, that the value of the property contained in any duplicate is relatively less than the value of other property in the county, they may, for the purpose of fixing and adjusting the said proportion or quota, and for that purpose only, add thereto such percentage as shall appear to them just and proper, and warranted by said comparison, but not otherwise; and it shall be the duty of such assessors, at such meeting, to make out two abstracts of the net value of the taxable real and personal property, designating the amount of real estate and personal property in each township and ward, which shall be signed by every assessor present, and shall within three days, be delivered to the county collector, who shall forthwith file one of them and transmit the other to the comptroller of the state, for the use of the legislature; and each of the said assessors shall, within fourteen days after said meeting, deliver to the collector whose duty it is to collect the taxes by him assessed, a true transcript or duplicate of the assessment of taxes for the said township (or ward), completed as herein directed, and by him certified under his hand to be a true duplicate of the taxes assessed; and provided also, that if a majority of the assessors of the county shall fail to meet on the day prescribed by law, those met shall adjourn from day to day, at the same place, until a majority shall attend.[(a)]

Supplement.

141. Sec. 1. That if in any city, ward or township of this state there exists a vacancy in the office of assessor of such city, ward or township, or a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of any board whose duty it is to assess and levy the state, school and county taxes within such city, ward or township, at the time fixed by law for the meeting of the assessors of the county, it shall and may be lawful for the majority of the assessors of the county wherein such city, ward or township is situated, attending such meeting, after they have ascertained the proportion of the tax to be assessed and levied on the city, ward or township of the non-attending assessor in the manner prescribed by section nine of the act to which this is a supplement, forthwith to appoint a committee of not less than three of the attending members of their body, who thereupon are authorized

(a) When the board of assessors meet, the township to whose use of tax an addition is proposed to be made, cannot offer evidence to rebut any alleged inequality. The assessors must determine, upon their own knowledge, the existence of any inequality. State, Weilman's v. Rex, 7 P. 86. Before they can interfere at all with any duplicate, they must decide that the valuation contained in it is relatively less than the value of other property in the county, and then correct it as themselves shall seem just and proper. 79. The duplicates of the several assessors are presumed to contain correct valuations of all taxable property in each township or ward. The board of assessors is not warranted in reducing the valuations of any duplicate; nor has it power to increase the values of any duplicate, unless upon a careful, particular and thorough comparison of the several duplicates, and by increasing the valuation by such a percentage as shall appear to be just and proper and warranted by such comparison. See Interstate City v. Cape May, 26 P. 50. Aquilasanco and Cailey in objecting to the proportion or quota of tax to be levied and collected, fixed by the board of assessors of the several townships and wards of the county and an increased assessment imposed, will be construed as a waiver of contended for. Town of Newburn v. Assessors of Rensselaer, 24 P. 316. To authorize an increase of the valuation of any township duly returned to the county board of assessors it is necessary for the board—to make a careful, particular and thorough comparison of the respective duplicates. (3) To adjudge that the value of the property contained in any duplicate is relatively less than the value of other property in the county. (4) To thereupon add such percentage as shall appear just, proper and warranted by such comparison, unless upon a careful, particular and thorough comparison of the several duplicates, and by increasing the valuation by such a percentage as shall appear to be just and proper and warranted by such comparison. See Interstate City v. Cape May, 26 P. 434. See East Brunswick v. New Brunswick, 25 P. 149. See P. L. 1881, p. 192 (Gen. St. 116, p. 29).

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By the provisions of their several charters or of the act entitled "An act respecting railroads and canals" [Revision], approved March twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, many railroad and canal corporations were and are required to pay an annual tax of one-half per centum per annum upon the cost of their several railroads and canals, and also in many cases upon the cost of the equipment and appendages of their several roads and canals, which cost was required to be reported under oath by an officer or officers of said several railroads and canals; and whereas, there is good reason to believe that the cost of the said railroads, canals, equipment and appendages has not been fully or correctly stated in the said reports, and that thereby the payment of large amounts of the annual taxes due and payable by such corporations has been evaded; therefore,

207. Sec. 1. That the state board of assessors be and they are hereby authorized and directed to examine and ascertain the correctness or incorrectness of any or all of the reports heretofore made by any or all of the railroad and canal corporations created by this state, or by the vendee, lessee or lessees of any such corporation, and which reports have been made to any officer or officers of this state pursuant to any provision contained in any law passed or any charter granted by the legislature of this state; and that for the purpose of making such examination and ascertaintment effectual the said board may employ such accountants, engineers and experts as they may deem necessary, and such accountants, engineers and experts shall receive such compensation as may be approved by the governor and comptroller of the state. (a)

208. Sec. 2. That the said board and the accountants employed as aforesaid be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to have free access during ordinary business hours to, and to examine all books, reports requisitions, engineers' estimates and other papers of any railroad or canal corporation created by the laws of this state, or by any charter granted by the state, and required by law or its charter to make such reports as aforesaid, or of any vendee, lessee or lessees of such corporation, which contain entries or other information respecting the cost of the construction or maintenance of the railroad or canal, equipment and appendages operated by such corporation, and to make such copies and extracts therefrom as the said board shall deem necessary to determine the correctness of said reports; and each and every such corporation is hereby required to permit such access and examination as aforesaid, upon the written demand of the president of said board for the same, served upon the president, or, in his absence, upon the secretary of such corporation, vendee, lessee or lessees, and in case any such corporation, vendee, lessee or lessees shall neglect or refuse to permit such access and examination for the space of ten days after service of such demand as aforesaid, at the request of said board, the attorney-general shall apply to the court of chancery by petition setting forth such demand and neglect or refusal, and upon proof thereof made before the chancellor, on five days' notice to such corporation, to be served as the chancellor may direct, the said chancellor may in his discretion issue the state's writ of injunction to restrain such corporation, vendee, lessee or lessees, from the exercise of any franchise or the transaction of any business in this state, until such corporation, vendee, lessee or lessees shall have complied with such demand, and shall have paid the costs of such application, in which shall be included a suitable allowance to the attorney-general for his services in such proceeding, to be fixed by the chancellor.

209. Sec. 3. That if, upon such examination and ascertainment as aforesaid, said board shall have reason to believe that in any of the said reports the cost of any railroad or canal or of the equipment and appendages thereof, has been incorrectly stated at a less sum than the true cost thereof, they shall so report to the attorney-general and he shall present a petition in the name of the state of New Jersey, to a justice of the supreme court, setting forth the errors in any report or reports made by any railroad or canal corporation, and praying that the said justice may reform and correct the same; and all errors in all the reports made by any corporation may be embraced in one petition and proceeding; and it shall be the duty of the said justice to hear and decide the said application, upon depositions or upon evidence taken by himself, and he may compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of all books, deeds, reports, contracts, engineers' estimates, and other papers of the railroad or canal corporation making the report or reports in question. therefor, and upon the completion of the proceedings, the petition, proceedings and proofs shall be filed in the office of the state comptroller;
provided, that in ascertaining whether any company is indebted to the state for taxes under the investigation herein provided for, the company shall be allowed for overpayments of taxes in any one or more years (if any such said justice that an execution forthwith issue on said judgment, to be directed to a master in chancery to be named in said order; and such an order may be applied for ex parte, and in all cases the proceedings shall be summary under such execution; the master to whom the same shall be directed shall sell all the franchises of the said corporation, and also so much of the real, personal and mixed property of the corporation as may be sufficient to make the amount due on said judgment and the usual execution fees; such sale shall pass the absolute title to said franchises

233. Scc. 22. That if any company shall be in default under this act in payment of the state tax aforesaid, any person having any interest in a mortgage or other lien on its franchises or property, may pay the state treasurer the amount of such state tax, and the interest due thereon, and receive from said treasurer a certificate of such payment, and such person shall thereupon be entitled to be repaid the amount of said tax and interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum out of the first proceeds of any sale of the franchises or property of said company, and such tax and interest thereon shall continue a lien on the franchise and property of the company for the benefit of the holder of or person interested in such mortgage or lien until paid by said company from the sale of its franchises or property; if any proceedings have been taken by the attorney-general to enforce the payment of said tax and interest thereon, then such holder of or person interested in a mortgage or lien paying such

234. Sec. 23. That if any railroad or canal shall be owned or operated under a franchise by any individual or association not incorporated, the term "company" used in this act shall apply to such owners or operators, and such property shall be assessed and taxed under the provisions of this act in the same manner as if operated by a company, and the persons operating or owning such railroad or canal shall make the returns required by this act to be made by companies.

235. Sec. 24. That the attorney-general shall, with the approval of the governor and comptroller, have power to employ such assistant attorneys or counsel as may be necessary to protect and properly defend the interest of the state, in carrying out the provisions of this act; and such assistants shall be paid such compensation by the state as may be approved by the attorney-general and the comptroller; the state board of assessors shall have power to employ such assistants in making their valuations as may be necessary to complete the same in due time, and such assistants shall be paid such reasonable compensation for their services as the board and the governor shall approve.

236. Sec. 25. That any corporation having, or claiming to have, any contract with the state whereby any of its property is claimed to be exempted from the taxation imposed by this act, may, at its discretion, voluntarily pay to the state from year to year such sums of money as, added to the tax now assessable against such corporation under such alleged contract, will be equal to the tax assessable against such corporation under this act in respect to the property so claimed to be exempted, and such voluntary payment shall not be construed in any proceeding or suit to be a waiver by such corporation of its alleged contract; provided, however, that nothing in this section, or in this act contained, shall be construed or taken as an admission on the part of the state that any corporation is possessed of any contract or especial provisions of the law on the subject of taxation which may not at any time be repealed or modified by the state.

237. Sec. 26. That if any section of this act shall, for any reason, be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, it shall not affect the other provisions of this act or any of them.

238. Sec. 27. That any corporation in this state having the right, by contract, to any different imposition of tax, either state or municipal, that provided for in this act, are hereby authorized to execute and file in the office of the secretary of state an instrument, to be first approved by the attorney-general, waiving the benefit of any such contract, whereupon they shall be bound by the terms of this act, or any amendments hereto, or any further act of the legislature, and upon filing any such instrument the state agrees to surrender its right to take the property of any such corporation under any law now existing; provided, that any such corporation shall execute and file such instrument within six months from the time of the passage of this act.

239. Sec. 28. That in case any property of any railroad or canal company which has been, or shall hereafter be in any year assessed by the local authorities of any taxing district has been or shall be also assessed by the state board of assessors as property used for railroad or canal purposes, the supreme court or any three justices thereof, to be assigned by the chief justice, shall determine, in a summary manner, the character of the property and whether used for railroad or canal purposes, and by which assessors the same has lawfully been assessed, which determination shall be made whether the taxes in question have been paid or not, and whether a certiorari to review either assessment has been granted or not; such determination shall be made under an order to show cause at a time and place to be therein designated, which order shall be granted by the chief justice of the supreme court upon application ex parte by any of the parties interested, namely, by the attorney-general on behalf of the state, or by the owner of the property assessed, or by the authorities of the taxing district; and said order shall be served not less than ten days before the day fixed therein for the hearing, upon the said parties interested not making such application; depositions may be taken, on two days' notice by either party, to be used on such hearing; the justices before whom the matter shall be heard, may, if they see fit, view the property in dispute, to guide them in their decision; the judgment of the court shall direct the cancellation or reduction of either assessment, as the character of the property may require, and shall make such order as to the return to the taxpayer of any tax or any portion thereof, that may have been paid to the state, or to any taxing district not entitled thereto, as such court shall deem just; the payment of costs may be directed in such manner as the court may deem equitable; the said judgment shall be conclusive and final in all collateral proceedings, but may be reviewed on writ of error by the court of errors and appeals.

240. Sec. 29. That if any corporation whose property and franchises have been or shall be valued and assessed under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, by the state board of assessors, shall pay or cause to be paid to the treasurer of the state the tax so assessed upon its property and its franchises at the times and in the manner provided by law, or within fifteen days after the state board of assessors shall have made and declared their final revision of their valuations and assessments, that neither such payment nor the lapse of time in making application for a writ of certiorari shall be considered by any court or judge thereof as a reason why such corporation should not be entitled to such writ of certiorari upon any question adjudicated in favor of any corporation that may refuse to pay the taxes assessed against it, and that shall bring its writ of certiorari to review the valuations and assessments within the time limited by the act to which this is a supplement; provided, application for a writ of certiorari be made within six months after such question has been finally adjudicated, and no other questions shall be considered on said writ.

241. Sec. 30. That this act shall be subject to amendments, alterations or repeal at the will of the legislature; the "Act for the taxation of railroad and canal property," approved April tenth, anno domini eighteen hundred and eighty-four, which is by this act revised and amended, and the supplements thereto approved February fifth and April fifth, (1) anno domini eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and all other acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed, except so far as herein re-enacted, but nothing in this repealer shall affect or impair the lien of any taxes heretofore assessed or any remedies for the collection of the same, or to surrender any remedies, powers, rights or privileges acquired by the state under said act hereby revised, or to relieve any person or corporation from any penalty imposed by said act and supplements, nor shall anything in this act be held to repeal the supplement to the said act hereby revised, which supplement was approved June tenth, anno domini eighteen hundred and eighty-six, nor shall this act affect the tenure of office of the present state board of assessors.

Money collected for tax, how appropriated. [That the money collected under this act for the one-half of one per centum tax shall be applied to the uses of the state, according to law; the amount received for tax upon property separately assessed in the different taxing districts is hereby appropriated, and shall be allotted to the various taxing districts, giving to each district the amount that was derived from the property of each railroad or canal company therein; the comptroller shall forthwith send to the collector of each county a certificate showing the amounts allotted to the taxing districts therein, and shall draw his warrant upon the state treasury, in favor of the several county collectors, for the amounts allotted to their several counties, and the county collector shall forthwith pay to the collector, or other proper officer of each taxing district, the amount allotted thereto, deducting, however, the amount due for county taxes from such taxing district; the amount thus paid to the county and taxing district shall be at the disposal of the proper authorities for public purposes; provided, however, that whenever the local city rate as fixed and assessed in any city exceeds one per centum of the ratables of such city, then in such case the comptroller shall transmit to the collector of taxes of said city a certificate showing the amount allotted to such city, and shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer in favor of the treasurer of such city for said amount; such warrant to be at the disposal of the board of such city having control of its finances, to be used for the municipal purposes of such city, such amount to be first applied to the purchase of such outstanding bonds or obligations of the city as can be bought below the par value thereof, and if no bonds or obligations can be bought below par, then such amount, or the balance, if any, shall be applied to the payment of such part of the city debt and interest falling due thereon as the said board having control of the finances of the city may determine.]

An act to amend chapter one hundred and nine of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, entitled "An act to provide for the imposition of state taxes upon certain corporations and for the collection thereof," approved April eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

256. Sec. 1. [This section amends Sec. 249, ante, which is again amended by Sec. 260, post.]

Supplement.

257. Sec. 1. That the first section [see Sec. 246, ante] of said act be amended so as to read as follows:

[That every telegraph, telephone, cable or electric light company, every express company, not owned by a railroad company and otherwise taxed, every gas company, palace or parlor or sleeping car company, every oil or pipe line company, every life insurance company incorporated under the laws of this state, and every fire, marine, live stock, casualty or accident insurance company, doing business in this state, except mutual fire insur-

(a) Under the act of the legislature imposing taxes upon certain corporations, and providing for the collection thereof, the only power given to or duty imposed upon the court of chancery is to issue an injunction when the attorney general presents a proper case. Eubank Pneumatic Transit Co.'s Case, 9 Dick. 471, overruling Lewis Electric Light Co.'s Case, 18 Stew. 411, and New York Fire and Steamboat Co.'s Case, 18 Stew. 413. A message sent by telephone from one state to another is commerce between the states, and cannot be prohibited or regulated by injunction in either state against persons or corporations engaged in sending such messages, because they do not pay the tax assessed against them by such state. In re Matter of the Pennsylvania Telephone Co., 3 Dick. 91. The constitutionality of such an assessment may be considered by a court of chancery. 18. But the court of chancery has not the power to go beyond that and set the assessment aside. This can only be accomplished by resort to a legal tribunal. 18. When a receiver has been appointed of the property of a corporation, he is a necessary party to a petition by the state for an injunction to restrain the further existence of any such corporation or transacting of any business of the company by him, because of the corporation's non payment of the state franchise tax. Mother's Stone Ch.'s Case, 7 Dick. 467. When an insolvent corporation is a public character, the property and work being dependent upon the franchise and the public being injured by the continuance of its work, the receivers must pay the state's franchise tax until the franchise of the corporation shall be sold. 18. When an insolvent corporation is of a private character, he will not be obliged to pay any other franchise tax than that which was due at the time of his appointment, unless he shall release from the assumption of the company more than sufficient to pay its debts, and the expenses of his receivership, then before distributing to stockholders he will pay any franchise tax that may have been assessed subsequent to his appointment. 18. If the receiver of a private corporation shall continue his business, using its franchises, he shall pay the franchise tax assessed while he continues the business. 18. See Kirkpatrick v. Board of Assessors, 25 Va. 30.

(b) When the legislature has enabled the court to compel the restoration of state taxes in case they should be adjudged illegal after they are paid into the state treasury, the court should not ordinarily grant proceedings to collect the taxes pending the question of their legality. TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

258. Sec. 2. That the second section [see Sec. 247, ante] of said act be amended so as to read as follows:

[That on or before the first Tuesday of May next, and annually thereafter, it shall be the duty of the president, treasurer or other proper officer of every corporation of the character specified in the preceding section, to make report to the state board of assessors, appointed and to be appointed under the act entitled "An act for the taxation of railroad and canal property," stating specifically the following particulars, namely: each telegraph, telephone, cable and express company, not owned by a railroad company and otherwise taxed, shall state the gross amount of its receipts from business done in this state for the year preceding the first day of January prior to the making of such report; each gas company and electric light company shall state the amount of its receipts for light or power supplied within this state for the year preceding the first day of February prior to the making of such report, and the amount of dividends declared or paid during the same time; each parlor, palace or sleeping car company shall state the gross amount of its receipts for fare or tolls for transportation of passengers within this state during the same time; each oil or pipe line company engaged in the transportation of oil or crude petroleum shall state the gross amount of its receipts from the transportation of oil or petroleum through its pipes or in and by its tanks or cars in this state during the same time; each fire, marine, live stock, casualty or accident insurance company shall state the total amount of premiums received by it for insurance upon the lives of persons resident or property located within this state, during the same time.] (b)

259. Sec. 3. That the third section [see Sec. 248, ante] of said act be amended so as to read as follows:

[That if any officer of any company required by this act to make a return, shall in such return make a false statement, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury; if any such company shall neglect or refuse to make such return within the time limited as aforesaid, the state board of assessors shall ascertain and fix the amount of the annual license fee or franchise tax and the basis upon which the same is determined, in such manner as may be deemed by them most practicable, and the amount fixed by them shall stand as such basis of taxation under this act.]

260. Sec. 4. That the fourth section [see Secs. 249 and 256, ante] of said act be amended so as to read as follows:

[That each telegraph, telephone, cable and express company shall pay to the state an annual license fee or franchise tax at the rate of two per centum upon the gross amount of its receipts so returned or ascertained; that each gas company and electric light company shall pay to the state an annual license fee or franchise tax at the rate of one-half of one per centum upon the gross amount of its receipts so returned or ascertained, and five per centum upon the dividends in excess of four per centum so paid or engaged in foreign commerce.]

(c) Foreign corporations doing business in this state are subject to a state tax under this act. Pipe Line Co. v. Merry, 29 Ind. 462, 216. A Federal constitution will not invalidate a state tax upon a corporation merely because the corporation has power to engage in foreign or interstate commerce; the corporation must be actually engaged in such commerce, to invoke the immunity. Insurance Co. v. Board of Assessors, 25 Ind. 278. A franchise tax, imposed upon a company as the price of the right and privilege of being a corporation, may be exacted by the state granting the franchise, no matter how the corporate property may be invested or employed or where it may be situate. In re Lumberville Bridge Co. v. Assessors, 25 Ind. 229.]

(d) An assessment on taxes, made by the state board of assessors, on a statement returned in compliance with the statute, should be made, and not be set aside or disturbed unless it be overcome by the most satisfactory proof that it is erroneous in fact. In a suit to set aside an assessment prosecuted by the company, it would not be allowed to gain the return of its officer, unless on proper conduct on his part in fraud of the company. Bethesda v. Board of Assessors, 25 Ind. 15. A return made to be invested or employed or where it may be situate. Id. The yearly license fee or tax levied upon miscellaneous corporations under the act is such a franchise tax, and is constitutional even against domestic corporations engaged in foreign commerce. Id. That the state board of assessors shall certify and report to the comptroller of the state, on or before the first Monday of June in each year, a statement of the basis of the annual license fee or franchise tax as returned by each company to, or ascertained by, the said board, and the amount of tax due thereon respectively, at the rates fixed by this act; such tax shall thereupon become due and payable, and it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to receive the same; if the tax of any company remains unpaid on the first day of July, after the same becomes due, the same shall thenceforth bear interest at the rate of one percent per month until paid; the state board of assessors shall have power to require of any corporation subject to tax under this act, such information or reports touching the affairs of such company as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act; and may require the production of the books of such company, and may swear and examine witnesses in relation thereto; the comptroller shall receive as compensation for his services under this act, and under the act entitled "An act for the taxation of railroad and canal property," approved April tenth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the sum of five hundred dollars annually.]

262. Sec. 6. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, in so far as the same are inconsistent herewith.

IV. Collateral inheritance tax.

An act to tax intestates' estates, gifts, legacies, devises and collateral inheritance in certain cases.

Approved May 15, 1894.

(a) The business in which the capital of a corporation is invested, and not the objects for which the company is incorporated, is expressed in the certificate of incorporation, determines its liability to taxation. Printing Co. v. Assessors, 23 Vt. 78. A company incorporated for the purpose of printing and publishing books and general job printing and publishing a newspaper is a manufacturing company with respect to its business of printing books and job printing, and is exempt from taxation on so much of its capital as is invested in that business. Printing Co. v. Assessors, 23 Vt. 78.

263. Sec. 1. That after the passage of this act all property which shall pass by will or by the intestate laws of this state from any person who may die seized or possessed of the same while being a resident of the state, and all property which shall be within this state, and any part of such property, and any interest therein or income therefrom, which shall be transferred by inheritance, distribution, bequest, devise, deed, grant, sale or gift aforesaid, made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the intestate, testator, grantor or bargainor, to any person or persons, or to a body politic or corporate, excepting churches, hospitals and orphan asylums, public libraries, bible and tract societies, and all religious, benevolent and charitable institutions and organizations, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body politic or corporate shall be entitled to receive any such property, except as to religious, benevolent and charitable organizations excepted.

Upon the stock subscribed for, two assessments of five percent, each, amounting to $100,000, were made and paid by the subscribers. No certificates were issued, but receipts were given for the assessments paid. The company elected directors and officers, and, with the capital stock paid in, has engaged in business. Held, that the company was liable to the tax under the act, and that the company was not excused from the tax. Thayer Manufacturing Co. v. Shreve, 25 Vt. 438. 18. The provision that a tax should be imposed on all corporations, excepting churches, hospitals, orphan asylums, public libraries, and tracts societies, and all religious, benevolent and charitable institutions and organizations, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body politic or corporate shall be entitled to receive any such property, except as to religious, benevolent and charitable organizations excepted.

The true meaning of the word "tax" is not within the charter of this company, and the decision of the Supreme Court of this state, in the case of Thayer Manufacturing Co. v. Shreve, is reversed and remanded to the court of errors and appeals for a further consideration of the case. Thayer Manufacturing Co. v. Shreve, 25 Vt. 438. 18. Upon the stock subscribed for, two assessments of five percent, each, amounting to $100,000, were made and paid by the subscribers. No certificates were issued, but receipts were given for the assessments paid. The company elected directors and officers, and, with the capital stock paid in, has engaged in business. Held, that the company was liable to the tax under the act, and that the company was not excused from the tax. Thayer Manufacturing Co. v. Shreve, 25 Vt. 438. 18. The provision that a tax should be imposed on all corporations, excepting churches, hospitals, orphan asylums, public libraries, and tracts societies, and all religious, benevolent and charitable institutions and organizations, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body politic or corporate shall be entitled to receive any such property, except as to religious, benevolent and charitable organizations excepted.

That when any person shall bequeath or devise, grant, sell or give as aforesaid any property, or interest therein, or income therefrom, to a father, mother, husband, wife, children, brother or sister, the widow of a son, or a lineal descendant, during life or for a term of years, and the remainder to a collateral heir of the decedent, or to a stranger in blood, or to a body politic or corporate, the property so passing shall be appraised immediately after the death of said testator or grantor, as the case may be, at what shall then be the fair market value thereof in the manner hereinafter provided, and after deducting therefrom the value of said life estate, or term of years, the tax prescribed by this act on the remainder shall be immediately due and payable to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey, and, together with the interest thereon, shall be and remain a lien on said property until the same is paid; provided, that the person or persons or body politic or corporate beneficially interested in the property chargeable with said tax, may elect not to pay the same until they shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, or, and in that case, such person or persons, or body politic or corporate, shall give a bond to the state of New Jersey in a penalty three times the amount of the tax arising upon personal estate, with such sureties as the chancellor may approve, conditioned for the payment of said tax and interest thereon, at such time or period as they or their representatives may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk in chancery; provided, further, that such person shall make a full verified return of such property to the chancellor of the state and file the same in the office of the clerk in chancery within one year from the death of the decedent, and within that period enter into such security and renew the same every five years.

265. Sec. 3. That whenever a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees, and makes a bequest or devise of property to them in lieu of their commissions or allowances, which otherwise would be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legateses, and said bequest, devises or residuary legacies exceed what would be a reasonable compensation for their services, such excess shall be liable to said tax, and the chancellor or the orphans' court having jurisdiction in the case shall fix such compensation.

266. Sec. 4. That all taxes imposed by this act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the death of the testator, grantor or intestate, as the case may be, and if the same are paid within one year, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be charged and collected thereon, but if not so paid, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be charged and collected from the time said tax accrued; provided, that if said tax is paid within nine months from the accruing thereof, interest shall not be charged or collected thereon, but a discount of five per centum shall be allowed and deducted from said tax; and in all cases where the executors, administrators or trustees do not pay such tax within one year from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give a bond, in the form and to the effect prescribed in sections two of this act, for the payment of said tax, together with interest.

(a) This act cannot affect real estate which was devised by will previous to its passage and approval. In re Dobensfield, 17 N. J. L. 375.
267. Sec. 5. That the penalty of ten per centum per annum imposed by section four hereof for the non-payment of said tax shall not be charged, where in cases by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay, the estate of any decedent, or a part thereof, cannot be settled at the end of a year from the death of the decedent, and in such cases only six per centum per annum shall be charged upon the said tax from the expiration of such year until the cause of such delay is removed.

268. Sec. 6. That any administrator, executor or trustee having in charge or trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to said tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom, or if the legacy or property be not money, he shall collect the tax thereon upon the appraised value thereof from the legatee or person entitled to such property, and he shall not deliver or be compelled to deliver any specific legacy or property subject to tax to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon; and whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the heir or devisee, before paying the same, shall deduct said tax therefrom and pay the same to the executor, administrator or trustee, and the same shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid, and the payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor, administrator or trustee in the same manner that the payment of such legacy might be enforced; if, however, such legacy be given in money to any person for a limited period, he shall retain the tax upon the whole amount, but if it be not in money, he shall make application to the court having jurisdiction of his accounts to make an apportionment, if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into his hands by such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

269. Sec. 7. That all executors, administrators and trustees shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as they may be enabled by law to do for the payment of debts of their testators and intestates and the amount of said tax shall be paid as hereinafter directed.

270. Sec. 8. That any sum of money retained by any executor, administrator or trustee, or paid into his hands for any tax or any property, shall be paid by him, within thirty days thereafter, to the treasurer of the state of New Jersey; and the said treasurer shall deliver a receipt of such payment to the comptroller of the state, whose duty it shall be to countersign the same and return it to the executor, administrator or trustee, whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts, but an executor, administrator or trustee shall not be entitled to credit in his accounts, nor to be discharged from liability for such tax unless he shall produce a receipt so countersigned by the comptroller, or a copy thereof certified by him.

271. Sec. 9. That whenever any of the real estate of which any decedent may die seized, shall pass to any body politic or corporate, or to any person other than the father, mother, husband, wife, lawful issue, brother or sister, wife or widow of a son, or husband of a daughter, or in trust for them, or some of them, it shall be the duty of the executors, administrators or trustees of such decedent to give information thereof in writing to the comptroller of the state within six months after they undertake the execution of their respective duties, or if the fact be not known to them within that period, then within one month after the same shall have come to their knowledge.

272. Sec. 10. That whenever any debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent, after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the said tax has been deducted, or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the state treasurer, or by them if it has been so paid.
273. SEC. 11. That whenever any foreign executor or administrator shall assign or transfer any stocks or loans in this state, standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, which shall be liable to the said tax, such tax shall be paid to the state treasurers on the transfer thereof, otherwise the corporation permitting such transfer shall become liable to pay such tax; provided, that such corporation has knowledge before such transfer that said stocks or loans are liable to said tax.

274. SEC. 12. That when any amount of said tax shall have been paid erroneously to the state treasurer, it shall be lawful for the comptroller of the treasury, on satisfactory proof rendered to him of such erroneous payments, to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, in favor of the executor, administrator, person or persons who have paid any such tax in error, or who may be lawfully entitled to receive the same, for the amount of such tax so paid in error; provided, that all such applications for the repayment of such tax shall be made within two years from the date of such payment.

275. SEC. 13. That in order to fix the value of property of persons whose estates shall be subject to the payment of said tax, the surrogate or register of the prerogative court, on the application of any interested party, or upon his own motion, shall appoint some competent person as appraiser as often as, and whenever occasion may require, whose duty it shall be forthwith to give such notice by mail and to such persons as the surrogate or register of the prerogative court may by order direct, of the time and place he will appraise such property, and at such time and place to appraise the same at its fair market value, and make a report thereof in writing to said surrogate or register of the prerogative court, together with such other facts in relation thereto as said surrogate or register of the prerogative court may by order require, to be filed in the office of such surrogate or register of the prerogative court, and from this report the said surrogate or register of the prerogative court shall forthwith assess and fix the then cash value of all estates, annuities and life estates, or term of years growing out of said estates, and the tax to which the same is liable, and shall immediately give notice thereof by mail to the state comptroller and to all parties known to be interested therein; any person or persons dissatisfied with said appraisement or assessment may appeal therefrom to the ordinary or orphans' court of the proper county, within sixty days after the making and filing of such assessment, on paying or giving security, approved by the ordinary or orphans' court, to pay all costs, together with whatever tax shall be fixed by said court; said appraiser shall be paid by the state treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller, on the certificate of the ordinary or surrogate, duly filed with the comptroller, at the rate of three dollars per day for every day actually and necessarily employed in said appraisement, together with his actual and necessary traveling expenses.

276. SEC. 14. That any appraiser appointed by virtue of this act who shall take any fee or reward from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin or heir of any decedent, or from any other person liable to pay said tax or any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction of misdemeanors he shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and imprisoned not exceeding ninety days, and in addition thereto the register of the prerogative court or surrogate shall dismiss him from such service.

277. SEC. 15. That the ordinary or orphans' court in the county in which the real property is situated of a decedent who was not a resident of the state, or in the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this act.

278. SEC. 16. That if it shall appear to the register of the prerogative court or surrogate that any tax accruing under this act has not been paid according to law, such officer shall issue a citation citing the persons interested in the property liable to the tax to appear before the ordinary or orphans' court on a day certain, not more than three months after the date of such citation, and show cause why said tax should not be paid; the service of such citation and the time, manner and proof thereof, and fees therefor, and the hearing and determination thereon, and the enforcement of the determination or decree shall conform to the provisions of the law for the service of citations now issued by the ordinary or orphans' courts, and the hearing and determination thereon and its enforcement; and the register of the prerogative court or surrogate shall, upon the request of any prosecutor of the pleas or state comptroller, furnish one or more transcripts of such decree, and the same may be by them docketed and filed by the county clerk of any county in the state, and the same shall have the same effect as a lien by judgment.

279. Sec. 17. That whenever the state comptroller shall have reason to believe that any tax is due and unpaid under this act, after the refusal or neglect of the persons interested in the property liable to said tax to pay the same, he shall notify the prosecutor of the pleas of the proper county, in writing, of such failure to pay such tax, and the prosecutor of the pleas so notified, if he have probable cause to believe a tax is due and unpaid, shall prosecute the proceeding before the ordinary of the orphans' court in the proper county, as provided in section sixteen of this act, for the enforcement and collection of such tax; all costs awarded by such decree to such prosecutor, that may be collected after the collection and payment of the tax to the state treasurer, may be retained by the prosecutor of the pleas for his own use.

280. Sec. 18. That the register of the prerogative court, the surrogate and the register of deeds or county clerk of each county shall every three months make a statement in writing, to the state comptroller, of the property from which or the party from whom he has reason to believe a tax under this act has become due since his last report.

281. Sec. 19. That whenever the surrogate of any county, or the register of the prerogative court shall certify to the state comptroller that there was probable cause for issuing a citation and taking the proceedings specified in section sixteen of this act, the state treasurer shall pay, upon warrant of the comptroller, to the proper officials all expenses incurred for the issuing and services of the citation and all other lawful disbursements that have not otherwise been paid.

282. Sec. 20. That the comptroller of the state shall furnish to the register of the prerogative court and to each surrogate a book in which he shall enter, or cause to be entered, the returns made by appraisers, the cash value of annuities, life estates and term of years and other property fixed by him and the tax assessed thereon, and the amount of any receipts for payments thereon filed with him, which books shall be kept in the office of the register of the prerogative court of the surrogate as a public record, and shall furnish all other forms and blanks necessary for use in the proper enforcement of this law.

283. Sec. 21. 285. Ssc. 23. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, except so far as herein re-enacted; but nothing in this repealer shall affect or impair the lien of any taxes heretofore assessed, or due and payable, or any remedies for the collection of the same, or to surrender any remedies, powers, rights or privileges acquired by the state under any act heretofore passed, or to relieve any person or corporation from any penalty imposed by said acts; provided, however, that the exception in the first section hereof in favor of churches, hospitals, orphan asylums, public libraries, bible and tract societies, and all religious, benevolent and charitable institutions and organizations, shall be construed and held to apply to any and all bequests, devises and legacies heretofore made, in trust or otherwise, to or in favor of such institutions, or any of them, in all cases where said tax shall not have been paid prior to the passage of this act.

so made and affirmed by the board shall be and be deemed to be the assessment of such property for the year. [See Sec. 304, post.]

287. Sec. 2. [Amended by Sec. 316, post.]

288. Sec. 3. That where said board shall deem it necessary in order to obtain a correct assessment of property in any city of this state, they may, by rule, direct that the assessor or other taxing officer shall, from actual view and from the best sources of information within his reach, determine the true value of each lot and tract of real estate in his district, without the buildings and improvements, and shall note the same, and shall determine and note separately the true value of every house and other buildings or structures worth over one hundred dollars, and the whole shall be added and carried out as the value of such lot or tract; in cities where said board shall direct the land and buildings to be so separately valued, the receipt given for the payment of the tax on such property, by the collector or other officer charged with the collection of such tax, shall contain a statement of such separate valuations; said board may, by rule, direct that each assessor shall enter in his books the number of acres of arable land, the number of acres of meadow and pasture land, the number of acres of woodland, and the number of acres of uncultivated upland and swamp land in each tract as near as may be.

289. Sec. 4. That the assessor or other taxing officer making the assessment of real estate subject to taxation, shall enter in a separate list a description of all cemeteries, churches and public buildings and other real estate exempt from taxation, together with the name of the person or persons or corporation owning the same, and he shall value such buildings, property, lots and tracts of land at their true value in the same manner as other real estate, and in each case he shall state the ground of exemption; the assessor or other taxing officer shall be entitled to receive the same compensation per name for making such list, and in the same manner as he is now entitled to receive for assessing taxes under the laws of this state.

290. Sec. 5. That lands occupied by a person other than the owner may be assessed to the owner, or as the lands of non-residents, if owned by such; and that unoccupied lands not owned by a person residing in the taxing district shall be denominated lands of non-residents, and shall be assessed as such; and that no tax on real estate shall be void in consequence of any lands being erroneously classed or omitted from classification as the lands of non-residents or as the lands of unknown owners, nor in consequence of any omission of or mistake in the name of the rightful owner, in the assessment list or roll, but in such cases no such tax shall be collected except from the real estate assessed.

291. Sec. 6. That the tax on visible personal estate shall be assessed in and for the township, ward or taxing district where such property is found; the tax on other personal estate shall be assessed on each inhabitant in the township, ward or taxing district where he resides as of the day prescribed by law for commencing the assessment for each year, and all real estate shall be assessed in the township, ward or taxing district in which the same may be situated; when the line between two taxing districts divides a farm or a lot owned or possessed by the person taxed, the same shall be taxed, if occupied, in the taxing district in which the occupant resides, and, if unoccupied, each part thereof shall be assessed to the owner thereof, in the taxing district in which the same may be, and this, whether such division line be a township, ward or county line; and personal estate belonging to non-residents may be assessed either to the owner or to the person in possession or charge thereof whenever the owner of personal property in two or more taxing districts is entitled to a deduction for debts in excess of the assessed value of his personal estate in the taxing district where he resides, he shall be entitled to have such further deduction as is or may be allowed by law made from the assessed value of his personal estate in the other taxing districts wherein he may own personal estate; it shall be the duty of the board hereby created to prescribe, by rules, the manner in which such deductions shall be claimed and allowed. (a)

292. Sec. 7. That every person shall be assessed for all personal estate in his possession or under his control, as trustee, guardian, executor, administrator or in any other representative or fiduciary capacity, in the same manner as other persons are assessed, and where a person is so assessed as trustee, guardian, executor, administrator or in any other representative or fiduciary capacity, he shall be assessed as such with the addition to his name of his representative character, and such assessment shall be carried out on a separate line from his individual assessment; and in cases where the same property is held by several trustees, guardians, executors, administrators, or other representatives or fiduciaries, only one of them shall be taxed for the same; and such property shall be assessed in the hands of such one of said executors, guardians, trustees, administrators, representatives or fiduciaries, as have actual possession or control of such property, if such person is known to or can on reasonable search be ascertained by the assessor or other taxing officer; otherwise such property may be assessed in the name of any one of such trustees, guardians, executors, administrators, representatives or fiduciaries. (b)

293. Sec. 8. That it shall be the duty of the state board of taxation to meet on the first Monday of July, and from time to time as they shall deem proper, having regard to the tax laws of different localities, of each year, for the purpose of hearing the complaints of any taxpayer respecting the taxes assessed against him or it in respect to his or their property, and the complaints of any taxing district or county respecting the action of any county board of equalization, and any taxpayer feeling himself or itself aggrieved by the assessment of taxes assessed against him or it, in respect to his or its property, or the action of any board of tax review, or commissioners of appeal, and any taxing district or county feeling itself aggrieved by the action of any board or boards of equalization, may, within such time as said state board shall by rule prescribe, file a petition of appeal to the state board of taxation, setting forth therein his or its cause of complaint, and asking the relief which he or it desires, and the state board of taxation shall proceed summarily to hear and dispose of such complaints; and the said state board of taxation shall make such order respecting the procedure in each case as to them shall seem just; and it shall be the duty of the state board of taxation to hear and determine such complaints, and to revise and correct the taxes assessed against such complaining taxpayers, and to revise and correct the determination of such county boards of equalization by fixing the amount each taxing district shall raise, in just proportion according to the true value of the taxable property therein, and the assessment so corrected and determined by said state board of taxation shall be final and conclusive; such corrected rate of assessment shall be certified by said board to the collector of the taxing district where such property is taxable, and shall, be collected in the same manner that other taxes in said taxing district are collected. (c)

294. Sec. 9. That it shall be lawful for every collector of taxes to make such amendments, corrections and alterations in the description of any land or real estate assessed as shall be useful to better ascertain the location and extent thereof and to identify the same; and the taxes assessed upon such land and real estate shall be and remain a lien upon the same according to the said corrected description of the same, provided that all such correction be made before the public notice is given of the sale of such land or real estate.

(b) By virtue of an order of an orphan's court an administrator is given the same interest free from the dower of the widow, and invested a specified part of the proceeds of sale in a mortgage made by him as administrator. The order directed him to pay the interest of the investment to the widow during her life. Here, that, if the mortgage or lien deduction, the mortgage was taxable to the administrator, who, upon payment of the tax, could deduct the same from the interest payable to the widow. Dole v. Pies, 42 Pa. 759.

(c) If the state board of taxation, upon a complaint of a taxing district, under section 6, increases the valuation of another taxing district, it should proceed to add that increased valuation to the unchanged valuation of all the other taxing districts of the county, and then to apportion the county and state tax to be raised among the taxing districts in the proportion of the valuation of each, to the total valuations. Mat Bronstein v. New Brunswick, 28 Pa. 155. A taxing district, the valuation of which has, upon complaint, been increased, cannot, by certiorari, object to the determination of the state board because it has imposed on it an increase less than its adjudication required, nor because the board erred in apportioning the tax to be raised, when such error does no injury to it. Zia Shoe Co. v. White, 76 Pa. 486.

296. Sec. 11. That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to render any real or personal estate subject to taxation other than such real and personal estate as is now subject to taxation under other laws.

297. Sec. 12. 298. Sec. 13. That if it shall appear to the satisfaction of any court wherein any certiorari is or may be brought, that any assessment of taxes removed thereby is at a rate or proportion higher or greater than is authorized or required by law, or that the amount or value of taxable property for which any person therein is assessed is too great, said court shall amend such assessment so removed as aforesaid, and reduce the same to the proper and just amount, and thereupon affirm the same according to such amendment and reduction, and reverse the same as to the excess only; and the court shall have power to adopt such rules and proceedings as may enable them to make the said amendment and carry into effect the true intent and meaning of this act.

299. Sec. 14. That no return of taxes or list of delinquents made by the collector of taxes in any of the municipal divisions of this state, nor the proceedings touching or concerning such return, nor any tax warrant shall be set aside or revised on certiorari or otherwise for any lack of form which does not impair the substantial right of the plaintiff in certiorari.

That every assessor or board of tax commissioners in every taxing district of this state, whose duty it is by law to make the assessments, whether the same be a township, borough, village, city or other municipality, shall on or before the first day of November next ensuing the making of assessments for taxes in each year, transmit in writing, under oath or affirmation, to the office of the state board of taxation, at Trenton, a statement copied from the duplicate or assessment-books of such taxing district in which the assessments of property for taxation for that year are contained, the following facts:

Second. The total amount or value of personal property assessed by such assessor or tax commissioners in such taxing district for that year;

P. L. 1869, p. 261.

Facts to be shown in statement.

Penalty for failure to report.

Power of board to review and correct the action of the local assessors.
VI. Sale of land for taxes.

An act to make taxes a lien on real estate, and to authorize sales for the payment of the same.

Approved March 17, 1854.

317. Sec. 1. That it shall be the duty of the assessors of the several townships in this state, in making their assessments, as now provided by law, to assess all lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate, in the names of the owners thereof, respectively and to designate the same by some short description as will be sufficient to ascertain the location and extent thereof.

318. Sec. 2. That any assessment of taxes made in this state against any person or persons residing out of this state, or foreign corporation residing out of the county in which the land is located, on account of any lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate of such person or persons, or corporation, shall be and remain a lien on all the lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, on account of which said assessment shall be made, with lawful interest thereon accruing, and all costs and fees in relation to said assessment and collection thereof, for the space of two years from the time when the taxes aforesaid assessed were payable.

319. Sec. 3. That in case any assessment of taxes, as specified in the last preceding section, together with the interest thereon, and costs and fees aforesaid, shall remain unpaid for the space of one year after the said taxes were payable, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the township committee of the said township, or a majority of them, to issue their warrant, under their respective hands and seals, directed to any constable of the said township, therein and thereby commanding him to make said taxes, with the interest, and costs and fees aforesaid, of the lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, on account whereof the same were assessed as aforesaid, and of which the assessors' description shall be therein set forth, by selling the same, or any part thereof as will be sufficient for that purpose, for the shortest term for which any person or persons will agree to take the same, and pay such taxes, with the interest thereon, and all costs, fees, charges and expenses; and further directing the said constable to pay the money or moneys raised by such sale to the said township committee of said township, and to make return of said warrant and his proceedings thereunder, to said township committee of said township, to be filed by the clerk of said township among the other papers of said township.

320. Sec. 4. That the warrant specified in the last preceding section shall, before the execution thereof, be recorded by the clerk of said township, in a book to be provided for that purpose; which said record thereof shall be received as evidence in the several courts of this state.

(a) Reference in the description of lands to blocks and lots on a map which is used as an assessor's map, though not formally adopted by the common council, will be sufficient, where it does not appear that the owner was misled. State v. Harrison, 12 N.E. 241.

(b) A description of real estate in a duplicate, describing lands which have no fences or divisions upon the ground, but which are laid out, upon a map filed in the county clerk's office, and generally known, into lots or farms designated by numbers, by the numbers is sufficient. State v. Kingsbury, 3 Vt. 295. See also, Sec. 67, note (a).

(c) It seems that the act to make taxes a lien on real estate, is only directory, and is inapplicable only for the purpose of authorizing a sale of the land where the owner is a non-resident. State v. Kingsbury, 3 Vt. 295. A tax warrant must be issued in writing, for non-payment of taxes after the expiration of the lien of the taxes upon such lands is expired and void. Doremus v. Olsen, 1 Vt. 1.

(d) Tax warrants are void, any sale made, or deed given by virtue thereof, will also be void. J. P. Hall, 183. If more land is taxed to a person than he owns, and his assessment therefor is an error, it should be, it constitutes an objection to the validity of the sale of the land for such tax. Martin v. Corson, 2 Vt. 426, reversing 2 Vt. 22.

(e) If lands are not designated by such short description as will be sufficient to ascertain the location and extent, and a sale thereof cannot be made, the tax for the same may still be collected by warrant against the goods, chattels and person of the owner. State v. Ballinger Park Association v. Union, 7 Vt. 228. The publication of notice is indispensable, and must be made in strict conformity with the statute. State v. Allen, 7 Vt. 228. The power to sell land for the payment of taxes is a naked power not coupled with an interest, and must be exercised in strict accordance with the provisions of the statute. See prequellante must precede the exercise of the power. Hopper v. Munson, 1 C.B. 163. State v. Roper v. Rev. City, 9 Vt. 200. Woodbridge v. State, 14 Vt. 255. To establish a title under a sale for taxes, it is incumbent on the purchaser to show that all the provisions to the extent of the power of sale have been complied with. Dept. is not an even thirteen evidence of that fact. Jh. Where the tax warrant directs a sale to be made for a sum larger than the whole amount due, it is a clear excess of authority, and renders the warrant, so far as it affects the land in question, null and void. Jh. An error in the notice of tax left by the collector, as to amount, as to value, as to land must be issued to a constable of the township. There is no authority for issuing it to the collector of taxes. Doremore v. Weant, 10 Vt. 208. See McBean v. New Providence, 8 Vt. 228. A deed made by a collector, under a warrant issued in his name under that act, is void. Jh. Where a municipal corporation has undertaken to sell real estate for taxes, the sale will be set aside unless all legal conditions precedent appear to have been performed. Fitchisher v. West Rutland, 11 Vt. 111.
321. Sec. 5. That it shall and may be the duty of the constable to whom such warrant shall be directed as above specified, before he sells by virtue thereof, to give notice of the time and place of the sale of any lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, under this act, by advertisement, signed by said constable, and inserted in a newspaper printed and published in said township, or in the county where the sale is to take place, for at least sixty days, once in each week, before the time appointed for such sale; and also set up for the same period in five of the most public places in said township, one of which shall be at or near the lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate to be sold; provided, however, such sale may be adjourned from time to time, not exceeding ninety days in the whole.

322. Sec. 6. That it shall and may be lawful for the said constable, to whom such warrant shall be directed, at the time and place specified in the above-required notice, or at the time and place to which he shall adjourn, as provided for in the last preceding section, to sell and strike off such lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, as may be set forth in said warrant, or any part thereof, to such person or persons as will agree to take the same for the shortest term, and pay such taxes as may be assessed as aforesaid on account thereof and the interest thereon, and all costs, fees, charges and expenses, and thereupon to execute and deliver to any such person or persons a deed for the same, under his hand and seal, and such person or persons, and his, her or their legal representatives, shall, by virtue thereof, lawfully hold and enjoy the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, or real estate, during the term for which he, she or they shall have purchased the same, for his, her or their own proper use and benefit, against the owner or owners(a) thereof, and all and every person or persons claiming under him, her or them, until said term shall be fully completed and ended, and shall be at liberty, at or before the expiration of the said term, to remove any building or buildings and materials erected and placed by him, her or them thereon, and when said term shall have ended, shall peaceably and quietly yield up the same to the lawful owner or owners thereof, in as good condition as when he, she or they took possession of the same, damage resulting from ordinary use and the elements excepted.

323. Sec. 7. That notwithstanding any mistake in the name or names of the owner or owners, or omission to name the real owner or owners of any lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate in the said township, in assessing the taxes on account thereof as aforesaid, such assessment shall be valid and effectual in law against such lands, tenements and hereditaments, or real estate; and the same may be proceeded against and sold in the manner prescribed herein.(b)

324. Sec. 8. That the constable to whom such warrant as aforesaid shall be directed, shall be entitled to receive the sum of one dollar for executing the same, and in addition thereto, two cents on each dollar by him collected and paid over to the township committee of said township for advertising the sale of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or real estate for each delinquent, the same fees which the sheriffs of the counties are entitled to for the like services; and for a deed to the purchaser, the sum of two dollars; and the township committee of said township shall be entitled to receive for said warrant the sum of fifty cents; and the clerk of said township, for recording and filing said warrant, shall be entitled to receive the sum of twenty-five cents.

(a) Under a sale of lands for the payment of taxes, only the estate which the owner had at the time of the assessment passed. The estate acquired by a mortgage prior to the assessment is not affected by such sale. Morrow v. Dunn, 12 C. E. Gr. 446. 1 Stew. 469. Hopper v. Muldoon, 1 C. E. Gr. 252. Only the estate and interest which the taxpayer had, even if one of two tenants in common was named as owner. Fleischauer v. West Hoboken, 11 Pr. 169.

(b) While a mistake in the owner’s name will not invalidate a sale, an entire omission thereof is fatal. State, Thedtl v. Tunderhill, 4 Pr. 36. An assessment for taxes will not be vacated merely because only one of two tenants in common was named as owner. Fleischauer v. West Hoboken, 11 Pr. 169.
Supplement.

325. Sec. 1. That any assessment of taxes made in this state against any person or persons or corporation on account of any lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate of such person or persons or corporations, shall be and remain a lien on all the lands, tenements and hereditaments or real estate, on account of which said assessment shall be made, with lawful interest thereon accruing, and all costs and fees in relation to said assessment and collection thereof, for the space of two years from the time when the taxes so as aforesaid assessed were payable; and in case any such assessment of taxes, together with the interest thereon, and the costs and fees as aforesaid, shall remain unpaid for the space of four months after the said taxes were payable, then it shall be lawful for the township committee of the township in which said assessment has been made, or a majority of them, to proceed for the collection of the same in the manner prescribed in and by the several provisions of the act to which this is a supplement; all which proceedings shall be as valid and effectual as in cases of assessment under said act. (a)

326. Sec. 2. That in all cases of sale made of any real estate, in pursuance of this act and the act to which this is a supplement, the owner or owners thereof shall have the right to redeem the same, after the expiration of one year from the time of such sale, by paying the amount paid by the purchaser thereof, with twelve per cent. interest thereon, and the purchaser, upon payment thereof, shall reconvey and restore to the owner or owners such real estate. (b)

Supplement.

327. Sec. 1. That the real estate of any person or persons residing in this state, or of any corporation of this state, may be sold for taxes in the same manner as real estate of persons residing out of this state, or foreign corporations located outside of the county in which the land is located is now sold for taxes.

Supplement.

328. Sec. 1. That at any sale of lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate hereafter made by virtue of the said act entitled "An act to make taxes a lien upon real estate and to authorize sales for the payment of the same," approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four [see P. L. 1854, p. 425], and the supplements thereto, if there shall be no purchaser or purchasers for said lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate, or any part thereof, then it shall and may be lawful for the treasurer of the city or of the township committee of the township where the said lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate may be assessed, to purchase the same for the benefit of said city or township, subject to the same redemption as is now provided by law; and the certificate of such treasurer, stating the payment of the amount now required by law to be paid upon the redemption of any lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate sold by virtue of said act and the supplements thereto, and showing what lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate such payment is intended to redeem, shall be evidence of such redemption.

Supplement.

329. Sec. 1. That when the description of any real estate herebefore assessed or hereafter to be assessed in any town, township or borough in this state is insufficient to make a legal sale of such real estate for the taxes

(a) Act of March 25th, 1853, limits the lien of taxes to two years. Act of March 27th, 1874, incorporating a certain town, provided that a tax lien on real estate shall "remain a lien thereon until paid." Held, that the latter provision suspended that contained in the general act. Skinner v. Christel, 7 Idaho 720, 109 P. 730, 13 P. 2d 332, 249 Idaho 799, 112 Iowa 2d, 585, 249 Iowa 799, 112 Iowa 2d, 585. (b) A bill in equity is proper to compel the purchaser of land for a term, under a tax sale, to redeem the land to the landowner who complies with the law regulating the right to redeem. Culver v. Wilson, 1 Iowa 541.
TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

so assessed, the collector or other officer having the collection thereof, may make application to one of the judges of the court of common pleas of the county where such lands are situate, at any time before the sale thereof, to have the same amended by such short description as will sufficiently describe the same; and the said judge, upon proof of the facts alleged, is hereby empowered to so amend the description of such real estate as will enable such officer to properly advertise the same, and make title thereto; provided, that the owner or owners of said property shall have had at least ten days' notice of said application.

A further act concerning taxes, making the same a first lien on real estate, and to authorize sales for the payment of the same

330. Sec. 1. [Amended by Sec. 368, post.]

331. Sec. 2. That in case any taxes, specified in the last preceding section, together with the interest thereon, and costs, fees, charges and expenses aforesaid, shall remain unpaid and in arrear for the space of six months from and after the time when payable, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the township committee, or a majority of them, to issue their warrant, which warrant may include the names of any number of delinquent owners and the description of each of their lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, on account of which such taxes were assessed, under the common seal, if any, of the township, signed by the chairman thereof and attested by the township clerk, directed to the collector of the said township, therein and thereby commanding him to make said taxes, with the interest, costs, fees, charges and expenses aforesaid, out of the lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, on account of which the same were assessed and incurred as aforesaid, by selling the same, or any part thereof, as will be sufficient for that purpose, for the shortest term for which any person or persons will agree to take the same, and pay such taxes, with the interest thereon, and all costs, fees, charges and expenses, and further directing the said collector to make return of said warrant, with all his proceedings thereunder, in writing, within four months from the date thereof, to said township committee.

332. Sec. 3. That the said warrant shall be recorded by the clerk of said township, before its delivery to said collector, in a book provided for the purpose, to be known as the "record of tax sales."

333. Sec. 4. That it shall and may be the duty of the said collector, before he sells by virtue of such warrant, to give public notice of the time and place of such sale of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or real estate under this act by advertisement, signed by such collector, in a newspaper printed and published in said township, or in the county wherein such lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate are situate, once in each week, for at least four weeks successively next preceding the time appointed for such sale, and shall cause copies of such notice to be set up in five of the most public places in said township for the same period, one of which must be at or near the lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate to be sold, and shall forthwith mail a copy of such notice to the owner or owners, directed to him, her or them, at his, her or their last-known post-office address, with full postage prepaid thereon; provided, such sale may be adjourned on application of the owner or other person interested therein, or because of no bidders, from time to time, not exceeding sixty days, in which case a short notice of such adjournment shall be published in the said newspaper.

334. Sec. 5. That it shall and may be lawful for the said collector, at the time and place specified in the above notice, or at the time and place to which he shall adjourn as aforesaid, to sell and strike off such lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate set forth in such warrant, or any part thereof, to such person or persons as will agree to take the same for the shortest term, and pay such taxes as may be assessed as aforesaid on account thereof, and the interest thereon, and all costs, fees, charges and

336. Sec. 7. That the clerk of said township shall record such return (the warrant only excepted) and the papers thereto annexed, in the aforesaid "record of tax sales," at length immediately succeeding the record of such warrant, space being reserved for the purpose.

337. Sec. 8. That the purchaser shall cause such certificate of sale to be recorded in the county clerk's office within the county where the lands are situate, within twenty days from the receipt thereof, and that thereupon he shall be entitled to the immediate possession of the property described in said certificate, and to all the rents, issues and profits arising therefrom and after the date of such certificate, and in case the said premises are occupied by the owner or owners thereof, the purchaser shall give notice, in writing, to such owner or owners, either personally or by leaving the same with some member of his family over fourteen years of age, and informing him of the contents thereof, of such sale, and demanding possession of such premises within thirty days after service thereof as aforesaid, and at the same time exhibit to the person so served the aforesaid certificate, and if, at the expiration of the said thirty days, the said owner or owners shall not deliver up possession thereof, then and in that case the purchaser may take the same proceedings to gain possession of such lands and premises as purchasers under decrees of foreclosure and sale of mortgaged premises.

339. Sec. 10. That in case such lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate so sold shall not be redeemed within the time provided for by this act, then and in that case the township committee, upon due proof being made by affidavit that such redemption has not been made, and the surrender of such certificate, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, at his or their expense, a deed for the same under the common seal of the township, signed by the chairman of such township committee and attested by the township clerk, and acknowledged according to law, which deed shall contain a description of the property, the year of the tax assessment, the fact of advertisement and sale, the date of sale and the period for which the premises were sold, and which deed shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the county where the lands are

(a) A bill to redeem lands sold for taxes, under this section, must aver when the defendant received his certificate of sale, and how long he has held it, in order that the court may see that the right of redemption has not been lost through laches of the time limited by the statute for such redemption.

situare within ten days after date thereof, and if not so recorded, the same shall be of no effect until such period as against a mortgagee or purchaser in good faith, and the right of redemption shall also continue until such record, notwithstanding the lapse of the aforesaid two years; and that such purchaser or purchasers, and his and their legal representatives, upon complying with the provisions of this act, shall, by virtue thereof, lawfully hold and enjoy said lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, for and during the term for which he, she or they shall have purchased the same for his, her or their own proper use, benefit and advantage, against the owner or owners thereof, and all and every person or persons claiming under him, her or them, and against any and all other estates therein, whether legal or equitable, and any and all mortgages, alienations, devises, descendents, liens and incumbrances of every kind and nature, as fully and completely as though there were no other estates, mortgages, alienations, devises, descendents, liens or incumbrances of, in, upon or against said property, or any part thereof, until said term shall be fully completed and ended, and the purchaser shall be at liberty, at or before the expiration of the said term, to remove any building or buildings and materials erected and placed by him, her or them thereon, and when said term shall have ended shall peaceably and quietly yield up the same to the lawful owner or owners thereof in as good state and condition as when he took the possession of the same, damage resulting from the ordinary use and the elements excepted. (b)

340. Sec. 11. That the aforesaid "record of tax sales" shall be received in all courts as presumptive evidence of the regularity of the proceedings therein recorded, and the aforesaid deed shall be presumptive evidence in all courts and places that such sale and proceedings were regularly made and had according to the provisions of this act.

341. Sec. 12. That no sale of lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate, made in pursuance of this act, shall destroy or in any manner affect the lien of any mortgage thereon duly recorded or registered at the time of such sale, unless the purchaser shall give to such mortgagee or mortgagees, within three months from the date of such sale, notice in writing, setting forth the date of such sale, the amount of purchase-money, the description of the property as contained in the certificate of sale, the date when the limit of redemption shall expire and a reference to this act, which notice shall be served personally or by leaving the same with a member of his family over the age of fourteen years, and if he cannot be found, then by mailing the same inclosed in an envelope plainly directed to him, her or them, at his, her or their last-known post-office address, with full postage prepaid thereon; and the purchaser shall, within twenty days after the service of said notice, transmit a true copy of such notice with due proof of service to the clerk of the county in which such lands are situate, and which notice shall be recorded and indexed in the same book in which mortgages are recorded, and a marginal note made thereof in the book where the original mortgage is recorded or registered, for which service the county clerk shall receive the sum of eight cents a folio, to be paid by the purchaser.

342. Sec. 13. That it shall be the duty of the township collector of each township, on or before the first day of February in each year hereafter, to make return in writing to the clerk of the county in which his township is situate, of all unpaid taxes assessed the preceding year on real estate situate in his township, setting forth against whom assessed, the date, description of the property, the amount of tax thereon, to which he shall affix an oath or affirmation in writing to the effect that the same is just, true, full and complete in every particular, as shown by his tax duplicate, and for such service he shall be paid by his township the sum of two cents for each name so returned; and in case the said collector shall neglect or refuse to make such return as herein provided, he shall forfeit and pay to the township the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

344. Sec. 15. That in case such tax return shall not have been made at the time herein provided, or in case a name or names shall have been omitted from such return, then and in that case such tax shall cease to be a lien upon such real estate as against a purchaser or mortgagee in good faith.

345. Sec. 16. [Amended by Sec. 363, post.]

346. Sec. 17. That any tax now due on any lands, tenements, hereditaments or real estate in any township of this state may be collected under this act in the manner prescribed herein.

Supplement. Approved May 6, 1889.

371. Sec. 1. That section eighteen [see Sec. 347, ante] of the act to which this is a supplement be amended so as to read as follows:

(a) The sale of lands for taxes must be made before the expiration of the two years during which the lien for taxes is to continue. Johnson v. Finkbeirer, 16 P. 183. Taxes become a lien on property only by force of express legislation, and can be collected only in the manner provided by statute. Eaton v. O'Neill, 28 P. 36. The act of March 14, 1879, makes the lien of taxes prior to that of a mortgage given before the passage of the act, and is within the power of the legislature. Land Co. v. Palmade Land Co., 6 S. 415. The statute of 1888 fixes conclusively the 30th of December as the period when an assessment for taxes becomes a lien upon lands. Brodley v. Bibb, 29 P. 471. Prior to that period there exists nothing but a liability of the lands to a future lien. 16. An assessment for taxes upon lands is not an incumbrance prior to the 30th of December, within the import of a covenant against incumbrances in a conveyance. 16.
[That this act shall not be construed so as to alter, modify, affect, annul or repeal the provision of any charter of any city, village or borough whereby the collection of taxes is regulated, and the taxes assessed and to be assessed in any such city, village or borough shall be levied, assessed and collected as heretofore, and the lien of taxes on lands in any such city shall be and remain as now regulated, and nothing in this act shall be held to impair, alter or affect the said lien in any way whatsoever, but this act shall apply to all townships in this state and to all cities wherein no other provisions are in force making taxes a lien upon real estate and authorizing sales for the payment of the same.]

372. Sec. 2. That all supplements to the said act heretofore passed shall have the same force and validity in all such cities as aforesaid, as if they had been passed after the passage of this act.

373. Sec. 3. That the term "township" wherever used in the said act and the supplements thereto shall be construed to include all such cities as aforesaid; and that in all such cities, the duties by the said act and the supplements thereto directed or authorized to be performed respectively by the township committee, or a majority of them, and by the township clerk and township collector, shall be performed, respectively, by the city council or other legislative body of said city, and by the city clerk and the city collector of taxes; and that any lands, tenements or real estate purchased in any such city for the benefit of said city, under the provisions of said act and the supplements thereto, shall be purchased in the corporate name of said city.

378. Sec. 2. That the provisions of this act shall be applicable to all cases where said real and personal taxes being liens on lands and real estate as aforesaid, have been heretofore blended together as aforesaid, and such lands and real estate have been heretofore sold for the non-payment thereof; and all certificates and declarations heretofore issued upon such sales shall be as good and valid for the amount of the tax for which said lands might have been lawfully sold as if said taxes for the full amount of which said lands have been blended together as aforesaid. the service, and in case the same is made by publication, setting forth what inquiry was made to ascertain the residence and post-office address of such owner or mortgagee, and in such case an affidavit of the publication shall also be made by the person publishing such newspaper, or by some one in his employ having cognizance of the publication, stating the particulars thereof; and the affidavit or affidavits shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the village or municipality within one month after the date of service and shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated; the purchaser shall be entitled to the possession of said lands immediately upon giving such notice to the owner thereof in case the same are unoccupied, or if they are occupied, then within thirty days thereafter; and he shall have the same remedy by writ of assistance or otherwise in the circuit court of the county in which the village or municipality is situate, or in the court of chancery for the recovery of the possession of said lands as the purchaser of mortgaged premises at a foreclosure sale is now or may hereafter be entitled to by any law or practice of this state; provided, however, that if any estate in any of said lands shall be held by an heir or devisee of a decedent whose estate appears of record in the county, or if any mortgage or lease shall be held by the executor or administrator of any decedent whose mortgage or lease appears of record in the county, such heir, devisee, executor or administrator shall be entitled to redeem and to have notice as aforesaid before the purchaser shall be entitled to the possession of the lands; and provided, also, that the records and schedules of all sales made under this act shall be filed and kept in the same offices of the several villages and municipalities wherein records of tax sales are now by law required to be kept.

391. Sec. 5. That it shall not be necessary to set out the proceedings under this act at length in the deed for the lands sold, but a general statement therein that such deed was made and executed upon proceedings taken under the authority of this act shall be sufficient.

392. Sec. 6. That in case any owner, mortgagee or other person appearing to have an interest in the lands which shall be sold for arrears of taxes or assessments under the provisions of this act, is unknown to or cannot be ascertained by the purchaser or his legal representatives or assigns, after due inquiry, application shall be made to the circuit court of the county wherein such lands are situate for an order for a deed, by petition duly verified, which shall describe the said lands so sold not only as described in such notice of sale, but also by metes and bounds, and shall also set out the manner in which the purchaser or his legal representatives or assigns have made inquiry for such unknown owner, mortgagee or other interested person; and the court upon being satisfied by the said petition or otherwise that such owner, mortgagee or other interested person are unknown to said purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, and that due inquiry to ascertain their names, places of residence and post-office address has been made and cannot be ascertained, may make an order requiring such unknown owner, mortgagee or other person interested in said lands to show cause before said court at a day therein specified, not less than six months from the date of said order, why a deed should not be made and delivered for the said lands to the purchaser or his legal representatives or assigns, and that in case such unknown owner, mortgagee or other interested person shall not appear and show cause or redeem the said lands within the time limited by the said order, then the court shall on the return day thereof, or afterwards, make an order directing the said collector of the village or municipality wherein such lands are situate to make a deed of conveyance of said lands to said purchaser or to his legal representatives or assigns, which shall convey the said lands free of all interest or estate in or lien upon or claim thereto of any such unknown owner, mortgagee or person so proceeded against; provided, that within ten days after the date of such order the said purchaser shall cause to be published in one of the newspapers printed or published or circulating in said village or municipality in which said lands are situate, a notice directed to such unknown owner, mortgagee or other person appearing to have an interest in said lands, describing the lands as in said petition, and requiring them to redeem said lands or to show cause why a deed therefor should not be delivered to the purchaser thereof or his legal representatives or assigns within the time specified in said order, which notice shall be published in said newspaper at least once a week thereafter for at least six weeks, and proof of such publication shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the said circuit court; and in case such owner, mortgagee or other person interested shall appear and answer the said petition, the court may hear the same in a summary manner, and make such order thereon as shall be equitable and just.

393. Sec. 7. That in case any owner, mortgagee or other person appearing to have an interest in said lands so sold, shall be known to be an infant under the age of twenty-one years, no deed shall be delivered to the purchaser, or to his legal representatives or assigns, by the said collector, except upon the order of the circuit court of the county wherein said lands are situate, to be made upon a duly-verified petition of the purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, and upon such notice to said infants or their guardians as the court may deem proper; and the court in such case may appoint a guardian ad litem, and inquire into the ability of the said infants or their estate to redeem said land, and may postpone the hearing thereon from time to time, in its discretion, to give opportunity for such redemption, and may make such order in relation to such deed as may be equitable and just.

394. Sec. 8. That where any lands which have been devised to any person for life, and to the child or children of such devisee after his or her death, shall be sold under this act, and the purchaser at such sale shall be unable, after due inquiry, to ascertain the name or names of such child or children, or whether such devisee had or left issue or not, the purchaser, or his legal representatives or assigns, shall make application to the circuit court of the county wherein such lands are situate by petition, duly verified, for a deed; such petition shall contain a description of the land, both as described in said notice of sale, and by metes and bounds, and shall also state the manner in which inquiry has been made for such child or children; and the said court, upon being satisfied of the truth of the statements contained in such petition, shall make an order directing the child or children, or heir or heirs, of such devisee (naming him), and the heir or heirs of the testator (naming him), to show cause before said court, at a day therein to be specified, not less than six months from the date of said order, why a deed should not be made and delivered for the said lands to such purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns; and in case such heirs or children, or any of them, shall not appear and show cause, or shall not redeem the said lands within the time limited in the said order, then the court shall, on the return day thereof or afterwards, make an order directing the said collector to make and deliver a deed of conveyance of said lands to the purchaser or his legal representatives or assigns, which shall convey the same free of all claim or lien against or estate therein of such heirs or children; provided, however, that such purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, shall, within ten days after the making of such order, cause to be published in one of the newspapers printed or published and circulating in the said village or municipality in which said lands are situate, a notice directed "to the children and heirs" of such devisee and testator (naming them), describing the lands as in such petition and requiring them to redeem the same, or show cause why a deed therefor should not be made and delivered to such purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, within the time specified in said order, which notice shall be published for the time, and the publication thereof proved in the manner directed in the sixth section of this act; and in case any such children or heirs shall appear and answer the said petition, the said court may hear the same in a summary way and make such order thereon as shall seem to be just.

395. Sec. 9. That all persons claiming an interest in or mortgage upon any lands sold as provided in this act by or through any deed, conveyance, mortgage, assignment, or any instrument which by law could be recorded, registered, entered or filed in any public office in this state, and which shall not be so recorded, entered or filed at the time of the execution and delivery of the deed as provided in this act, shall be bound by the proceedings had and notices given under the provisions of this act, so far as said property is concerned, in the same manner as if such persons had been duly served with the notice mentioned in the fourth section of this act.

396. Sec. 10. That when notice has been served upon any person having, or appearing to have of record, an estate in or mortgage upon any lands sold as provided in this act, and proof of such service has been made and filed as provided in this act, any person or persons claiming by descent, devise, deed, mortgage, assignment or otherwise, through or under the person or persons so served, shall be bound by the notice so served on such person or persons by, through or under whom such estate, interest or lien has been acquired.

397. Sec. 11. That when any lands sold under this act shall be redeemed by any person having a mortgage or other lien or incumbrance thereon, the person so redeeming shall hold and retain a first lien on said lands, subject only to taxes and assessments thereafter levied and assessed,

To the amount of the sum paid by him to effect such redemption, together with lawful interest thereon from the time of such payment; and the certificate of the said collector stating the payment and showing what property such payment is intended to redeem shall be evidence of such redemption and payment; any person redeeming lands sold under the provisions of this act shall pay to the said collector, for the use of the purchaser, his legal representatives or assigns, not only the sum paid at the sale, with interest, as provided in section fourth of this act, but also any other tax or assessment chargeable thereon, and which the said purchaser or his legal representatives or assigns may have paid since sale, together with lawful interest on such payment from the time of filing such notice; provided, a notice of such payment shall have been filed in the office of the said collector.

398. Sec. 12. That where, in any case, upon the sale of any lands by virtue of this act, a greater sum is bid and paid therefor than is sufficient to pay and satisfy the taxes and assessments thereon, with interest, and costs, the said court shall, upon petition by any person interested in the surplus, have jurisdiction to order and direct the distribution, payment and investment of the same, according to the facts and circumstances of each case and as appears to be just, and may award to any person holding possession under a valid term of years the value thereof, together with the value of permanent improvements made by such owner upon the lands so sold.

400. Sec. 14. 408. Sec. 1. That whenever any tax deed heretofore or hereafter given by any city, town or township or by the public body or public officer authorized by law to make conveyance of lands sold for taxes shall be annulled or set aside on account of any defect in the levying of the tax for which said property is sold, or in the proceedings for the collection of said tax or the sale of said lands, or for any defect in the giving of notice to redeem, where such defect results from the fault or omission of said city, town or township, or of any of its officers or representatives, it shall be the duty of such city, town or township to refund to the person or persons who shall have purchased said land at said tax sale, or who shall have purchased the right of said city, town or township to said lands under such tax sale, his or their heirs or assigns, any and all sums of money received by said city, town or township as consideration of said tax deed, and for other taxes upon said lands in arrears when said purchase was made or deed taken, together with interest thereon from the date of such payment by the grantee in said deed named.

409. Sec. 2. VII. Collection of arrears of taxes and assessments.

(For Martin Act.)

An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrears of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates in cities of this state, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrears, and to enforce the payment thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to future taxation and assessment.

P. L. 1886, p. 140.

Preamble.

Whereas, Arrears of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates in cities of this state have accumulated to the amount of many millions of dollars; and whereas, the validity of some such unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates has been or may be called in question by reason of some irregularity, omission or defect in the procedure instituting, laying or imposing the same, or because of the unconstitutionality of the laws or methods under which such proceedings were had or taken; and whereas, several cities have issued and sold bonds or obligations in anticipation of the collection, or on account of the arrears of such unpaid taxes or water rates, and have issued and sold their bonds to obtain the money paid for the improvements for which the assessments so in arrears were imposed, or attempted to be imposed, and the said improvements have been completed, and the property assessed therefor has been benefited thereby; and whereas, it has been found that the cities of this state have no adequate means to enforce the collection of taxes and assessments by sale of the lands upon which the same have been or may be imposed; now, therefore,
410. Sec. 1. That it shall be lawful for the board of aldermen, common council, or other legislative body of any city in this state, with the concurrence of the board or body having charge or control of the finances of the city, in which any such arrearages of taxes, assessments or water rates may exist, to make application to the circuit court of the county in which such city is situate for the appointment of three freeholders and residents of this state as commissioners of adjustment, at least one of whom shall be a resident of the city, for the purpose of performing the duties and executing the powers conferred by the following sections of this act; at least two weeks' notice of such intended application shall be given by public advertisement, signed by the clerk of the city, and published at least once each week in two newspapers printed and circulating therein; such notice shall state the time and place when and where said application is intended to be made, and all persons interested therein, either as taxpayers, owners of delinquent lands or otherwise, shall be entitled to appear and be heard before the court on said application; after such hearing, and upon due proof that notice has been given as aforesaid, on which the judgment of the court shall be final and conclusive, it shall be the duty of the court to appoint three disinterested freeholders and residents, as aforesaid, as commissioners of adjustment for said city for the purposes aforesaid; said commissioners of adjustment shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, take and file with the city clerk the oath of office required to be taken by officers of the city for which they are appointed, and they shall receive for their services such compensation as the said court shall determine; and vacancies in the body of the commissioners, caused by the death of any of them, or otherwise, shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments are herein required to be made. (a)

411. Sec. 2. That the said commissioners of adjustment, when appointed for any city, shall have power and jurisdiction, and they are hereby directed and required, in all cases when any tax, assessment or water rate levied or imposed, or attempted to be levied or imposed on any land therein, prior to the passage of this act, remains unpaid and in arrears, to examine into and fix, adjust and determine as to each parcel of land, how much of such arrearages and subsequent taxes, assessments or water rates, if any, ought, in the way of tax, assessment or water rate, in fairness, equity and justice to be laid, assessed and charged against and actually collected from said land for or on account of said taxes, assessments or water rates and claims for local improvements heretofore made, and the said commissioners, in dealing with the said arrearages as matters of fact, according to their judgment of what shall be equitable, fair and just, and shall treat the same without regard to any supposed want of jurisdiction, invalidity, irregularity or defect in any of the proceedings had for the levying, imposing or confirming of any of said taxes, assessments or water rates.

(a) This act contains two classes of provisions—first, those which relate to taxes, assessments and water rates levied and made anterior to the passing of the act, and which come within the jurisdiction of the commissioners provided therein; and second, a provision for the lien of taxes and assessments there after assessed, and for the sale of premises for such taxes and assessments by city officials. Hold, that these two features combined in one statute do not give the act the quality of an act with a twofold object, and hence the act is not in contravention of the constitutional provision that every act shall embrace but one object. In re Commissioners of Elizabeth, 30 N.J. 495. The act, so far as it relates to the powers and functions of the commissioners, applies only to taxes, assessments and water rates "levied or imposed, or attempted to be levied or imposed, on any land prior to the passage of the act." All taxes, assessments and water rates of this description are placed under the jurisdiction of the commissioners, whether they were levied or assessed in strict conformity with the laws by which they were imposed, or were, in any instance, subject to be vacated for irregularities or other imperfections in the proceedings. In re Commissioners of Elizabeth, 30 N.J. 495. Unpaid taxes and assessments are not excluded from the jurisdiction of the commissioners, whether they were levied or assessed in strict conformity with the law by which they were imposed, or whether they were subject to be vacated for irregularities or other imperfections in the proceedings. In re Commissioners of Elizabeth, 30 N.J. 495. The act, by reason of the fact that they were levied under valid laws, 26. A tax laid by authority of law, or as assessment for benefits conferred by a local improvement, creates a duty and obligation, which may be enforced by any means which the legislature may from time to time adopt. Individuals upon whom, or against whose property, such duties and obligations arise, have no vested right in the remedy which was in force when the duty or obligation arose. Until the tax or assessment is satisfied and the discharge of the premises therefrom, in virtue of the law then in force, has become a vested right, there is no contract with the public to be violated by the adoption of more stringent measures to enforce payment of these public sums. In re Commissioners of Elizabeth, 23 N.J. L. J. 14. The jurisdiction of the commissioners extends to all assessments for improvements previously made and remaining unpaid, without regard to the invalidity thereof or to the lack of power in the municipality originally to impose such assessments. Of this jurisdiction the two essentials are—first, that the improvement has been made, and an assessment made and imposed or attempted to be so to be; and second, that payment thereof has not been made. Norris v. Elizabeth, 23 N.J. L. J. 495. Where an assessment illegal at its inception has been paid, and the amount so paid has afterwards been refunded by the city, the assessment not having been set aside, the action of the city in making such repayment, does not annul the original effect of the payment, which was to extinguish the city's claim against the lands in respect to the assessment. In such a case there remains no unpaid balance of a subsequent tax or assessment which has been assessed for a public improvement may become, in whole or in part, an "arrearage," within the meaning of the Martin act, without reference to invalidity of the law under which it was imposed. Protass v. Elizabeth, 23 N.J. L. J. 495. The setting aside of such an assessment by the supreme court for total invalidity does not destroy the title of those who have represented thereby from being regarded as an "arrearage," for the purpose of vesting jurisdiction in the commissioners. rates so in arrears; and in ascertaining the amount that should be assessed and charged on any of the said lots, tracts or parcels of land, the said commissioners, in dealing with the assessments or claims for street or sewer improvements, shall not assess or charge any lot, tract or parcel of land, for or on account of any such improvement, in excess of the benefit derived therefrom at the time said improvement was made, or in excess of its due and equitable proportion thereof, with interest; provided, that in all cases in which an assessment or a re-assessment has been made on any lot or tract of land under a valid law for the benefit conferred by any local improvement, the said commissioners shall have regard to that fact, and shall not reduce the principal sum of such assessment unless, in their judgment, after investigation, they determine that the amount hereinafter so assessed thereon does, in fact, exceed the benefit conferred upon the property at the time the improvement was made; the said commissioners shall, within thirty days after their appointment, cause a notice, signed by themselves, to be published in at least two newspapers printed and circulating in the city for which they were appointed, making known thereby that the said commissioners will meet at a time and place to be therein designated, not more than forty nor less than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice, to hear all persons interested in the re-assessment or adjustment, under this act, of the taxes, assessments or water rates in arrears in the city, or in such part thereof as the said commissioners shall designate in the notice; such notice shall be continued in said newspapers at least once each week until said meeting; at the time and place mentioned in said notice, all persons interested in said matters, either as taxpayers, owners of assessed lands or otherwise, shall be entitled to appear before said commissioners and be heard either personally or by counsel, and said commissioners shall have the right to examine witnesses under oath in relation to all of said matters, which oath any one of them is hereby authorized to administer; after such hearing and after due examination of the property mentioned in said notice, the said commissioners shall proceed as speedily as may be to fix and adjust the said arrearages of taxes, assessments and water rates upon the principles aforesaid; and in like manner and upon like notice the said commissioners shall proceed until all the arrearages of taxes, assessments and water rates in such city have been reviewed, fixed, adjusted and determined, as provided in this act; the amount of taxes, assessments and water rates for which certificates of sale have been given to and are held by the city, whether such sales are invalid or not, shall be deemed to be in arrears within the meaning of this section, and to have been so in arrears from the date when said taxes, assessments and water rates were assessed, levied or confirmed, or attempted to be assessed, levied or confirmed; the term "water rates," in this act, shall be construed to include "water rents." (a) The commissioners cannot make re-assessments against lands purchased by the chancellor, under foreclosure of mortgages representing funds in court, when the city was made a party to the proceedings and answered, setting up the taxes and assessments as liens on the lands. Ellsworth v. Chancellor, 24 P. 414. Purchasers of such lands from the chancellor for full value, are also exempt from re-assessments for the same taxes and assessments. A. 7. The title acquired under foreclosure of a mortgage to the commissioners of the sinking fund of this state is superior to the title of a purchaser under a sale made under the Martin act for taxes, some of which became a lien prior to the date of the mortgage and others subsequent thereto, the tax sale being made to satisfy the combined taxes. Pach v. Commissioners of Sinking Fund, 14 W. 432. The commissioners cannot fix the sum to be paid for an improvement for which no assessment has been made or attempted. ...ten per centum per annum from the date of the sale, and one dollar for each notice served, as hereinafter provided; and upon such redemption the city shall pay to such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, the amount received from the person redeeming; such notice shall be in writing, and shall be served by the purchaser of the property, or his agent, on said owner or mortgagee, either personally or by leaving the same at his place of abode with a member of his family above the age of fourteen years; in case such owner or mortgagee is a non-resident, or his residence cannot, upon due inquiry, be ascertained, then the notice may be served by publishing the same in a newspaper printed and circulating in the city for a period of six weeks, at least once in each week, and depositing a copy of such notice, within twenty days after its first publication, in the post-office of the city, inclosed in a wrapper, post paid, directed to such owner or mortgagee at his or her last-known post-office address, if the same can be ascertained; inquiry for the residence or post-office address of such owner or mortgagee shall be made by the purchaser or his agent upon the lands purchased at the sale, if they are occupied, and wherever else in the city the same may be likely to be ascertained, and also by an examination of the record of the deed or mortgage on account of which such notice is given; an affidavit shall be made by the purchaser or his agent, setting forth the manner and particulars of the service, and in case the same is made by publication, setting forth what inquiry was made to ascertained the residence and post-office address of such owner or mortgagee, and in such case an affidavit of the publication shall also be made by the person publishing such newspaper, or by some one in his employ having cognizance of the publication, stating the particulars thereof; and the affidavit or affidavits shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city within one month after the date of service, and shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated; the purchaser shall be entitled to the possession of said lands immediately upon giving such notice to the owner thereof, in case the same are unoccupied, or if they are occupied, then within thirty days thereafter; and he shall have the same remedy by writ of assistance or otherwise in the circuit court of the county in which the city is situate, or in the court of chancery, for the recovery of the possession of said lands as the purchaser of mortgaged premises at a foreclosure sale is now or may hereafter be entitled to by any law or practice of this state; provided, however, that if any estate in any of the said lands shall be held by any heir or devisee of a decedent whose estate appears of record in the county, or if any mortgage or lease shall be held by the executor or administrator of any decedent whose mortgage or lease appears of record in the county, such heir, devisee, executor or administrator shall be entitled to redeem and have notice as aforesaid before the purchaser shall be entitled to the possession of the lands; and provided also, that the records and schedules of all sales made under this act shall be filed and kept in the same offices of the several cities wherein records of tax sales are now by law required to be kept.

416. Scc. 7. That all bonds or obligations of the city shall be receivable at par and accrued interest in payment of the tax, assessment and lien imposed under this act, and the sum for which any lot or tract of land may be sold under this act; but no bonds or obligations shall be received for such part thereof as may be imposed in lieu of arrears of annual taxes or water rates except bonds or obligations issued on account of taxes or water rates; provided, that in all cases where the bid shall exceed the amount of the tax, assessment and lien, with interest, the excess shall be paid in cash.

417. Scc. 8. That it shall not be necessary to set out the proceeding under this act at length in the deed for the lands sold, but a general statement therein that such deed was made and executed upon proceedings taken under the authority of this act shall be sufficient.

418. Scc. 9. 430. Sec. 4. That when the said report, or a certified copy thereof, shall have been filed with the comptroller of the city or other officer for collecting assessments, it shall be the duty of said comptroller or other officer forthwith to certify to all officers of the city having custody of records showing liens for taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents, a particular designation of the land and premises affected thereby, whereupon the said comptroller, city collector, city clerk or other officer in whose office any record of taxes, assessments, water rates or water rents, or sales thereof shall remain, shall forthwith cancel upon the records in their respective offices all prior liens for taxes, assessments and water rents or water rates, held by or for the use of said city upon the land and premises included in said report.

An act to authorize the apportionment of taxes, assessments and water rents.

498. SEC. 1. That upon application in writing by any person interested to apportion any taxes, assessments or water rents, which have been or shall be laid upon any plot or parcel of land in any city, town or township, amongst any subdivisions of such plot or parcel, accompanied by a map showing the subdivisions desired, the officer or body to which such application shall be made as herein provided shall have power to make a just apportionment of such taxes, assessments and water rents upon and among such subdivisions or such other subdivisions as it may deem just and proper, and also to apportion, in manner aforesaid, any taxes, assessments and water rents, for non-payment of which any plot or parcel of land has been or shall be sold under the laws relating to such sale, with expenses of sale, in cases where such land has been or shall be bought by the treasurer or other officers of such city, town or township, for the use and benefit thereof, or by such city, town or township. (a) Where land has been laid out and mapped by the owner into lots, it is not erroneous to assess it for taxes by the lot or in blocks, instead of by the acre. State, Clemens v. Parkway, 10 T. 441. It is not within the act of April 21st, 1876, directing certain lands within incorporated districts to be assessed by the acre. 18th. The act of commissioners of appeal in changing an assessment of a land owner by city lots to an assessment of the same land by the acre, without changing the value of the entire tract, does not invalidate the assessment. State, Osier v. Park Homes, 11 T. 146.

(b) An assessment of taxes upon land is not invalidated as against a mortgage upon the property by the mere fact that it covers more land than the mortgage premises. The taxes may be apportioned under the above act. Emerson v. Mentor, 11 N. 350. In an assessment for benefits, it need not affirmatively appear that the commissioners took into consideration each lot, and therefore necessary to enable them to come to a proper determination. State, Ackerson v. North Bergen, 10 T. 494. Where lands of a prosecutor assessed are those contained in what, in the proceedings, is called plot 3, and it appears from the evidence that the plot embraces other lands than those of the prosecutor—Hold, that the assessment could not be sustained on the ground that it cannot be known what proportion of the assessment is properly chargeable to the prosecutor. Th. 18th. The error is not remedied by the act of April 21st, 1876, that act applying only to assessments properly assessed in the same of the right owners. Th. 18th. A condition that an assessment for benefits shall be levied upon each separate lot or parcel of land, or upon the several lots or parcels of land, does not authorize the assessors to levy distinct assessments upon the component parts of a tract of land which the owner has always treated as an entirety. Muller v. Romney, 30 T. 102. If it appear that commissioners authorized to levy an assessment, for the construction of a sewer, upon an entire tract of land on which there are valuable buildings, having ignored the existence of the buildings and levied distinct assessments upon the parts of the tract, dividing it in such a manner necessary to enable them to come to a proper determination, the court cannot infer that the benefit accruing to the entire tract is the aggregate of three distinct assessments. Th. See Rosken v. Oak, 1 Dick. 574.

mittee of any township, the clerk of such town or township shall file the map and report showing such apportionment, and upon such filing the said taxes, assessments or water rents as so apportioned shall be and remain a lien upon such subdivisions in the same manner as if such taxes, assessments or water rents had been originally laid or assessed upon such subdivisions in the separate amounts so apportioned, and upon payment to the proper officer of the amount so apportioned to any subdivision, with interest and penalties added at the same rates as were chargeable on the original taxes, assessments or water rents, respectively, and in case of sale, with the proportion of expenses of sale added, such subdivision shall be discharged from all lien or liability under such taxes, assessments and water rents, and from the effect of such sale therefor.

500. Sec. 3. [Amended by Sec. 503, post.]

501. Sec. 4. That when any of the owners of the lands to be affected do not join in application.

Supplement.

502. Sec. 1. That where any part of any plot or parcel of land has or shall be taken for the opening, widening or extension of any street or avenue in any township or city in this state, all taxes, assessments and water rents that shall be a lien upon the whole plot or parcel of land from which such plot or parcel shall be taken for such opening, widening or extension as aforesaid, shall be equitably and justly apportioned between the plot or parcel so taken for such opening, widening or extension, and the balance that shall remain of the plot or parcel from which the same has or shall be taken as aforesaid, in the same manner and form, and by the same authority as is provided in said act to which this is a supplement.

Amendatory act.

503. Sec. 1. That section third of the act of which this is an amendment [see Sec. 500, ante] be amended to read as follows:

That such powers to apportion shall be vested in and such application made to the mayor and common council, or board of aldermen, or other chief municipal authority of the several cities and towns, and the township committee of the several townships; provided, however, that whenever there is or shall be in any city or town a board of finance or body possessing the general power now exercised by such boards, the power of apportionment as aforesaid shall be vested in, and such application made to that board; and provided further, that whenever there is or shall be in any city an officer called a comptroller, the power aforesaid shall be vested in, and such application made to that officer; and provided further, that whenever there is or shall be, in any city or town, tax commissioners, the power aforesaid shall only be vested in, and such application made to said tax commissioners.]

That the taxes assessed on entailed property, or property held in trust, or for life, shall be paid out of income from such property, or by the person or persons having the present beneficial interest therein; and the person or persons whose duty it may be to pay such income may pay said taxes, and the amount thus paid may be deducted from the income on presenting to the party receiving the income the collector's receipt for the said taxes; but in case the taxes so assessed shall be on real estate, and the person or persons holding said real estate in trust, or having a beneficial interest therein, shall fail to pay the taxes, the taxes assessed or laid thereon shall be a lien on said real estate.] (a)

An act to authorize the purchase of goods and chattels at sale for delinquent taxes.

Approved March 12, 1879. P. L. 1879, p. 122. City or township authorized to purchase goods and chattels at tax sale.

532. Sec. 1. That at the sale of goods and chattels of delinquent taxpayers for the non-payment of taxes, if there shall be no purchaser or purchasers of the said goods and chattels so exposed for sale, then it shall be lawful for any officer of any city or township attending the sale so made, to purchase the same for the benefit of said city or township.

An act to prohibit imprisonment for default in payment of taxes on real estate.

WHEREAS, It has been held by the court of errors and appeals that taxes duly assessed for and on account of real property are not necessarily first liens thereon, but are to be deferred to mortgages which have been made

(a) The act to which the above is a supplement, approved February 25th, 1879, was not required to take effect immediately. Consequently, pursuant to the general act relative to statutes, it went into effect July 1st, 1879, and not before, and did not operate upon assessments for that year, which, under the general act concerning taxes, were required to be made as of May 25th. "Dickson v. Allen," 14 C. 414: The act affects three classes of property, viz., entailed property, property held in trust and property held for life. It is not applicable to the interest of an annuitant holding a mortgage merely as security for an annuity, and having no property in the fund. 7th. A statute directing that taxes assessed upon property held in trust for life should be assessed in the name of the person entitled to the beneficial interest or income thereof, does not authorize an assessment against the annuitant or the principal thereof, after her death, payable to the chancellor. upon such property previously to the assessment of such taxes thereon; and whereas, the equity of redemption or legal title to real property to a very large extent is vested in persons who, by reason of the depreciation in value of such property, or other misfortunes, are unable to pay the taxes thereon; and whereas, constables and other officers charged with the collection of taxes, finding it impossible to collect the same from owners who cannot pay, and from mortgagees who will not pay, may obtain warrants for the imprisonment of the bodies of such owners so delinquent, under and by virtue of section eighteen of an act concerning taxes (Revision of Statutes of New Jersey, page 1142), to the great hardship, suffering and disgrace of such owners and their families, and to the discredit of this state; therefore,

533. Sec. 1. That hereafter no warrant shall be issued by any justice of the peace or other officer of this state, to any constable or other officer, directing or authorizing the arrest or imprisonment of any person for or on account of any default or delinquency in the payment of taxes on real estate; but nothing in this act shall be construed to affect or in anywise to abridge or impair any provision other than arrest and imprisonment for the collection of taxes.

An act to regulate the taxing and assessing of lands heretofore sold, or which may hereafter be sold in any city, incorporated town or township of this state for non-payment of taxes, assessments or water rents, and which lands may have been or may hereafter be purchased by said city, town or township, or by any person in its behalf.

Taxes, assessments and water rents to be continued upon lands or real estate sold to city, &c., for non-payment of taxes, &c.

534. Sec. 1. That in any city, incorporated town or township of this state in which lands or real estate have been heretofore sold or shall be hereafter sold for non-payment of taxes, assessments or water rents, and purchased by such city, town or township, or by any person in its behalf, subject to the right of redemption provided for by law, the taxes, assessments and water rents shall continue to be assessed upon said lands or real estate in the hands of such city, town or township, or the person holding in its behalf; but it shall not be necessary to advertise said lands for sale for non-payment of any such tax, assessment or water rent now laid or hereafter to be laid, or to sell said lands or real estate therefor, and said taxes, assessments and water rents, with interest at ten per centum per annum, unless such interest shall be fixed by such city at a rate not less than six nor more than ten per centum, shall be and remain a first lien upon said lands or real estate, and shall be paid to such city before said lands or real estate can be redeemed. (a)

535. Sec. 2. That any such city, town or township shall have power to sell said lands or real estate, and to direct the transfer of the declaration of sale now authorized by law to be issued, subject to the right of redemption provided for by law, to any person paying the amount of the taxes, assessments or water rents for which said lands or real estate may have been sold, and the subsequent taxes, assessments or water rents assessed and made a lien, pursuant to the provisions of this act, and after the expiration of the time for redemption and the giving of the notices required by law to be given to any mortgagee or other person, such sale or transfer shall vest in such purchaser all the estate which such city, town or township, or the person holding in its behalf, may have in said lands or real estate.

536. Sec. 3. That no fees shall be allowed to or paid to any official for any services connected with the assessing or collecting of any such tax, assessment or water rent.

TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS.

An act relative to the time of appointing tax assessors in cities.

WHEREAS, In cities whose charters provide for the appointment of a tax assessor after the charter elections occurring in the spring great inconvenience arises from want of time to prepare suitable lists of ratables to present to the county board of assessors, which meets in the month of June; therefore,

537. Sec. 1. That in all cities of this state having between five and six thousand inhabitants by the last state census, and whose charters prescribe that a tax assessor shall be appointed by the municipal authorities thereof, said authorities may appoint such tax assessor during the months of February or March in the year of the passage of this act and during said months in every second year thereafter, who shall hold his office for the term of one year from the first day of April of the year during which said appointment is made, such office to be held subject to the provisions of the respective charters of said cities, except as herein provided.

538. Sec. 2. That should the powers granted under this act be exercised by the authorities of any city, as above stated, then and in that case all acts or parts of acts, and all and any provision contained in the charter or the supplements thereto of any such city, so far as they relate to said city, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

An act entitled "An act concerning taxes and assessments and arrears of taxes and assessments in towns and townships."

539. Sec. 1. That it shall be lawful for the town council or township committee of any town or township in this state to authorize and direct the collector or receiver of taxes, or other proper officer or officers of such town or township, to receive and collect upon all taxes and assessments remaining due and unpaid in whole or in part, at the date of the passage of this act, interest at such rate, not exceeding twelve per centum nor less than seven per centum per annum, as shall be determined by said town council or township committee, from the time when such taxes or assessments became due and payable.

540. Sec. 2. That in cases of sales of lands heretofore made for arrears of taxes or assessments in any town or township in this state, where such town or township has become the purchaser, it shall be lawful for the town council or township committee to authorize and direct the treasurer or other proper officer of such town or township to cancel and surrender any certificate of sale held by such town or township, upon the payment to him of the amount of tax or assessment, for or on account of which said sale was made, with interest from the time when such tax or assessment became due and payable, at such rate not exceeding twelve per centum nor less than seven per centum per annum, as shall be determined by such town council or township committee, and the costs and expense of selling such land; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to cases where such certificate of sale shall be held by any person or persons other than such town or township.

541. Sec. 3. That it shall be lawful for the town council or township committee of any town or township to authorize and direct the collector or receiver of taxes, or other proper officer or officers of such township, to receive and collect upon all taxes and assessments which may hereafter be levied, assessed or imposed by such town or township, and which may remain wholly or partly due at or after the expiration of the time limited by law for the payment thereof, such rate of interest not exceeding twelve per centum nor less than seven per centum per annum as shall be determined by such town council or township committee.

542. Sec. 4. That the town council or township committee may, by a general order or resolution, determine what rate of interest, not exceeding twelve per centum nor less than seven per centum per annum, shall be

543. SEC. 5. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

An act concerning commissioners of appeal.

544. SEC. 1. That in any incorporated city of this state where the time for the annual meeting of the commissioners of appeal in cases of taxation is now provided for by charter, the city council of such city shall have power to change, by ordinance, the time of meeting of said board to such date as they may deem proper.

An act in relation to the arrears of taxes in cities.

545. SEC. 1. That when in any of the cities of this state taxes shall remain unpaid for the period of one year after the same shall become due and payable, said taxes may be paid in any of the municipal bonds of said city which may have been issued in anticipation of taxes; provided, that the bonds issued by any city in anticipation of the collection of the amount of unpaid taxes, for which the city had purchased real estate at the sale for said unpaid taxes, shall only be received by any city in lieu of money payments for the taxes so purchased by any city, and in anticipation of which said bonds had been issued. (a)

546. SEC. 2. That such bonds shall be received by said city in lieu of money payments for said taxes at the par or face value, with the interest accrued thereon.

A general act respecting taxes, assessments and water rates.

547. SEC. 1. That no tax, assessment or water rate, imposed or levied in this state, shall be set aside or reversed in any court of law or equity in any action, suit or proceeding for any irregularity or defect in form, or illegality in assessing, laying or levying any such tax, assessment or rate, or in the proceeding for collecting the same, if the person against whom, or the property upon which such tax, assessment or rate is assessed or laid is, in fact, liable to taxation, or assessment or imposition of such water rate, in respect of the purposes for which such tax, assessment or rate is levied, assessed or laid; and the court in which any action, suit or proceeding is or shall be pending to review any such tax, assessment or water rate is required to amend all irregularities, or errors, or defects, and is empowered, if need be, to ascertain and determine for what sum such person or property was legally liable to taxation, or assessment, or water rate, and by order or decree to fix the amount thereof; and the sum so fixed shall be the amount of tax, assessment or water rate for which such person or property shall be liable, and the same shall be and remain a first lien or charge upon the property and persons, and collectible in the manner provided by law, the same as if such tax, assessment or water rate had been legally levied, assessed or imposed in the first instance by the city, town, township, commission, board or other authority attempting to make, impose or levy the same; it shall be the duty of the court to make a proper levy, imposition or assessment in all cases in which there may lawfully be an assessment, imposition or levy; and such court is hereby given full and ample authority to make a lawful levy, assessment or imposition. (a) See Sheridan v. City of Rahway, 16 N.J. Eq. 587.
(b) This act should be liberally construed. It was designed to correct the evils arising from the frequent evasions of taxation by means of errors and omissions in the form and manner of assessment. Its provisions apply to taxes assessed before the same was passed. State v. Monmouth and the assessed tax roll. 15 N.J. Eq. 484. Where the objection was made that the land of R. B. was assessed for taxes in the name of F. R., it was held that if such assessment were irregular and defective, it would be the duty of the court to amend it under the above act. Clark v. Mulford, 14 N.J. Eq. 580; affirmed, 16 N.J. Eq. 489. Morgan v. Elizabeth, 18 N.J. Eq. 574. Where the state and county taxes of Plainfield were assessed, by mistake, under the general tax act instead of the city charter, which latter act provides for an assessment, for the meeting of the commissioners of appeal, and for the return of delinquents, at a different time from the assessment in the general act, it was held that insuch case it appeared that the property of the petitioner was assessed for no more than it would have been under the city charter, and that he had notice of the meeting of the commissioners of appeal, the irregularities

That when any sale of lands for delinquent taxes has been made prior to the year eighteen hundred and eighty, or shall hereafter be made in any township of this state, by any township committee or township officer, under the provisions of any general or special law of this state, such sale, with the proceedings founded thereon, shall not be vacated or set aside by any court of this state, in any suit hereafter brought for the review of such sale or proceedings, on account of any insufficiency of the description of said lands assessed in the assessor’s duplicate, or failure of the township clerk to record in the township book of minutes all the proceedings relative to such sales, but such sales, notwithstanding such defects, shall be deemed valid; provided, it can be shown by other legal evidence that the lands so sold for taxes were the lands intended to be assessed, and that the sale thereof was made in compliance with the provisions of the law, and it is hereby made and provided that it shall be lawful in all cases to offer such evidence.

556. Sec. 2. That when any such sale has been made to the inhabitants of any township of this state, under the provisions of any general or special law, such sale, and the proceedings thereon, if the assessment itself is valid, shall not be vacated or set aside in any suit hereafter brought in any court of this state, for any of the aforementioned defects, except on conditions that the amount of the tax assessed, with all arrears of interest, be paid or tendered by the party prosecuting such suit, to the treasurer of

558. Sec. 2. That this act shall apply to all municipalities to which its provisions are applicable, notwithstanding any provision contained in the charter or law under which they may be governed, limiting the percentage on the valuation of the assessable property therein, for which money may be raised by tax.

559. Sec. 3. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, and this act shall go into effect immediately.

A further act concerning cities.

Approved March 17, 1882

560. Sec. 1. That the common council of any city may fix by ordinance the times and dates within which taxes required by law to be raised in such city, whether state, county, municipal or other taxes, shall be assessed; as well as the times and dates when the same shall become due and within which the same shall be collected, the date of the session of the commissioners of appeal, and the date on which the collector of taxes in said city shall make return of the names of the delinquents in the payment of such taxes, in order to the issue of warrants for the collection of taxes due from such delinquents respectively; and whenever the common council of any city shall so fix such times, dates and periods as aforesaid, all provisions of law affecting such city, so far as they fix such dates, times and periods otherwise, shall be suspended and of no effect so far as concerns such city, during the continuance of such ordinance unrebated; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the fixing of any date, time or period as aforesaid, later than the several corresponding dates, times or periods for the assessment, time of falling due, collection, session of the commissioners of appeal and return of delinquents, which are or shall at any time be fixed by the general law in respect of townships.

561. Sec. 2. That every city shall have full power, through its appropriate officers, to assess and collect its full quotas of state, state school and county taxes, and that said taxes shall, in each city, be assessed and collected by the same officers and in the same manner as municipal taxes in such city are or shall be by law directed or authorized to be assessed and collected, respectively, and the names of delinquents in the payment of such taxes shall also, so far as said taxes shall remain unpaid, be returned, with the sums due from such delinquents, respectively, in the same manner and to the same magistrate, as the names of delinquents in the payment of municipal taxes in such city are by law required to be returned; every assessor and collector who is by law charged with any duty in respect to the assessment or collection of municipal taxes in any city, is hereby empowered and directed to perform the like duties, in respect to the assessment and collection, respectively, of such city's quotas of state, state school and county taxes, and the common council of such city is hereby empowered and directed to exercise the like authority, supervision and control over and in respect to the assessment, collection and enforcement of such city's quotas of state, state school and county taxes, as well as of its taxes for municipal and other local purposes, as township committees of townships are by law empowered to exercise over and in respect to the assessment, collection and enforcement of state, state school and county taxes required to be raised in townships, and any balance of moneys remaining in the hands of the treasurer of any city, derived from the levy of state, state school or county taxes for any year, shall, after the quota of state, state school and county taxes, due from the taxes of such city for that year, and for all previous years, has been paid in full, be transferred to the general fund, and belong to and be applicable to the general municipal or other purposes of such city.

562. Sec. 3. That after the date fixed, pursuant to the provisions of this act, by the common council of any city for the return of the names of delinquents in the payment of any taxes, the magistrate to whom any such return in such city shall have been made, shall thereupon issue his warrant, and if required, shall issue from time to time successive alias and pluries warrants, for the collection of such taxes, to such officer as shall have been or shall be designated by such common council to receive the same, commanding him to collect such taxes, with the interest and costs by law chargeable thereon, by levy and sale of personal property, in like manner as justices of the peace in townships are authorized by law to issue warrants for the collection of taxes in townships, and with the like force and effect; and such common council may at any time revoke the designation of any such officer, and designate another for the like purpose, who shall have the like powers; and the officer to whom any such warrant shall have been issued is hereby empowered and directed to collect all taxes by such warrant commanded to be collected, whether such taxes be for state, county, municipal or other purposes, and to this end he is empowered and directed to levy upon and sell personal property of delinquents so far as may be necessary to collect the amounts due from them respectively for such taxes, with the interest and costs by law chargeable thereon, in like manner as is required or authorized by law in respect to or upon similar warrants issued in townships.

563. Sec. 4. That whenever, by reason of any ambiguity or inconsistency in or misconstruction of existing laws, or for any other reason, no legal return of the names of delinquents in the payment of any taxes now or heretofore due and payable in any city has been made, then, and in such case, at any time within six months after the passage of this act, a return of the names of delinquents in the payment of such taxes, with the sums due from them respectively, shall be made by the collector for the time being to the magistrate to whom, by the foregoing provisions of this act, returns are required to be made; provided, that the common council of such city shall by resolution so direct; and upon the receipt of such return and upon the request of such common council, such magistrate shall issue his warrant, and if required, shall issue from time to time successive alias and pluries warrants, for the collection of such taxes, to such officer as shall have been or shall be designated by such common council to receive the same, commanding him to collect such taxes, with the interest and costs by law chargeable thereon, by levy and sale of personal property, in like manner as justices of the peace in townships are authorized by law to issue warrants for the collection of taxes in townships, and with the like force and effect; and such common council may at any time revoke the designation of any such officer, and designate another for the like purpose, who shall have the like powers; and the officer to whom any such warrant

P. L. 1883, p. 175.

567. Scc. 1. An act to provide for and secure the raising of revenue for the execution of the public duties of maintaining public schools, preventing the destruction of property by fire, preserving the public health, supporting the poor, maintaining police and keeping the highways and streets in a safe condition for public use within the limits of incorporated cities, towns and municipalities in cases where the local or municipal authorities or officers fail to provide for the performance of such duties.

Approved March 20, 1864.

576. Sec. 1. That whenever, in any incorporated city, town or municipality in this state, the local authorities, boards or officers authorized by law to assess and levy the taxes enumerated and defined in section five hereof shall not be in existence and qualified to act at the time when by law assessments or valuations of taxable property may be commenced; or whenever such local authorities, boards or officers shall for any cause whatever neglect or fail to commence the assessment or valuation of property for the purpose of taxation for the space of ten days after the time fixed by law when taxes become a lien upon land in such city, town or municipality; or shall neglect or fail to levy the taxes specified in section five hereof at the time required by law, it shall be the duty of the governor, in either of the said cases, to cause a notice to be given the mayor of such city, town or municipality, if there be any such officer, or to the president or chairman of the legislative or governing body, if there be no mayor, calling attention to the fact that the local authorities, boards or officers authorized to levy such taxes are not in existence and qualified to act as aforesaid, or that they have neglected or failed as aforesaid to levy said taxes, which notice shall further state that unless proceedings be duly taken to make the assessment, valuation or levy within ten days after the giving of the notice, that the governor will appoint commissioners of taxation under this act to make the assessment and levy of taxes as herein provided; if the governor, at the expiration of said ten days, shall be satisfied that the said vacancies still exist, or that the said local authorities or boards of officers have not commenced the assessment and valuation of property for taxation, or that said taxes have not been levied at the time required by law, it shall thereupon be the duty of the governor to appoint and commission three freeholders, who shall be residents of such city, town or municipality, to be known as "commissioners of taxation," whose duty it shall be, under the authority of this act, to assess and levy the taxes specified in section five hereof, as herein provided, and to discharge all other duties required hereby.

577. Sec. 2. That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to meet and organize by the election of a chairman and secretary immediately after their appointment, and proceed to assess all the property in the city, town or municipality subject to taxation at its full and fair value; they shall tabulate and arrange lists in suitable books, which shall exhibit in alphabetical order, or otherwise, the names of all persons, firms or corporations liable to be assessed to pay any tax, together with the value, enumerations and assessment of the objects subject to taxation, for which each person, firm or corporation is liable, and complete the same at a date three weeks prior to the annual meeting of the assessors of the county; and at least four weeks prior to the meeting of the assessors of the county, the said commissioners shall give notice by advertisement in at least one newspaper, (a) The commissioners of taxation appointed under this act have no power to levy taxes for any purposes other than those particularly specified in the act. Thompson v. Wingo, 17 P. 748. Under this act, the power of the commissioners is confined to cases where the local authorities or officers were bound by law to provide for the performance of some public duties to which the title refers, and they have failed so to do. Allen v. Township of Bernards, 28 P. 500. Where the amount to be raised for the discharge of these public duties is by law committed to the discretion of the local authorities, and they have lawfully exercised their discretion, commissioners of taxation have no power to change the amount so ordered. 16.

published or generally circulating in said city, town or municipality, that the books containing said lists will be open for public inspection, examination and correction, at some suitable place therein, for two weeks, being the second and third weeks preceding the meeting of the assessors of the county, during which time the said commissioners shall consider all complaints touching such assessments and make corrections therein; but no assessment shall be increased during said period of two weeks without a previous notice in writing of three days to the party interested; and it shall be lawful for said commissioners to require all parties liable to taxation to render an account of their taxable property in such manner as they shall direct, and to require by summons the attendance of witnesses, and the production of books and papers, and to enforce obedience to such requirements in the manner now provided by law in such city, town or municipality.

578. Sec. 3. That the said commissioners shall attend all the meetings of the assessors of the county, and immediately after the adjournment of the annual meeting of said assessors the commissioners shall proceed to fix such a percentage upon the gross valuation of the taxable property in such municipality for the current year as will produce the amount of tax required to be raised in said year for the purposes specified in this act, which shall be declared by them to be the rate of taxation for said year, and they shall complete the said lists and deliver the same, within three weeks from the time of fixing the rate, to the officer or officers of the city, town or municipality whose duty it is to collect taxes levied therein.

579. Sec. 4. That it shall be the duty of the commissioners to make out the bills or notices of demand of the payment of said taxes, and notices of the meeting of said commissioners, as hereinafter provided, and shall forthwith serve, or cause to be served, such bills and notices on all resident taxpayers, and mail the same to all non-resident taxpayers whose residences are known; and the said commissioners shall meet at the time and place stated in said notice (which shall be within thirty days after the delivery of the said books to the officer or officers whose duty it is to collect taxes), and shall hear and determine, by a vote of a majority of the commissioners, appeals from said assessments by all persons who shall make it appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the commissioners that they were absent from the municipality or disabled by sickness from appearing during the second and third weeks preceding the meeting of the assessors of the county, and the said commissioners shall meet from day to day, until all applications shall be disposed of, to hear said appeals, and shall deliver a particular statement of all taxes increased or remitted by them to the officer or officers for the collection of taxes.

580. Sec. 5. That the commissioners appointed in pursuance of this act shall have power to levy taxes for such sums as they shall deem expedient for the following and no other purposes:

I. For the support of public schools and the repair of school-houses;

II. For protecting property within such city, town or municipality from fire;

III. For the protection and maintenance of the public health within such city, town or municipality;

IV. For the maintenance and support of the poor;

V. For the support and maintenance of a police force within such city, town or municipality;

VI. For keeping the highways and streets within the limits of such city, town or municipality in a safe condition for public use;

VII. For the expenses of assessing and collecting the taxes levied under this act, and in addition thereto a sum to meet deficiencies, not exceeding ten per cent. of the sums required to be raised for the above-stated purposes;

All taxes levied in pursuance of this act shall be applied solely to the purposes for which they were levied; and it shall be unlawful to appropriate or use, or direct or order their appropriation or use, for any other purpose or purposes whatever.
581. Sec. 6. That no tax, levied in pursuance of this act, in any one year, for all purposes, shall exceed one and one-fourth per cent. of the assessed value of the property subject to taxation in the same year.

582. Sec. 7. That all taxes levied in pursuance of this act shall be collected and received by the appropriate officers of the municipality according to the laws in force for the collection of taxes therein, and they shall give bonds to the state of New Jersey in such sum as the governor shall direct, and with such securities as he shall approve, for the faithful performance of their duties under this act; it shall be the duty of the officers to whom warrants for the collection of taxes shall be directed and delivered to seize and sell so much of the personal property belonging to any delinquent as may be found on the premises from which any tax is due for either real or personal property, and the tenants or other persons in possession or having the care of any lands or tenements, and their goods and chattels, shall be and they hereby are made liable for the payment of taxes which shall be imposed on the said lands under this act; and in all cases when any tenant shall owe any rent for real estate occupied or rented by him, on which any tax levied in pursuance of this act may be due, said rent shall be paid to the collector of taxes in discharge of said tax, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to satisfy the amount of tax so due; and if any such tenant or other person shall pay, or his goods and chattel shall be levied on and sold to pay, any such tax, it shall be lawful for him to deduct the sum so paid out of the rent, or to recover the same from the landlord or owner by action of debt with costs. (a)

583. Sec. 8. That taxes levied for the purposes enumerated and defined in this act shall be valid, notwithstanding they may be assessed or levied by said commissioners prior or subsequent to the time fixed by existing laws.

584. Sec. 9. That taxes levied in pursuance of this act shall be collected, paid over, disbursed, appropriated, apportioned pro rata among the objects herein named and expended by the same officers or bodies, and in the same manner, as if they had been levied by the board of officers whose duty it was under the existing laws to have levied the same, and all taxes levied on real estate shall be a first lien thereon prior to all other incumbrances; this act shall not be construed to repeal, modify or affect the power to collect or the mode of collecting taxes, or of selling real estate for unpaid taxes, or of paying over, holding, disbursing, appropriating, apportioning and expending the same, except so far as is otherwise expressly provided herein.

585. Sec. 10. That each commissioner appointed under this act shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, and within ten days after his appointment, take and subscribe an oath of office faithfully to discharge his duty under this act, and file the same in the office of the secretary of state, and he shall, unless sooner removed by the governor, hold office for the term of one year from the date of appointment, except in case of an appointment to fill a vacancy caused by the death, resignation or removal from the city, town or municipality of any commissioner, and in such cases the appointment shall be for the unexpired term only, and at the expiration of one year from the time when the commissioners shall be first appointed, and annually thereafter, they shall be eligible to re-appointment, or others may be appointed in their place, as provided in the first section of this act; the governor shall have power to fill all vacancies, whether occasioned by death, resignation or removal.

586. Sec. 11. That whenever the governor, after the appointment of such commissioners, shall be satisfied that any such city, town or municipality, through its local and proper officers, has duly caused to be levied for the year the said taxes herein enumerated and defined, he shall revoke the commissions of the said "commissioners of taxation" for the said city, town or municipality, and shall not appoint other commissioners until the happening of one or more of the conditions specified in the first section hereof.

(a) This section of the act does not give the right to seize for taxes all goods found on the premises, but only those of the delinquent or other person in possession or having the care of the premises. Myers v. Poinsett, 13 N. J. L. 718. The goods of a wife living with her husband, who is the tenant of the house, are not subject to seizure under this section. 16.
587. Sec. 12. That when commissioners shall be appointed and shall have levied taxes in pursuance of this act for any given year, the local officers or board of such city, town or municipality shall not for the same year levy taxes for any of the purposes for which taxes have been levied under this act.

588. Sec. 13. That the said commissioners and all officers, bodies or boards who shall be concerned in the collection, holding, disbursing, paying over and expending or directing the expenditure of the taxes or the proceeds of the taxes levied in pursuance of this act, shall be for all purposes of this act, and as respects said taxes and their proceeds, the officers of the state, and any official bonds given or to be given by them shall enure to the benefit of the state as well as to any person or corporation interested therein.

589. Sec. 14. That the said commissioners shall be paid for their services such compensation as the governor shall determine, not exceeding six per cent. of the amount of taxes levied under this act in the same year, which compensation shall include disbursement for all clerical assistance, stationery and other necessary expenses; and the officers who shall collect the said taxes shall receive for their services the fees and salaries now allowed to them by law for similar services in the municipality, and in lieu thereof, which compensation, fees or salaries shall be levied and paid out of the taxes collected under this act.

590. Sec. 15. That all acts and parts of acts, general, special or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Supplement.

591. Sec. 1. That no tax heretofore levied under the act to which this is a supplement shall be set aside or holden to be null and void in any court of judicature or elsewhere, for any informality or irregularity in the levy or assessment of the same, or because such tax exceeded the amount needed for the specific objects for which the same was levied during the year in which the same was so levied, or because the amount levied differed from the amount ordered to be raised by the municipality in which the same was levied; and all such taxes and proceedings to levy and collect the same are hereby ratified and confirmed; provided, always, that any such tax does not exceed the percentage limited by the act to which this is a supplement, and that the property upon which the same was levied was liable to taxation in such municipality. (a)

592. Sec. 2. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

An act to enforce the payment of taxes in cities of this state.

593. Sec. 1. That when any tax hereafter levied upon real estate shall remain in arrear and unpaid for the space of one year, it shall be lawful for the collector of taxes to receive from any person other than the owner payment of the amount of said tax, with all arrears of interest due thereon, which payment shall be called a "tax purchase;" such tax purchase shall not discharge said tax, nor the lien thereof, but the collector shall thereupon deliver to the tax purchaser a receipt for the same, and he and his assigns shall be entitled to be reimbursed the amount so paid to the city, with interest at eight per centum per annum, as hereinafter stated; any person interested in such property, or anyone in behalf of such interested person, may, at any time before the sale hereinafter provided for, discharge said tax and the lien thereof by paying the amount paid by such tax purchaser, with interest at eight per centum per annum, to the city treasurer for the use of such tax purchaser and his assigns.

594. Sec. 2. That all real estate upon which any tax hereafter levied shall become and be in arrear and unpaid by the owner for the space of five years from the time when such tax became due, shall be sold as hereinafter provided; such sale may be made at any time after the expiration of said five years, and the lien and the priority thereof given by the charters of said cities respectively, or by any law of this state, for taxes levied in said cities, shall always exist as so given, notwithstanding the changes in the time and manner of sale made by this act.

595. Sec. 3. That if such real estate shall, at the time of making such sale, be improved property, it shall be sold for the shortest term for which any person will agree to take the same and pay to the city all arrears of taxes levied after this act takes effect, and due at the date of said sale, with the interest thereon, and all costs, charges and expenses, and the mayor and city clerk shall execute a deed or declaration of sale for said property, under the corporate seal of said city, and deliver the same to the purchaser.

596. Sec. 4. That if such real estate shall be unimproved property, the smallest portion of the same which any person will take and pay all arrears of taxes levied after this act takes effect, and due at the date of such sale, and interest and costs, upon the whole property, shall be sold to such person so agreeing to take the smallest portion thereof, and a deed shall be executed by the mayor and city clerk, under the corporate seal of the city, and delivered, and it shall convey to said purchaser the portion so sold in fee-simple.

597. Sec. 5. That out of the proceeds of the sale made in either of the methods stated in this act, there shall be paid to any tax purchaser, or his assigns, the amount due to him or them upon any tax purchase of any tax for the payment of which the property has been sold.

598. Sec. 6. That all real estate shall be classed by the assessors as improved or as unimproved property; improved property is real estate capable, at the time of assessing the tax, of producing an annual rent double the amount of the then last annual tax; unimproved property is real estate which is not capable, at the time of assessing the tax, of producing such an annual rent; but if the owner of any real estate shall make affidavit, and deliver the same to the assessors, that it is doubtful whether his property is capable of producing such annual rental, then the assessors shall class such property as unimproved real estate; or if any owner shall make affidavit that he believes that his property will produce such an annual rent, then the assessors shall class the same as improved real estate; as far as practicable, real estate shall be assessed in such lots and plots as it is designated by upon some map filed in a public office in the city or county, preference being given to an official city map; when the property is so situated that one or more vacant lots may be assessed separately from the plot or lots upon which the principal building and its appurtenant buildings stand, such vacant lot or lots shall be so assessed separately, unless the owner shall request such vacant lots to be included with the improved property in one assessment; no objection shall be heard or entertained to the classification of property as improved or unimproved unless the same is presented to the commissioners of appeal in cases of taxation, or to the supreme court, by certiorari, within one year from the time such tax becomes payable.

599. Sec. 7. That in selling unimproved property for taxes, when less than the whole of any tract of land, or when less than the whole of any number of lots lying together in one tract and belonging to the same person, shall be sold, it shall be the duty of the city officer to divide the said property for the purpose of sale in such a manner as shall be least detrimental to the portion remaining unsold; the owner shall be entitled to designate the portions to be first offered for sale and the order in which lots shall be sold; and if, at such sale, no person shall bid off a part of such tract, or one or more of said lots, for the sum required to pay the amount due upon the whole tract, or the whole number of lots so lying

Together, then the whole of said tract or the whole number of lots so lying together shall be offered to the highest bidder for cash; if more than sufficient to pay the amount due be realized from such sale, the surplus shall be paid into the city treasury, subject to the order of the owner.

600. Sec. 8. That if, in either of the cases of sale provided for by this act, there shall be no bidder, or in case of a sale of unimproved property to the highest bidder there shall be no bid of a sufficient sum to pay the amount due, then the sale may be made to the city treasurer for the use of the city, and in such case the city may, after such sale, at any time, without public notice, assign its bid or sell such lands to any person, and deliver to such person a proper deed or assignment.

601. Sec. 9. That the proceedings for sale shall be conducted in like manner and on like notice and advertisement of such proceedings as now conducted in the respective cities; no sale shall be attacked collaterally, but may be set aside upon certiorari only; the deed or declaration of sale, duly executed or proved as required by law, shall be, in all proceedings, presumptive evidence of a lawful assessment of tax and of a lawful sale, notwithstanding any error in or omission of any recital in such deed or declaration; no sale shall be set aside for any irregularity or defect in the proceedings if the property so sold was actually liable for a tax for which, if correctly assessed and unpaid, the property might have been sold under proper proceedings; provided, the court is satisfied that the notice given of such sale was a fair one; the only causes for which a sale may be set aside shall be a want of fair notice of sale and such other equitable causes as would be sufficient in a court of equity to set aside a sale made by a trustee invested with the legal title for the purpose of sale; and if set aside it shall be upon such terms as, in the judgment of the court, shall be equitable to the purchaser; the court may, upon any certiorari to set aside any tax or sale, or upon any application made by a purchaser at a tax sale, on petition to the supreme court or court of chancery, summarily correct any error in the description of the property or in the amount of tax, and may apportion any tax improperly assessed upon any properties which should have been assessed separately; in case of a reduction of the amount of tax, the city, if it shall have received the full amount, shall refund to the person equitably entitled thereto the sum reduced, with interest.

602. Sec. 10. That in all cases of sales under the provisions of this act, the property shall be sold for the full amount of all taxes in arrear levied after this act takes effect and before the date of such sale, and the property so sold shall be sold subject to the lien of all taxes, if any, which have been legally levied at the time this act takes effect and shall be unpaid at the time of said sale, and to all lawful assessments, if any, which have been or shall have been made for public improvements up to the time of such sale, and subject, also, to all water rents due at the time of such sale and which then remain unpaid; and the lien of such taxes, assessment and water rent shall remain unaffected, and the payment of the same may be enforced in any manner and by any proceedings which might lawfully be used if this act had not been passed.

603. Sec. 11. That the property sold under this act may be redeemed by the owner or any other person interested therein, or by any person in his or their behalf, at any time within one year from the date of said sale, and at any time before the expiration of six months' notice in writing, given to the owner, either personally or (if he is not to be found in the city, then) by mail, addressed to his last-known place of residence, by paying to the treasurer of the city, for the use of the purchaser, the said purchase-money, together with any other sum paid for taxes or other municipal charges, which the said purchaser may have paid, with interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum; such notice may be given by the purchaser at said sale at any time, and it shall be the duty of the person serving, or causing the same to be served, to file in the city clerk's office a copy of the notice served, together with an affidavit proving the due service of said notice; and such affidavit shall be evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein contained.
604. Sec. 12. That if any tax shall be set aside, or if any tax title shall, by the judgment of a competent court, be adjudged illegal, any person making a tax purchase of such tax, as provided in section two, or any person purchasing at a sale for such tax, as provided in this act, shall be entitled to receive from the city the amount so paid by him, with lawful interest from the date of such tax purchase or sale, and to recover the same in an action of debt.

605. Sec. 13. That this act shall not apply to any city until its provisions shall be accepted by the people of such city by a majority of the votes cast at any charter or general election to be held in said city, in pursuance of an ordinance submitting the same to such acceptance; and the words "hereafter levied," wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean levied after this act shall have been accepted, as herein provided.

606. Sec. 14. That the board of aldermen or common council of any city may, by ordinance, at any time, submit the question of the acceptance or rejection of this act to the voters at any charter or general election; and if a majority of those who shall vote for the acceptance or rejection shall be in favor of the acceptance of the act, then this act shall go into effect immediately, and the grant of powers herein made to any such city shall be deemed to be accepted by such city, and such city shall be bound by the terms of this act; persons entitled to vote at any charter or municipal election, where this question is submitted to them, shall express their assent or rejection of this act by depositing their ballots in the box provided for depositing ballots at such election in the election precincts or wards of any such city; and those who are in favor of the acceptance of this act, and the grants and powers therein contained, shall each deposit a ballot containing the words "act to collect taxes accepted," written or printed thereon, and those who are opposed shall each deposit a ballot with the words "act to collect taxes rejected," written or printed thereon; and this acceptance or rejection may be expressed upon the ballot on which are the names of the state, city or ward officers, and no separate ballot shall be required for the purpose of this vote; there shall be a canvass, on the return of the votes, upon this question of such acceptance or rejection, made by the election officers in the same way and manner as for officers voted for at such election; and if a majority of the ballots on which there shall be either the words "act to collect taxes accepted" or "act to collect taxes rejected," shall be found to be for the acceptance of this act, it shall then, but not otherwise, go into effect and be binding upon such city wherein such vote shall have been taken.

607. Sec. 15. That all acts and parts of acts, general and special, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.
